Timber Land. Act June 3, 1878. NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

United States Land Office. The Dalles, Oregon, November 23, 1906. Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, Peter N. Vilsbort, of Madras, county of Crook, state of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 2746 for the purchase of the SW 1/4 SE 1/4, Sec. 30 & NW 1/4 NE 1/4 section No. 31, in Township No. 12 S., Range No. 16 E., W. M., and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before Don P. Rea, U. S. Commr. at his office in Madras, Oregon on, the 27th day of March, 1907.

He names as witnesses: Louis T. Larsen, and Jacob H. Peterson, of Madras, Oregon. Sam Compton and William McMeekin, of Grizzly, Oregon.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 27th day of March, 1907.

Smith-Belknap Marriage.

Miss Grace Belknap, a sister of Dr. H. P. Belknap of this city, was united in marriage Sunday, Feb. 4, to Guy W. Smith, of San Jose, at the residence of the bride's brother, Harvey Belknap in Los Gatos. One of the local papers gives the following account of the wedding:

The ceremony took place at 2 o'clock and was performed by the Rev. J. Durham, of Irvington, uncle of the groom.

The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the color scheme in the parlors being pink, white and green. The curtains were drawn, excluding the sunlight and the bride and groom, standing under a large floral bell of pink and white carnations, made a most lovely picture in the soft artificial light.

The bride wore white and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Only the relatives and a few close friends of the contracting parties were present. Miss Curtner played the wedding march. Many beautiful gifts testified to the good wishes of numerous friends.

The bride is a graduate of King's Conservatory of Music and is a charming young woman. The groom was admitted to the bar a short time ago and may locate permanently in San Jose.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will be at home to their friends after February 10, at No. 25 Saratoga avenue. No cards.

G. R. Long, who is connected with the Laidlaw Chronicle, was in the city this week from Laidlaw on a business trip. He says business is brisk in that section of the county and considerable land both in and outside of the Columbia Southern segregation is changing hands.

Ellefson-Ewing Wedding.

Miss Nellie Ewing, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ewing, was united in marriage Wednesday evening, Feb. 2, to Oliver Ellefson. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents in this city, and was performed by Justice of the Peace, J. L. Luckey in the presence of a few of the relatives and friends of the young couple.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ewing and has lived in Prineville the greater part of her life where she enjoys an extended circle of friends and acquaintances. Mr. Ellefson is the senior member of the firm of Ellefson & Smelzer and is a young man whose strict business integrity has gained him many friends. He came to Prineville two years ago from Chicago where he was born and raised.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellefson will begin housekeeping here in the city where they will continue to make their home.

Notice to Horse Owners.

Owing to some unforeseen business affairs, I will be compelled to leave Prineville for a short time, but expect to return soon to buy all good horses broke or unbroke at fair prices.

POTATOES WANTED: Write to C. W. ELKINS, Prineville Oregon.

The Baptist church announces services next Sunday as follows: Sunday school at 10 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. The subject of the morning sermon: "Foreign Missions." An offering for that work will be taken at that service. Everyone cordially invited.

A. P. Donohue, who recently sold the Laidlaw Chronicle to W. P. Meyers, was in the city the last of the week. Mr. Donohue is now engaged in the real estate business with F. D. Dayton at Laidlaw and is building up a good patronage. The firm at present has in the neighborhood of 8000 acres of land in western Crook county listed and have made some large sales of both improved and unimproved tracts during the past few weeks.

Thos. Arnold was over from Sisters today. He says the entire Squaw Creek country is undergoing a rapid settlement and development. Many new settlers have taken up homes in that section during recent months and this year will see a large amount of new land put under cultivation. When Mr. Arnold settled in the district a few years ago it was three to five miles between houses. At present practically the whole country is under cultivation and the farming district is becoming more thickly settled each year.

Light Draft Adjustable Frame Scouring Qualities

When fitted with the N. C. 12 bottoms this plow will scour in the stickiest ground. The adjustable frame combines a 12, 14 and 16 inch gang plow in one frame and can be fitted for 2 or 3 base. This feature has many advantages, one of which is that you can always adjust your plow to the team instead of being compelled to get team enough to pull the plow. A FULL LINE OF OLIVER PLOW REPAIRS
