The Indian never liked work but he wanted his share to get well as soon as possible so that he could do the work and let him hunt, chase, and dig for roots for his, for that was his life. He used to get very weak and his stomach was very sore. He used the same medicine called Blue Cohosh—in his Favorite Prescription—and he was cured. He is now a well-to-do man and he is very healthy.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not for ever a "patent medicine," but it is the carefully wrought out and thoroughly tested real prescription of a real physician in a real practice.

Timber Land, Act June 3, 1878.
Notice for Publication.
United States Land Office,
The Dalles, Oregon, October 18, 1905.
Notice is hereby given, that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, Perley Elbert Gerould, of Portland, county of Multnomah, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 2718, for the purchase of the SW¹/₄ of Sec. No. 12, in Township No. 12 South Range No. 16 E. W. M., and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before Don P. Rea, U. S. Commissioner, at his office in Madras, Oregon, on the 18th day of February, 1906.
He names as witnesses: Howard W. Turner, and William Doak, of Madras, C. O. Barber, and George R. Lee, of Ashwood, Oregon.
Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 18th day of February, 1906.

Contest Notice.
United States Land Office,
The Dalles, Oregon, February 9, 1906.
A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by the said contestant, consistent with the provisions of the act of September 13, 1900, for the SE¹/₄, SW¹/₄, Section 8, Tp. 13 S., Range 16 E. W. M., by Arch W. McKay, Contestee, in which it is alleged that said Arch W. McKay has wholly abandoned said tract; that he has changed his residence there from more than six months last past; that said tract is not settled upon and cultivated by said party as required by law; that said alleged absence was not due to his employment in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States in time of war; said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence tending to sustain or rebut the contest affidavit, at 10 o'clock a. m. on April 3, 1906, before J. J. Smith, County Clerk, at his office in Prineville, Oregon, and that the final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a. m. on April 30, 1906, before the Register and Receiver as the United States Land Office in The Dalles, Oregon.
The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed February 2, 1906, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.

Grave Trouble Foreseen.
It needs but little foresight, to tell, that when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead, unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A. Young, of Clay, N. Y. 1131. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened, and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters, I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by D. P. Adamson & Co., Templeton & Son, druggists, at 50c a bottle.
