Absinthe makes the heart grow fonder.
Western Crook would like to have the county court sit up and take notice.
March 1. The lion proved to be nothing more than a sweet voiced tom cat.

George Eatter was shot to death in a St Louis saloon brawl last week. There were two punctures in his meal ticket.

The movement to give stockman of any community contiguous to a forest reserve greater voice in furnishing the evidence upon which range allotments in the reserve are made, has received considerable impetus since the question was raised by Senator Fulton in connection with the allotments on the Wenaha reserve, of Oregon. In case stockmen feel that they are aggrieved, they want the right to have the issue given impartial hearing. Such an issue would involve the questions of the number of stock a forest reserve range will support without injury to the reserve, and the respective interests of stockmen. In apportioning between prior occupants of the same range, stockmen want equity insured. Also the question has arisen regarding the future. Some have deduced that the present custom of the forestry department in apportioning to former occupants of the reserve range, will establish a perpetual right for given stockmen, so that all subsequent stock interests will be excluded from this government privilege. Senator Fulton hopes to have something more definite than the present procedure, laid down for the future.

Some of The Reasons Why Charles A. Johns Should Be Nominated.

He is a native born citizen of the United States; forty-eight years old; in the prime of life and a type of the younger and progressive element in the republican party. Is a pioneer of Oregon. Has resided twenty-nine years in the Willamette Valley and eighteen years in Baker City. Graduated from the Willamette University with an A. B. degree in 1878; admitted to the bar in 1881. Has always taken an active interest in public affairs. Was elected mayor of Baker City in 1891, re-elected in 1892, and again in November 1904 by the largest majority any candidate ever received for that office. In June 1905 was elected school director for the fourth consecutive term and received every vote cast. Has always taken an active, personal interest in educational affairs.

Excluding saloons, he has the support and endorsement, without regard to party, of practically every business interest in Baker county. Is qualified by nature, learning and experience to fill that position. Has never been a factional man; is not a factional candidate and would not be a factional Governor. Has always been a republican and a loyal supporter of its ticket and principles; his nomination would harmonize and unite the party and insure the election of a republican Governor. He is the choice of Eastern Oregon, which, in the congressional election of 1904, cast nearly seven thousand more votes than Multnomah county. Baker county is one of the largest in Eastern Oregon, and in its whole history has never received any political recognition by the republican party, either state or federal, by election or appointment.

Chas. A. Johns has been a man of affairs in the history of the state and of Eastern Oregon in particular; his integrity has never been questioned; has a clean record and the support and confidence of the people. He is recognized as one of the leading lawyers of the state, and as a campaigner has no superiors and but few equals in the state of Oregon. No man ever had a stronger home endorsement.

Fred W. Mulkey, Republican Candidate for Senator the Short Term.

Fred W. Mulkey was born in Portland, Oregon, and is a resident of his native city. He is a young man with every accomplishment which should qualify him for this high office. He is a graduate of the State University of Oregon, the New York Law School of New York City, and is a lawyer of high standing, a man who has traveled extensively in our country as well as abroad. He has studied our institutions and compared them with foreign countries. He is a logical thinker, a forceful speaker and an ardent parliamentarian. He has many friends, both rich and poor, for he is a courteous gentleman at all times. He is a Republican always. He has supported all the nominees of the Republican ticket at all times. He is as loyal to his party as to his friends. He has confidence in the people and is willing to abide by their decision at the primary election.

Oregon needs such men as Fred W. Mulkey. The Republican party needs such men, and the voters should see that such men are nominated and elected.

John H. Aitkin, Candidate for Republican Nomination as State Treasurer, the Right Man for the Office.

John H. Aitkin of Huntington is the most spoken of candidate for state treasurer, and as an Eastern Oregon candidate, a man of financial ability and splendid reputation, will be hard to defeat. He is respected with favor everywhere.—Albany Herald, Linn County.

J. H. Aitkin of Huntington, candidate for state treasurer, was in the city Wednesday looking after his interests with reference to his candidacy. Mr. Aitkin made this office a pleasant call and impressed the political man as a strong and clean man.—Engene Register, Lane county.

Gen. John H. Aitkin of Eastern Oregon, has announced himself as a candidate for state treasurer before the republican primaries. Location and qualification gives to General Aitkin a strong lead for the nomination. It seems conceded that this nomination should go to Eastern Oregon. Mr. Aitkin has all the peculiar qualifications for the office.—Lelamon Criterion, Linn county.

General John H. Aitkin of Huntington, president of a large mercantile company, and a man well known all over the state, has decided to become a candidate for state treasurer. He will probably be the only Eastern Oregon man to come out after this office, and can be heartily recommended to the people of Western Oregon for his character as a man and his high standing in business circles.—Daily Capital Journal, Salem, Marion Co.

The best way to ascertain a man's real worth and standing is to go to his home neighborhood, where his daily walk and conversation are an open book. Such a test will disclose only good for J. H. Aitkin's case, for his friends and neighbors are jumping at the chance of saying good things about him as a citizen and also regarding his standing as a successful business man. There can be no question but what he is a man well worthy of the confidence and respect of the people of Oregon, and he is going to make a mighty fine official, one who would reflect much credit upon this great commonwealth.—Union Valley News, Roseburg, Douglas county.
