Dr. Pierce's Little Liver Pills
"I have tried many other pills, but these are the only ones that have done me any good."
— J. W. Smith, Jr., South Fork, W. Va.

Biliousness, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, disturbed sleep, nervousness, headache, giddiness and drowsiness, wind and pain or fullness of the stomach after meals, cold chills and flushings of heat, shortness of breath—these are the blank cheques of physical bankruptcy.

The man who suffers from these disorders and neglects them will soon be in the relentless grasp of some fatal disease. If he is naturally narrow, chested and shallow lunged, it will probably be consumption; if his father or mother died of paralysis or some nervous trouble, it will probably be nervous exhaustion or prostration, or even insanity; if there is a taint in the family blood, it will be blood or skin disease; if he lives in a new or a low, swampy country, it will be malaria; if he lives a life of exposure, it may be rheumatism. There is one safe course for a man to follow who finds himself "out of sorts" and suffering from the symptoms described. It is to resort to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This medicine makes the appetite keen, corrects all disorders of the digestion, renders assimilation perfect, invigorates the liver, purifies and enriches the blood and builds firm, healthy flesh and nerve tissue. It cures almost all diseases that result from "insufficient or improper nourishment of the brain and nerves." Bronchitis, throat and even lung affections, when not too far advanced, readily yield to it.

A man or woman who neglects consumption suffers from it, but soon, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Little Liver Pills cure constipation. One little "Pill" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Don't let a selfish seller over-persuade you to accept a substitute for these Original Little Liver Pills, first put up by Dr. E. V. Pierce over 40 years ago. Each imitated but never equal.

Contest Notice

United States Land Office,
The Dalles, Oregon, February 9, 1906.

A contest against a certain tract of land, situated in the Dalles, Oregon, was filed in this office by Charles Duggan, contestant, against the certain entry No. 8808, made September 13, 1900, for SE $\frac{1}{4}$, SW $\frac{1}{4}$, Sec. 31, Tp. 13 S., R. 16 E., W. M., by Arch W. McKay. Contestee, in which it is alleged that said Arch W. McKay has wholly abandoned said tract; that he has changed his residence there from more than six months last past; that said tract is not settled upon and cultivated by said party as required by law; that said alleged absence was not due to his employment in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States in time of war. Said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on April 3, 1906, before J. J. Smith, County Clerk, at his office in Prineville, Oregon, (and that the final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a. m. on April 19, 1906, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in The Dalles, Oregon).

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed February 2, 1906, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.

Grave Trouble Foreseen

It needs but little foresight, to tell, that when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead, unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A. Young, of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened, and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters, I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by D. P. Adamson & Co., Templeton & Son, druggists, at 50c a bottle.

Fraud Exposed

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, cough and croup, and other ailments, thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to beware of such people, who seek to profit through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease for over 35 years. A sure protection, to you is our name on the wrapper. Look for it, on all Dr. King's or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E. BUCKLEN & Co., Chicago, Ill., and Windsor, Canada, Sold by D. P. Adamson & Co., J. H. Templeton & Son druggists.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Crook County:
Laura A. Cox, Plaintiff, vs.
J. E. Cox, Defendant.

To J. E. Cox, the above named defendant:

In the name of the state of Oregon: You are hereby required and commanded to appear in the above entitled court and answer the above named Plaintiff's complaint in the above entitled suit now on file in the office of J. J. Smith, Clerk of the above named court, and of the above named County on or before the first day of the next regular term of the said court, to wit: on or before the 7th day of May, 1906; and you will take notice that if you fail to so answer the Plaintiff, for want thereof will apply to the said court for a Decree forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between you and the Plaintiff upon the grounds of desertion and want of support, and for the costs and disbursements of this suit.

Service of summons is made in this suit by publication in the Crook County Journal, a weekly newspaper published in Prineville, Crook County, Oregon, for the full period of six weeks by order of W. A. Bell, J. Judge of the county court of the State of Oregon for Crook County, Oregon and dated this 1st day of January, 1906.

GEO. W. BARNES,
Attorney for the Plaintiff.
