O. K. MEAT MARKET
Keeps the Best of
Lard, Cheese and Honey

George Estes has finished the erection of a large barn west of the city and the first of the week will have established a city dairy, a branch of industry which has been much needed here.

Rev. J. T. Moore reports that last Saturday evening he received an awful pounding. About two hundred and fifty good people came in on him at the Baptist parsonage and pounded him to their hearts' content. They brought cake and ice cream which they served at the parsonage and the home of J. C. Hinton, besides many pounds of good things for the minister and his family. Rev. Moore expresses his gratefulness to the people for all and for their substantial tokens of respect and esteem. He feels that "the lines have fallen to him in pleasant places"

Merchant of Venice Well Greeted.

A crowded house at Athletic hall last Friday evening was agreeably surprised at the excellence of the four scenes from the Merchant of Venice taken part in by Mrs. A. C. Strange, Mrs. J. H. Wigle, Miss Celia Nelms and W. J. Smeizer, who contributed vocal selections and readings. Selections by the orchestra and quartet were pleasing additions to the evening's entertainment.

The four scenes from the Shakespearean play were so well taken care of by those appearing in the cast of characters that comment upon the work of one includes the pleasing excellence of all. That the audience was more than satisfied was evidenced by the hearty accord with which the scenes were greeted.

The program opened with an orchestra selection, followed by the Williamson quartet and during the intermission between scenes vocal selections were given by Mrs. A. C. Strange and Miss Celia Nelms in their usual sweet and pleasing way. A laughable reading by Mrs. J. H. Wigle and the popular character songs by C. W. Parker as presented by W. J. Smeizer rounded out the evening's entertainment. The proceeds for the evening amounted to nearly $100, half of which, less expenses, went into the club treasury. The entertainment was the best of the kind which has been given in the city this season.

Timber Land, Act June 3, 1878. NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION. United States Land Office.

The Dulles, Oregon, November 23, 1906. Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, Peter N. Vibbert, of Madras, county of Crook, state of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement, No. 2746 for the purchase of the SW 1/4 Sec. 39, & NW 1/4 NE 1/4, Section No. 31, in Township No. 12 S., Range No. 16 E., W. M., and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before Don P. Ren, U. S. Commr. at his office in Madras, Oregon, on the 27th day of March, 1906.

He names as witnesses: Louis T. Larsen, and Jacob H. Peterson, of Madras, Oregon. Sam Compton and William Mc-Meskin, of Grizzly, Oregon.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 27th day of March, 1906.
