The two latter are recent settlers in the Laidlaw district and own land there under the Columbia Southern's canals. Newson of this city were schoolmates while attending school in the Willamette Valley.

Henry Beard, Green Beard and J. W. Hanley returned the last of the week from the Christmas Lake valley where they went to locate on land. The party together acquired 800 acres, which they will put into cultivation this spring. The Beards expect to move there in a short time to make permanent residence. Out of the entire 800 acres which they filed on only a few acres are unsuitable for cultivation. The land is a level tract and can be cleared comparatively easy although at present raising a heavy crop of sage brush.

PETITIONS ARE FILED

Candidate's Names Will All Appear on Primary Ballots

County Clerk Smith was busy during the last of the week checking up the voters names appearing on the petitions for the various candidates seeking nominations on the Democratic and Republican tickets.

There have been no names withdrawn and each candidate now is engaged in various political maneuvers to bolster up his campaign before the primary election which will be held a week from next Friday.

The official list of the names of those who filed their nominating petitions with Secretary of State, F. I. Dunbar, for state and district offices, was received last week and as soon as the petitions of the local candidates were checked, County Clerk Smith made up the official nominating ballots for the two parties. Copy for the latter was placed in the hands of the printers Saturday and the work was completed yesterday. Precinct officers of election have already begun to receive the ballots and samples.

Aside from the list of candidates for county offices already published, the Republican ticket contains the names of H. C. Ellis, of Bend; Frank J. Brooks, of Kutchter and Howard F. Jones, of Redmond, who are out for the nomination to the office of Justice of the Peace in their respective precincts. For the nomination to the constable's office on the Republican ticket the following names appear on the ballot: R. H. Flanders, of Laidlaw; A. J. Harter, of Laidlaw; J. D. Mayes, of Kutchter, and Leander L. Welch, of Redmond. On the Democratic ticket appear the names of John A. Isham, of Kutchter, and G. S. Miller, of Lamonta, who are running for the nomination to the office of Justice of the Peace in the Precinct in which they reside.

Buys Lava Butte.

W. P. Vandeventer was over from Bend the first of the week to appear as a witness in the Montgomery homestead final proof. Mr. Vandeventer said the railroad engineers in charge of Chief Engineer Graham, who were camped at the Vandeventer ranch at Lava for several weeks, had moved the head camp to Oatell. The line of survey has been completed that far at present and will be pushed on through Klamath county. Mr. Vandeventer is the owner of Lava butte which is said to contain the only available and usable railroad ballast south of the Columbia river. He acquired the butte and the lava flow surrounding several weeks ago by placing scrip. In the event of railroad construction the once molten rock, now disintegrated to a coarse heavy ash, will be used for ballast along the line and the new owner of one of Crook county's natural curiosities is likely to realize a tidy sum from his holdings.

Takes Charge of Road Land.

Duncan Macleod, who resigned his position as local agent of the Willamette Valley & Cascade Mountain Wagon Road company last fall, has again taken up the work and will establish his headquarters here. He will have charge of the leases and sales as before and will look after the company's interests generally.

Cake and Statement No. 1.

The Mt. Scott News in its March 29th, has this to say regarding H. M. Cake, and popular election of United States Senators:

"While you are enthusing for Statement No. 1 don't forget that H. M. Cake stands squarely for the popular election of United States senators, for strict adherence to Chinese exclusion, and for Oregon first, last and forever. Not a bad combination from which to build a mighty good senator. It is the measure first, then the man, so far as Statement No. 1 goes, but Mr. Cake's outspoken position forestalls any monopoly of the issue as will doubtless be shown as time goes on."

JONATHAN BOURNE, Jr.

Republican Candidate for United States Senator
 CHAMPION OF STATEMENT ONE

Jonathan Bourne, Jr., candidate before the Republican primaries for the nomination of United States Senator in congress, for the long term, commencing March 4, 1907, was born in New Bedford, Mass., February 23, 1853, was a member of the class of 1877 at Harvard University; came to Portland May 16, 1878; was a Republican member of the Oregon Legislature in the session of 1885, and the extra session of 1886; was one of Oregon's delegates to the Republican National Convention of 1888, and Oregon's member of the Republican National Convention of 1892, and was elected as a Mitchell Republican to the Oregon legislature in 1896.

Mr. Bourne has been more prominently identified with the development of the mineral resources of Oregon than any other man in the state, having expended in the last 20 years over $1,000,000 of his own money in the acquisition and development of Oregon mines. While Mr. Bourne has had his residence and main office in Portland since 1878, he has had another office at New Bedford, Mass., and has carried on the business of his father's estate since 1889, which makes him familiar with many of the large interests and leading men in the East. These qualifications, in conjunction with his energy, originality, executive ability and experience in business and political affairs pre-eminently qualify him for making an able and influential senator for the state of Oregon.

Mr. Bourne has always favored extending the direct power of the people over their government as far as possible. He was one of the leading spirits in the Initiative and Referendum movement from 1896 until it was approved by the voters at the June election in 1902. In 1904 he was a member of the executive committee of the Direct Primary Nomination League, and holds the same position with the People's Power League at this time. In all these movements he has been one of the few to guarantee the necessary expenses of preparing and proposing their measures to the people.

He says that the choice of United States Senator should be by direct vote of the people, and that the legislature should be compelled to elect the man the people select. To accomplish this result, he is championing statement No. 1 of the primary elections law as the only method by which public opinion may be crystallized and made effective upon the Legislature.

In his petition for nomination he says:
 "If I am nominated and elected, I will, during my term of office, favor
 "Republican Politics.
 "Amending National Constitution for People's Election of United States Senators.
 "Publicity Political Campaign Expenses.
 "National Control of Corporations in Interstate Commerce.
 "Rigid Exclusion of Asiatic Coolie Labor; Good Wages Make Good Citizens.
 "Legal Limitation Hours for Safety on Railroads.
 "Parcels Post, Including Rural Delivery.
 "Pure Food Laws.
 "Liberal Appropriations for Panama Canal, Coast Defenses, River and Harbor Improvements, including Columbia and Willamette Rivers, Coos, Yaquina and other Oregon Harbors, Celilo Canal, Government Canal at Oregon City.
 "Fair Share of Irrigation Fund for Oregon.
 "Loyal Support for Successful Candidates.
 "Rigid Enforcement Statement One.
 "Roosevelt for Second Elective Term.
 "I desire that the following statement be printed after my name on the nominating ballot:
 "I WILL SUPPORT PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S DETERMINATION THAT JUSTICE BE DONE ALL MEN."
