About 8 o'clock the invited guests began to arrive and at the appointed time the bridal party began its march to the altar. Before the ceremony took place Miss Cella Nelms sang "O Promise Me." Then followed the wedding march played by Miss Benlah Crook. A company of little boys and girls formed and with gaily decorated poles made arches through which the bridal procession passed and formed in front of the clergyman. Two little flower girls preceded the bride and bridegroom and then followed two little boys bearing the pillows upon which the young couple were to kneel during the prayer. Some Facts for Your Consideration

We have just received a large shipment of Ladies Fine shoes direct from the factory and we claim to be in a position to give you better values and a nicer and later line to select from than any of our competitors. The reason we can do this is that we buy from a factory in the East that makes Ladies fine Shoes exclusively Doesn't it stand to reason that we will get better values and later styles in that way than we would if we bought from a factory that makes everything from a plow shoe to an infant's moccasin. If you will come in and let us show you our line of Ladies Shoes we will convince you of the truth of our argument.
