Last Word for the Redmond Fair.

Editor Journal, Dear Sir—Will you please say to your readers as a last word that preparations for the fair are coming on in fine shape. The grounds show what can be done with our rocky lands; the track is in good order and buildings and tents are going up. Entries are being made, entry cards made out and reserved to be called for when the exhibits are on hand. We will have Crook County grown tobacco to show; sunflowers, tomatoes and thoroughbred stock of all kinds.

For amusements the first afternoon we will have a slow horse race, a half-mile bicycle race for pure, a three-legged race.

Prospects are more flattering every day for good exhibits, good races and good crowds.

Don't forget the musical entertainment the first evening, farmers' institute the second evening, and the grand ball to close with.

Let every one who comes join the Boosters' Club. Let every body come from Prineville and boost for the county fair.

List of awards will be published in the Journal and the other county papers.

Now what more can I say? Only this that every one should come and see what a little town that has not been on the map two years can offer for your entertainment. Very cordially yours,

E. C. PARK.

Do not forget the Basket Social at the Union Church this (Thursday) evening. Everybody invited.

B. Gatewood is in town.

J. Frank Stroud of Bend is in the city.

Pain from a Burn Promptly Relieved by Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

A little child of Michael Strauss, of Vernon, Conn., was recently in great pain from a burn on the hand, and as cold applications only increased the inflammation, Mr. Strauss came to Mr. James N. Nichols, a local merchant, for something to stop the pain. Mr. Nichols says: "I advised him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and the first application drew out the inflammation and gave immediate relief. I have used this liniment myself and recommend it very often for cuts, burns, strains and lame back, and have never known it to disappoint." For sale by D. P. Adamson & Co.
