Mrs. Farnsworth, Mrs. Summers and Mrs. W. F. King left Monday for The Dalles to put up a supply of fruit.

Rev. Mr. Mitchell will preach in the Presbyterian church morning and evening next Sunday, September 25.

Grant Mays had a fine bunch of cattle stampede at Trout creek a short time ago while taking them to the railroad. Seven ran into a deep gulch and were killed.

HAVE A FIT

When you buy shoes why not demand a perfect fit. You can get that if you buy your shoes of us, as we carry shoes in all sizes and widths from A to EE, giving you the same range of sizes to select from that you would find in a city shoe store.

RIDEOUT & FOSTER

Frank Hackleman of Camp creek, passed through town this week with a drove of beef cattle.

Francis Fieffer from Camp creek, passed through Prineville Tuesday on his way to Shaniko with a drove of beef cattle.

Love Bailey of Paulina, is in town. He says stock in his country looks good and that cattlemen are out on the fall round-up.

Rev. J. T. Moore announces regular services at the Union church next Sunday morning and evening. Everyone cordially invited.

The high jinks and smoker which was to be given at the Prineville Athletic Association Hall on Saturday, September 22, has been postponed on account of so many wanting to go to the Redmond fair. The new date will be announced later.

WANTED—Cabinet makers and carpenters. Only first-class mechanics need apply. Good wages will be paid. A. H. Lippman & Co. 9-20-17

The Crook county fair to be held next month is bound to be a good one. Everything is moving right along. A strong delegation is going to Redmond to help boost.

The M. W. A. of Prineville is going to send a good strong tug-of-war team to Redmond Saturday. Some of the members have been hauling buildings around town just to keep in practice. There is a good purse offered for the strongest team.

F. C. Logan of Crook, was in town Tuesday buying supplies. In speaking of the cattle industry in his section Mr. Logan said that everybody was fairly well satisfied with the present outlook. Between fifteen hundred and two thousand head will be sent out of his neighborhood this fall, the beef cattle going to Shaniko and thence by rail to the Tacoma market, and the feeders to Klamath where they will be fed this winter. The cattle were all contracted for the San Francisco market last spring but the earthquake necessitated a change of plan. The contract price was $31.50 for steers and $21 for dry cows.

Lewis Voight and Mrs. Anna McIntyre, both of San Francisco, were married at the home of Dr. Rosenberg last Thursday evening by Rev. Mr. Jinnett. Mr. and Mrs. Voight are both professional nurses and it is their intention to locate permanently in Prineville.

The Prineville Athletic Association's basketball team has been challenged for a game by the holy rollers, or holy eaters, or something that sounds like that, headed by Frank Foster. Dr. Rosenberg thinks the Foster aggregation will look like a "three-spot" when the association gets through with them. A spirited game is scheduled to come off at an early date.

School Books and School Supplies at ADAMSON'S

Miss Effie Dobbs is hello girl at the telephone exchange.

Workmen are busy engaged in excavating for the foundation of the Adamson building.

Two hundred and twenty-three pupils were enrolled in our public schools up to Wednesday evening. Fifty-three were registered in the Crook County High School and 170 in the common grades. This number will be greatly increased during the fall as many families have not yet moved in from their ranches.

The present year promises to be a most active one for the Prineville Athletic Association. The bowling alleys have been cleaned and overhauled, new balls and new pins have been added, and the equipment generally put in first-class shape. Much activity is displayed on the tennis courts and in the basket ball line since the hot weather. Harry Smith is the new superintendent and his administration promises much for the comfort and convenience of members.

W. F. King has returned from Crane Prairie.

Miss Hazel Howard returned last evening from Portland.

Jess Yancey has gone to The Dalles for a load of fruit.

Miss Ethel Potter is spending a few days on her homestead.

Mr. Milligan, one of Crook county's largest cattlegrowers, is in town.

Ray Miller of Burns, was a passenger on Saturday's stage for Corvallis.

Mrs. Sarah E. Moore and family who formerly lived in Prineville, are now located in Chicago.

Walt Henrichs of Crook county, son of J. Henrichs, who has been sojourning here for several weeks is getting ready to pull out for the hop fields of the Willamette valley. As I write this paragraph, Walt is eating at the lunch counter of the little white store while his horses are feeding on the outside. And as I look at him I see character and originality. He wears the honors of a cow boy gracefully. His wide sombrero, his curly "shaps" with jingling spurs on his heels, bespeak the typical cow boy style. His saddle and pack horse know his call and I almost envy him his free wild life in the open. He is strong of limb, fearless, bordering almost onto recklessness, yet kind of heart, perfect in stature with the best part of life in the front he does not as yet look back. He starts today through the Cascade range and he will get there.—Odell correspondence in The Dalles Optometrist.
