Oren Waite and son, Stephen, of Lamonts, were transacting business in town Wednesday. Mr. Waite in speaking of the poor crop in his section this summer did not seem discouraged and is planning on putting in most of his acreage in fall grain. He has only had his ranch about four years, but during that time he has got an orchard started and raised apples enough this season for his own use, also a few grapes. He expects to get better results next year from his grape vines and fruit trees, the cold snap last March damaging the fruit so that it made a very poor showing.

G. H. Garner, of Redfield, South Dakota, was in town this week on timber business. Last June Mr. Garner in company with Leroy Miles of Redfield were in the city and while here purchased a block of 29 timber claims in the Deschutes timber belt. They were to take the claims over the first of November, but during the time Mr. Miles sold his interest in the holdings to Mr. Garner who made the final payments on the claims this week. The purchase price paid was $2,000 per claim. In speaking of the deal Mr. Garner informed us that he had bargained the claims for sale and would transfer them while here. He did not state the amount he cleaned up on his deal, but it will run up in the thousands, and he feels amply repaid for the chance he took in the speculation.

Mrs. E. Stewart, mother of D. F. Stewart, sustained a dislocation of the right arm last week by a fall. She is getting along as well as possible for her age and no serious results are expected from the accident.

Z. M. Brown accompanied J. W. Howard to the city from Klamath Falls the last of the week where they have been looking after their cattle interests.

The Shaniko mail stage due here Monday morning did not arrive until late that evening, the delay being caused by a freighter leaving his wagons on the Cow canyon grade at such a place where the stage could not get around it, and compelling the stage driver to un hitch and camp for the night. The one passenger, G. H. Garner did not seem to mind this inconvenience but made the best of the situation. They got started about 8 o'clock the next morning arriving here at about 9 o'clock in the evening.
