E. H. Sparks and Marion Stillwell of the Black Butte Land & Livestock Co.'s ranch were in the city yesterday. Mr. Stillwell leaves today for Portland where he will spend the next few weeks.

Mrs. Sherwin, grand worthy matron of the Order of the Eastern Star will be present at a meeting of the order tomorrow evening. She is on her annual tour of inspection of the different lodges of the state.

A. E. Gillam and Mrs. Pearl Allen were married Sunday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lambert. Rev. Mr. Bass performed the ceremony. There were only a few intimate friends present.

Mrs. C. A. Branham of Pullman, Wash., and Mrs. J. W. Wilson of Spokane, Wash., daughters of the late J. T. Donk, came in on the stage from Shaniko Sunday to attend the funeral of their father. They will remain in Prineville a couple of weeks to recover from the effects of their journey.

Prof. L. R. Traver, the Pendleton superintendent of schools, has resigned and will about the first of the year move to Portland. It was his second year of service and it is said had placed the city schools upon an excellent basis. The cause of dissatisfaction was a question of salary. The position pays $1,600 a year. Prof. Traver has many friends in Crook county who wish him success in whatever field of endeavor he may enter.

A novel entertainment will be given in the assembly hall of the Crook County high school Friday evening, November 16. The program will consist of experiments of a spectacular nature showing the use of a part of the equipment of the new laboratory. The entertainment will be not only instructive but very interesting. It will be interspersed with music and literary work. The proceeds will be used to make a payment on the high school plant. An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged. Nothing extra for reserved seats, which may be secured at Wink's drug store.

J. E. Stewart & Co. are closing out their entire line of staple merchandise. The stock is valued at $25,000 and consists of groceries, hardware, shoes, clothing, dry goods, etc. They advertise the lowest prices ever made in Prineville. The company is not closing out because of a lack of business but for the reason that D. F. Stewart, the manager of the Prineville Flouring Mill, wishes to retire from the active management of the mill and J. E. Stewart will succeed him. The grocery stock of J. E. Stewart & Co. will be kept up until the entire stock of merchandise is closed out.

Miss Nellie Elkins of Albany, is in Prineville visiting relatives.
 Ruben Botten took three carloads of fat cattle to the Portland market last week. He realized fairly good prices for the sale of his stock.

W. C. Conleton of Paulina, sold 61 head of dry cows to Foster & Horizon of Prineville for $21 a head. They were delivered Saturday. Mr. Conleton also sold 52 head of feeders to W. G. Smith of Summit, Prairie for $31 a head.

Do not forget the "Foot Social" tomorrow evening at Belknap's Hall. There will be a good program besides many good things to eat. The ladies of Juniper Circle, W. of W., have decorated one of Foster & Rideout's windows with emblems suggestive of their name and order. The effect produced is very pleasing.

Hallie E. Darling and Mrs. Abbie Bonny were married Sunday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Luckey. The Rev. Mr. Mitchell performed the ceremony. Only members of the family were present. The young couple are well known in Prineville. Mr. Darling owns an interest in the Elite Shaving Parlors and has a large circle of friends.

There will be a piano dance for club members only at P. A. & C. hall Saturday evening. Mr. Scott will be manipulating the piano and a general good time is promised. It is particularly desired that a full attendance of club and annex members be present as the question of buying the piano will come up for discussion. There will be no charge for the dance.

The Crook County Educational Union will hold a meeting Saturday evening November 10th at the Union church. This will be the first of a series of educational meetings to be held throughout the county and every one interested in the welfare of the school and city should attend. Remember good schools go a long way toward building up a city and to have good schools we must have an interested community. Anyone interested in the school, the city or the welfare of the people, if you are going to the meeting Saturday evening, a pleasing program will be rendered and topics of local interest discussed. Remember the evening and place. Program in full will be issued later.

Rideout & Foster

The General Furnishing Store.

Mrs. F. J. Lively and baby returned last week from an extensive visit to relatives and friends in Chattanooga, Tenn.

William Wurzweller got back from Portland Sunday. In conversation with a JOURNAL representative Mr. Wurzweller expressed himself as highly indignant at an article that appeared in a Portland paper which made it appear that Prineville was threatened with mob violence over the murder of E. F. Zell. Our worthy mayor characterizes the statements that convey such an understanding as utterly false. He did not make such assertions, neither directly or inferentially.

B. B. Helfrich of Lamonta, was in town the other day and informs us that he expects to move to Portland in a few weeks where he intends to take up street contract work.

The Crook County Real Estate Company advertise in another column that they buy and sell farms, timber lands and town property. Homesteads and timber claims located, surveyed and estimated. See their ad.

D. McLean, the horse buyer from Medicine, N. W. T., who has been in Crook county for some time looking for horses, has secured 85 head from Houston and Held. He bought the brands of Joe, Walt, Lark and Ole Elliott, and the Jim Sears horses. Fifty head of these have been delivered and the balance will be taken in the spring. The Quinn estate on Willow creek has also sold 20 head to Mr. McLean. The horses will be shipped this week from Shaniko. They will be taken to Medicine Hat and from there will be sent sixty miles inland to a large horse ranch owned by Mr. McLean. D. E. Quackenbush will accompany the winter.
