Audry Noble Won the $30 Doll.

A very interesting contest among the little girls for a beautiful $30 doll displayed in Rideout & Foster's window was closed at 12 o'clock Christmas and a very anxious crowd of little folks were in waiting for the outcome of the vote counting, which when completed gave Audry Noble 970 votes which was the largest number cast for one person and gave her first place, while Ruth Mullhol-land was a close second with 952 votes and Violet Lister third with 853 votes.

Following are the names of the other little girls who were in the contest and the number of votes received by each. Viola Johnson 694, Edith King 596, Leola Estes 494, Mildred Slayton 228, Georgia Cleek 213, Vivian Hinkle 181, Blanch Rowell 174, Mabel Donk 129, Martha Hongan 118, Ruth Yancey 115, Fay Busset 111, Isabelle Goe 91, Ruth Foster 51, Madge Mills 40, Tillie Zell 39, Lula Allen 35, Helen Carter 33, Myrtle Moore 30.

The contest started Dec. 1st and one vote was given for each 25 cent purchase. In all 6009 votes were cast. Rideout & Foster have set aside a present for each girl in the contest and will be glad to have them call for the same.

REGISTER NOLAN HAS HIS SAY

Malcolm A. Moody, ex-congressman of The Dalles, and Senator Nathan Whealdon, now a leader in the state legislature from the same place, are accused by retiring Register M. T. Nolan of The Dalles land office of a sensational plot to secure possession of the water power for years apparently belonging to J. H. Sherar on the Deschutes river above The Dalles, and for which Mr. Moody is reported to have offered $60,000 in December, 1905, says the Portland Journal.

Mr. Nolan in his statement says he was instructed by Moody that he, Moody, and Senator Whealdon had a man who would file on a certain piece of scrip land on a certain morning and asked Nolan to be sure to be at the office to see that the man got none the worst of it. Nolan further says that he did as directed and knew nothing of the piece of land upon which the filing was made until noon, and that upon finding out he lost "the last vestige of friendship and respect" he had for the former congressman and his former patron, and decided to do what he could to aid Sherar regain possession of a clear title to his land.

It is known from the records of the land office at The Dalles that on January 26, 1906, J. C. Veazie of Portland appeared at the office and covered the land with scrip, now said by Nolan to have been ordered by Senator Whealdon, before the letter cancelling the indemnity school selections in which the tract was included was received by the filing clerk of the land office.

In making his statement Register Nolan gives it as his opinion that the scheme thus engineered to deprive Sherar, who had possession of the land and had improved it, and under the practice of the department should have had first chance to cover it after its cancellation as state land, was engineered and concocted by Mr. Moody and Senator Whealdon.

In discussing the question he says:
"It is my opinion, founded on strong circumstantial evidence, that the scheme to deprive Mr.
Sherar of his water power was concocted by Mr. Moody and Mr.
Whealdon. The scrip which was laid upon the land was ordered by Mr. Whealdon from a dealer in this city after a letter from the commissioner cancelling indemnity school selection, under which Mr.
Sherar claims the land involved was received in this office, and it was ready for filing before the clerk who records such letters had even seen the letter. I was informed by Mr. Moody that a certain man would be at our office at 9 a. m. on January 26, 1906, to file the scrip for him, and I was requested to be sure and be there to see that he, Mr. Moody, got none of the worst of it, as there might be other filings for the land.

"I was there. The man filed the scrip. There was no other person after it. I yet held some confidence in Mr. Moody's probity. I was culpably careless in reference to the filing of this scrip and did not know the description of the land affected until noon of the day it was filed, when I ascertained that the land involved formed the important part of the water power for which Mr. Moody had offered Mr. Sherar $60,000 in December, 1905. When I realized what was being attempted, I lost the vestige of friendship and respect, which a former attempt to wrong a person to whom I felt friendly had left me for Mr. Moody and since that time I have used every possible effort to protect Mr. Sherar in the possession of his property.

"There will now, as indicated by the secretary's letter of December 6, 1906, be a thorough investigation of the case, and if there is any attempt at whitewash, I may ask extensive space from you for a statement, that may take in the whitewasher.

"I wish to finish this statement with the assertion that there was no charge against my associate by the complaint upon which report was demanded by the commissioner of the general land office by November 1, 1906, by my letter of resignation, or by the report which I commenced immediately after writing my resignation, that neither I nor any one to my knowledge, expect her to derive any financial benefit from the plot against Mr. Sherar, if it proves successful. The concoctors of this plot should come out from behind the shelter of a woman and Interior Development company, if it has discovered a fatal flaw in Mr.

Sherar's title to his land, and fight the case squarely and fairly in the open."

I have made no charges against my associates. The copy of complaint, which made it necessary that I ask to be relieved before making a report on it, brings charges against this office and not against the receiver or any other particular person in it. The spurious dispatch from Washington, District of Columbia, published in the Oregonian of November 13, 1906, contained in itself clear evidence that the only part of it which could be relied on was that my resignation had been tendered and accepted. My resignation was sent from here on October 27, and by a letter dated November 6, 1906, I was informed by the secretary of the interior that the president accepted it, to take effect when my successor was elected and qualified. Under date of December 6, 1906, in a letter also from the secretary, I have been informed that the letter of November 6, 1906, accepting my resignation, was withdrawn by the president, pending inquiry into the causes of it.

Mr. Moody, when asked concerning the allegations made by Mr.
Nolan, said that he had absolutely nothing to say and did not wish to discuss the question in any manner.

Christmas Trees.

There were many public and private Christmas trees in Prineville this year. The Union church was packed with parents and little ones long before the hour announced for the distribution of gifts. Many could not gain entrance to the church.

Among the many private trees might be mentioned that of Henry Grimes for his children and grandchildren. The little folks are still of the opinion that old Santa Claus is still in this pleasant land.
The tree was beautifully decorated and loaded with presents. Supper was served and all did justice to a well-spread table. The remainder of the evening was spent with music and singing.
