The new teachers at the Crook County High School were tendered a reception by the pupils Friday evening. A good musical program, games and refreshments helped to pass a very pleasant evening. Prof. Hockenberry and Miss Stephens were made to feel at home in their new field of labor.

Workmen are still engaged in putting the finishing touches to the Hotel Prineville. This establishment will be formally opened Sunday January 20, with a grand dinner. This occasion will give the people of Prineville an opportunity to show their appreciation of what has been done for the city in the hotel line. Mrs. McDowell will not be able to feed the multitude upon that occasion.

Lincoln Annuity Union elected the following officers at their last meeting: Speaker, Mrs. Wilda Belknap; clerk, J. O. Powell; cashier, Lettie Miller; sergeant-at-arms, Valda Brnes; chaplain, Charles Carroll; inside door keeper, Mrs. J. H. Haner; outside door keeper, George Hatcher; trustee, John Marvin; reporter, Mrs. Ada Millican; physician, Charles E. Edwards. The officers will be installed Saturday evening next.

The Alpha and Ocheonian Societies met in the Assembly room of the high school Friday afternoon. A short musical program was rendered, after which each society repaired to its room and held its regular business meeting. The special feature of the meeting was a mock trial in which all the members creditably acquitted themselves. Committees were appointed by the president of each society to arrange for the intersociety oratorical contest which is to take place in the near future. Much interest is being manifested in this contest.

Tom McConnell, who works in the Hay creek country, was paid off last week and came to Prineville with a $450 wad to get a touch of high life. He got it. In a few days his money was gone and last Thursday he entered a saloon, drew his revolver, and ordered everybody present to line up and donate. Van Puett engaged the man in conversation and finally got hold of the weapon before any damage was done. McConnell was arrested on a charge of being drunk and disorderly and let off with a fine of $12.50 which his employer paid. McConnell claimed that the hold up was only a josh and the justice taking this view of the case let the booze-fighter off easy.

A petition has been sent to the department to have the Crook postoffice moved to Harry Barnes' place, twenty-three miles southeast of Clover creek.

W. S. McEwing, a voice culturist and music teacher, is in Prineville and is thinking of locating here. This ought to be a good field for that line of work. We have plenty of talent among our young people that only awaits development.

J. B. Cornett was in town last week en route to Shaniko with a bunch of beef. Mr. Cornett said he would have about five cars in this shipment and they were as fine a bunch of beef as has been taken to the market this fall. He will take the shipment to Portland where they will be sold on the commission market.

Redmond Items.

Redmond, Ore., January 7, 1907. Owing to the cold and stormy weather of the past week the wires of the Associated Wireless News Company are mostly down, service has been impaired and consequently news is rather a scarce article this week.

At the M. W. A. installation services Saturday night there was a good sized crowd present who enjoyed themselves until 11 o'clock. Short talks were given by some of the newly elected officers and visiting neighbors. Over twenty-eight dollars were realized from the sale of baskets, many of which were elegant creations of the milliner's art (I guess). All of them were filled with luscious productions of the housekeeper's art.

Last week we told what Dame Rumer was whispering, but there was nothing in it. It was already an accomplished fact and the newly married couple had already departed. Lay it to the wires.

Mr. Hansen made a business trip to Prineville Wednesday and Thursday.

It is reported that Neighbor W. A. Ward has sold his forty. There is one man who tried hatching for a season whom we do not look to see back in this country again very soon.

We understand that Mr. Peasley will add to his holding of ditch land. He shows faith in the country. He is going to pull about ten acres of trees and then sell some. He will sell for the Milton Nursery though.

L. E. Prickett came home Wednesday from Prineville where he had been building for W. H. Moore.

The new stage line from Shaniko is expected to be in service very shortly.

Mr. O'Connor is looked for as the first passenger.

Mr. Belcher has gone to Portland. Hurry back Colonel, it will be hard work carrying on the government without you.

A call is out for a special school meeting, but we did not learn the date or object. More fault of the wires.

A new man is driving on the mail stage from Prineville to Cline Falls. Yours Truly, E. C. PARK.

On New Year's day Walter A. M. McFarland and Miss Florence Demaris were married at the home of John H. Demaris, the father of the bride. Rev. J. T. Moore officiating. An excellent wedding dinner was enjoyed by all the friends and relatives present.

If you have any doubt about the effectiveness of the proper use of printer's ink go at once to the big sale that is on at the store of C. W. Elkins and take a look at the crowds thronging the isles of the store. You will never again question it as a trade puller. New clerks were engaged by the score for the sale, and yet when it came to an actual test there was found to be not near enough help engaged. People who came to buy were pressed into service to help wait upon others. The big sale undoubtedly marks a new era in the methods of advertising in Crook county. It has demonstrated that if you have anything to sell you must let that fact be known. Most of our merchants are good liberal advertisers but this is the first attempt we have had at regular department store methods. A. Lesser, an advertising expert of the New York & St. Louis Consolidated Salvage Co., is conducting the sale.
