

Local Mention

Will Wurzwiler left Monday for Portland and San Francisco on a business trip. He will be absent about a month.

Twenty-two degrees below zero Tuesday morning. This is the coldest it has been for sixteen years, say the oldest inhabitants.

J. H. Templeton and F. W. Smith left Monday for a three weeks' hunt at the head of Crooked river and on the desert.

Professor Ford is down with a complication of typhoid and pneumonia. Mrs. Collins Elkins has kindly consented to take charge of his work until his recovery.

Fogle & Parker are now the publishers of the Forest Grove Times. It is a bright, newsy paper and a credit to the town. These gentlemen were, about four years ago, the publishers of The Crook County Journal.

The ice man was about the only cheerful person seen upon the streets early Tuesday morning. That worried look had given place to an expansive grin as men and teams began to get busy on next summer's supply of ice.

Zimmerman—Williams Wedding.

T. W. Zimmerman, the popular young manager of the Gatewood Mining & Trading Co.'s store at Howard, was married at Portland January 2. The Portland Oregonian has the following account of the wedding:

One of the prettiest weddings of the week was solemnized Wednesday evening, Jan. 2, at the residence of A. B. Clark, 1033 East Main street, when Miss Mabel G. Williams, of Memphis, Tenn., was united in marriage to Theodore W. Zimmerman, of Howard, Or. Mr. Cormack acted as groomsman, and Mrs. Cowan as matron of honor. At 8 o'clock Miss Ford played Mendelssohn's wedding march, and the pastor, followed by the groomsman and groom, entered the parlor and took their places in the archway. Later the bride, preceded by Mrs. Cowan, slowly entered by another route, and the beautiful ring service of the Christian church was performed by Rev. J. T. Ghorntley, Miss Williams' former pastor.

Miss Williams, a brunette, was lovely in cream silk voile, trimmed in lace and silk applique, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses, with tulle and white satin streamers. The matron of honor wore cream lacedowns, trimmed with lace. Miss Williams and Mr. Zimmerman are well known in the city in musical circles both having lived here previously. Mr. Zimmerman was a member of a glee club, conducted by Professor Wider. The bride has taken part in many prominent musical events, and was solo soprano of the Sunnyside M. E. church for two years. Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman will remain in the city at the Hotel Oregon until after the Schumann-Heink concert, then they will visit relatives in Albany and later go to Howard, Or., where they will reside.

Fireman's Bill, February 22nd.

Mrs. R. S. Davie, sister of the Smiths, Champ, Jim and U. Sam, left this week for Portland, after a few days' visit with her brothers and making final proof on her timber claim.

Rev. Mr. Mitchell will preach in the Presbyterian church Sunday January 20th. Subject for 11 a. m., "Hunting for men;" for 7:30 p. m., "Our Life and work in Heaven."

A. Leaser, the advertising expert, left Sunday for Arizona, where his company will conduct another big sale. So great is the demand for his services that he was unable to stay here until the expiration of his contract.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mrs. Lettie Miller Thursday evening, January 10, when Guy Ritter and Dora Crain were made man and wife. Judge W. A. Bell performed the ceremony. Only a few relatives and friends were present. A number of useful and pretty presents were received.

CLOTHIERS AND FURNISHERS

C. Sam Smith was in from his ranch on Ochoco Saturday.

C. M. Lister was in town Saturday from his ranch on Mill creek.

There was no mail from Shaniko Tuesday. Too much snow on the Columbia Southern.

Henry Cadle was in from his ranch at Mill creek Saturday. He reports cattle in that vicinity to be standing the winter in fairly good shape.

R. V. Jenkins of Madras, and J. W. Jenkins of Lamonta, were in town Saturday laying in a load of supplies for the winter. They report that they are having plenty of winter in their respective sections but that it insures them of plenty of moisture for the next year's crop and they are accordingly satisfied with present conditions.

Dr. C. A. Cline and wife, of Lower Bridge, are visiting with friends in town this week. While here Mrs. Cline will make proof on her timber claim.

A St. Valentine ball is to be given at Sisters, January 14. The Sisters' orchestra will furnish the music. An oyster supper will be given at the Cottage Hotel. Two dollars pays for both. You cannot afford to miss it.

Prof. Strange came over from The Dalles Sunday to prove up on his timber claim. He proved up Tuesday morning and took the 1 o'clock stage for the return trip. He was accompanied by Mrs. Strange and the baby. The best wishes of the city of Prineville follow them to their new home.

Severt Debing, one of Bend's popular vendors of wet goods, was in town last week making proof on his timber and stone claim. Mr. Debing reports times in Bend at present to be rather dull, but that the business men had enjoyed a very prosperous trade during the fall and holidays.

Redmond Items.

Redmond, Or., Jan. 14, 1907.

Mr. John Trisler has bought the Ward forty and expects to have in fifteen acres or more of crop this year.

Work will probably be begun again soon on the well. Mr. Rowlee is down from Bend, and Mr. Muma was expected to bring in casing from Shaniko on this trip.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Connor are back from their Portland trip. While he was gone the Portland papers took occasion to say some nice things about Vic, all of which were well deserved.

McLallin's camp from south of Powell Buttes has broken up and moved back to Redmond. Some of the men we understand will try the government irrigation project work at Umatilla.

The new stage line is now in operation and the stages are said to be models. We wish the new company success. Eleven passengers for the first stage was not so bad.

The D. I. & P. Company has been given authority to raise the price of the land which they still hold. The new price is one hundred dollars for a forty acre tract plus fifteen dollars for each irrigable acre. This makes the price of the best forties seven hundred dollars or a raise of a hundred and ten dollars.

The Saturday night meeting of the Settlers' Association was successful and well attended both by regular members and others. We had short talks by G. Springer of Culver, Max Lueddeman of Madras, Kirk Whited of Laidlaw and others. We enjoy having outsiders meet with us, and hope the Journal will be with us some of these days.

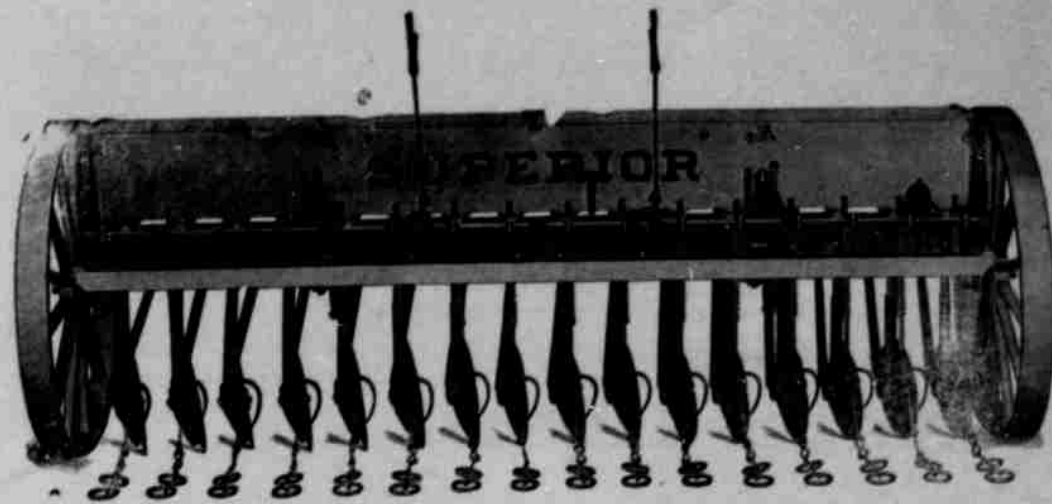

All those who are interested in fine hogs are cordially invited to stop at our place two miles west of Redmond and see our new acquisition, a Poland China from one of the best herds and best known breeders of eastern Nebraska. He is certainly a beauty and although he was on the road for over a week, came through in fine shape. Mr. Springer of the Haystack country, a lover of fine stock, stopped this morning to see him and the Black Langshans.

And now somebody is talking county division. It may be all right to talk it up and get the consensus of opinion, but we do not think the time is ripe yet for division. Yours Truly,
E. C. PARK.
