

Local Mention

Mrs. Henry Falkner of Beaver creek, is down with a serious attack of the "grip".

H. F. Johnson has sold his wood business to C. D. Calbreath and J. O. Powell.

When in town give us a trial. The best meal in town for 25c at the O'Neil Restaurant.

Guy McCallister left for his home in Salem the other day. He has been visiting relatives here for the past two months.

There is quite a head of water in the Celucos. It reached its highest point Tuesday but has been gradually receding since that time.

The ladies' annex of the P. A. A. C. are preparing a farce-comedy which will be put on the boards at the club hall some time in the near future.

Valentines all kinds

AT
D. P. ADAMSON & CO.

Not in twenty years has so much water found its way into the ground as at the present time. If nothing untoward happens the crops this season should be bountiful.

J. H. Taylor and wife of Sisters, were in town last week. Mr. Taylor is opposed to any division of Crook county. He says that he has lived here for twenty years and is satisfied with old Crook as it is.

E. E. Laughlin of Paulina, was in town not long ago and wanted to speak first for a county seat at his home town. He wants to hold the "sack," or otherwise he is satisfied with Prineville.

Rev. C. P. Bailey, the well known Baptist Missionary for Southern Oregon, will be in Klamath Falls about March 1st to hold meetings here.—Klamath Falls Express.

When in Prineville don't forget to call at the Cash Grocery for all good things to eat, at best rock prices. Millinery goods at actual cost until spring stock arrives.

T. F. McCallister.

Hand-Painted China

Finest in the City.

D. P. Adamson & Co

If you want Oregon Burbank seed potatoes to plant this spring hunt up or write Peter Poppescu of Prineville. He has a choice lot for sale. See his ad.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church will give a Valentine evening in the library room of the Presbyterian Church Feb. 14. Refreshments will be served. Every one invited.

It was reported, on the streets yesterday that the Trout creek bridge was washed out. Later a telephone message brought the reply that the bridge was all right but that the water was very high.

Foster & Hurligan have received a shipment of 300 boxes of first class apples from Seattle which they are offering for sale at $2 and $2.25 per box. Also a few boxes of choice apples for immediate use at $1.50 per box.

Word was received from A. Thomson and wife Tuesday. They left Prineville Wednesday for a trip to Portland and other points and reached Shaniko in time to take part in an overland trip to Wasco. They were in hopes of reaching Portland some time the first of the week.

The recent snow and rain storm is beginning to show its effects upon Crooked river. Yesterday the water had risen to a point some five or six feet above normal. There is no danger of a flood unless it goes eight or ten feet higher. Very little drift wood was seen coming down and hence it was inferred that there was not very high water above us.

Reduction Sale

My entire line of Millinery at REDUCED PRICES

MRS. ESTES

Corner 2nd and Main Streets

County School Superintendent Dinwiddie will hold the regular examination of applicants for state and county papers at Prineville February 13, commencing at 9 o'clock and continuing until Saturday, February 16.

The bunk house at the Willow Creek stage station was destroyed by fire Monday evening. It is supposed that the fire caught from the stove. The contents was consumed with the building. There was no insurance. The building was practically new and belonged to G. M. Corbett.

Mrs. Frank Prime of Lewiston, Idaho, a daughter of Uncle Dan Powell, is sick at Wasco. She was on her way to visit friends and relatives in Prineville when held up by the recent storm. It is not known definitely when she will be strong enough to continue her journey.

The people of Mitchell and the country between Mitchell and Prineville are making an effort by strong petition for the restoration of the Prineville and Mitchell mail line, and for the good of the people and country. We certainly hope they will be successful in their undertaking.—Mitchell Sentinel.

George Millican came in from his Pine Mountain ranch the other day and brings a story that is enough to make the heart of the hunter rejoice. A number of vaqueros were looking for cattle on the desert and ran across a band of 350 antelope about twelve miles from Mr. Millican's ranch. The cowboys ran into the band and stamped them. They could strike the animals with their quirts. It is said that it is so unusual to find large bands of antelope to make their way to the desert from the mountains after a heavy fall of snow. This year the snow is unusually deep.

T. J. Ferguson came down from Bear creek the first of the week. He reports lots of snow but hay is plentiful and cattle are doing well.

Miss Jessie McCallister has gone to Portland to learn the millinery business. She will work in a wholesale house for a month or two before ordering her spring stock.

A letter from the San Francisco Relief and Red Cross Funds to T. M. Baldwin states that it is gathering data to make final report of its work and that as chairman of the committee here to secure funds for the San Francisco sufferers, desire to obtain from him a complete list of the contributors to this fund with the amount contributed by each person and the expense involved in handling the same. Mr. Baldwin has furnished the desired information. The amount subscribed by the people of Prineville was $108. There was no expense attached for collection or forwarding.

George Millican came in from his Pine Mountain ranch the other day and brings a story that is enough to make the heart of the hunter rejoice. A number of vaqueros were looking for cattle on the desert and ran across a band of 350 antelope about twelve miles from Mr. Millican's ranch. The cowboys ran into the band and stamped them. They could strike the animals with their quirts. It is said that it is so unusual to find large bands of antelope to make their way to the desert from the mountains after a heavy fall of snow. This year the snow is unusually deep.

The usual services at the Presbyterian church next Sunday, February 10. Subject for 11 a. m. "Life's Desert"; for 7:30 p. m. "Some of Our Enemies." Brother Lilly of Cline Falls, addressed the congregation at 7:30 last Sunday. Christian Endeavor at 6:30; leader, Miss Adah Morse. Subject, "Lessons from the Patriarchs to Noah." The Christian Endeavor choir will practice Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Winnek. The ladies aid will give a Valentine social in the church library February 14th. You are all invited.

A good barometer to local business conditions is the amount of business transacted by Uncle Sam. The Prineville postoffice is certainly at the head of the column for towns of its size. Postmaster Lafollett's reports forwarded to the department February 1st show that for ninety days just preceding there was issued in domestic money orders some $48,000. This is an increase of $9,455.31 for the corresponding period of last year. There was also issued $250 of orders to be paid in foreign lands. The stamp and stamp supplies sales reached the $4000 limit, a big increase in the business done in any previous year.

The mail from Prineville is being stacked up in the postoffice at Shaniko awaiting the resumption of train service on the Columbia Southern. If the road is not soon opened up it will be necessary to build an addition to the postoffice to hold it.

In a letter from S. C. Bertrum, of Roseburg, forest supervisor, to T. H. Lafollett, president of the Crook County Stockgrowers Association, the forest supervisor says: "Owing to the pressure of business at this office and other portions of this reserve, it was impossible for me to visit your section of country this season; however, with but few minor changes, principally in the application blank, there will be no material changes made in the allotment of grazing the coming season, except that the price charged for sheep will be 10 cents per head for all over six months old—everything under six months will go free—so you can see there will be practically no charge for lambs. The limit of the number of head in a band will be 1250 ewes with their lambs, or 2250 dry sheep."

No mail from the Columbia Southern for eight days. This means, if we take the general average, that there are nine thousand pounds of mail due the Prineville postoffice which is being held up. Working night and day it will take the postoffice employes here from thirty-six to forty-eight hours to handle that portion of it which is distributed at this office. About half of it, or 4500 pounds, is redistributed for local points. If the blockade continues another week, which seems quite probable at the present time, you can easily figure what it will cost in time and effort to care for it. We have the assurance that our postoffice facilities are ample to handle any strain that may be thrown upon it. The Cornett Stage Company has four-horse teams in waiting at Shaniko ready to load as soon as it arrives.

Manford Nye had quite a thrilling experience a week or so ago. He left the ranch of George Millican to go to his home on Bear creek. The heavy fall of snow made everything look alike to Mr. Nye and consequently he lost his way. He wandered around on horseback for two days and two nights before he ran across familiar landmarks. When he finally got his bearings he was thirty miles from home. During his exposure he was without food or shelter. He did not even have any matches with which to build a fire. His escape was fortunate.

Jesse Yancey spent a good deal of time and money this fall protecting his property along Crooked river, just above town with piling. The high water is undoing some of the work.

The Royal Insurance Co., of Liverpool, England, enjoys the distinction of being listed among the companies—there were but six of them—which settled claims in the San Francisco conflagration at 100 cents on the dollar as adjusted. Assets over six million and an annual income of more than fifteen million. It pays to insure where you know your losses will be paid. The Royal gives such insurance; J. E. Stewart & Co. are their Prineville agents.

John E. Jones, son of G. W. Jones of Powell Buttes, a young man about 27 years of age, was brought to Prineville Sunday by Sheriff Elkins for examination as to his sanity. Drs. Edwards and Hyde took up his case Monday and pronounced it unsafe for the young man to be at large. He was committed to the insane asylum. Jones is temporarily confined in the county jail pending the arrival of the asylum officials who are to take him to Salem.

Manford Nye had quite a thrilling experience a week or so ago. He left the ranch of George Millican to go to his home on Bear creek. The heavy fall of snow made everything look alike to Mr. Nye and consequently he lost his way. He wandered around on horseback for two days and two nights before he ran across familiar landmarks. When he finally got his bearings he was thirty miles from home. During his exposure he was without food or shelter. He did not even have any matches with which to build a fire. His escape was fortunate.

Jesse Yancey spent a good deal of time and money this fall protecting his property along Crooked river, just above town with piling. The high water is undoing some of the work.

The Royal Insurance Co., of Liverpool, England, enjoys the distinction of being listed among the companies—there were but six of them—which settled claims in the San Francisco conflagration at 100 cents on the dollar as adjusted. Assets over six million and an annual income of more than fifteen million. It pays to insure where you know your losses will be paid. The Royal gives such insurance; J. E. Stewart & Co. are their Prineville agents.

John E. Jones, son of G. W. Jones of Powell Buttes, a young man about 27 years of age, was brought to Prineville Sunday by Sheriff Elkins for examination as to his sanity. Drs. Edwards and Hyde took up his case Monday and pronounced it unsafe for the young man to be at large. He was committed to the insane asylum. Jones is temporarily confined in the county jail pending the arrival of the asylum officials who are to take him to Salem.

Manford Nye had quite a thrilling experience a week or so ago. He left the ranch of George Millican to go to his home on Bear creek. The heavy fall of snow made everything look alike to Mr. Nye and consequently he lost his way. He wandered around on horseback for two days and two nights before he ran across familiar landmarks. When he finally got his bearings he was thirty miles from home. During his exposure he was without food or shelter. He did not even have any matches with which to build a fire. His escape was fortunate.

Jesse Yancey spent a good deal of time and money this fall protecting his property along Crooked river, just above town with piling. The high water is undoing some of the work.

The Royal Insurance Co., of Liverpool, England, enjoys the distinction of being listed among the companies—there were but six of them—which settled claims in the San Francisco conflagration at 100 cents on the dollar as adjusted. Assets over six million and an annual income of more than fifteen million. It pays to insure where you know your losses will be paid. The Royal gives such insurance; J. E. Stewart & Co. are their Prineville agents.

John E. Jones, son of G. W. Jones of Powell Buttes, a young man about 27 years of age, was brought to Prineville Sunday by Sheriff Elkins for examination as to his sanity. Drs. Edwards and Hyde took up his case Monday and pronounced it unsafe for the young man to be at large. He was committed to the insane asylum. Jones is temporarily confined in the county jail pending the arrival of the asylum officials who are to take him to Salem.

Manford Nye had quite a thrilling experience a week or so ago. He left the ranch of George Millican to go to his home on Bear creek. The heavy fall of snow made everything look alike to Mr. Nye and consequently he lost his way. He wandered around on horseback for two days and two nights before he ran across familiar landmarks. When he finally got his bearings he was thirty miles from home. During his exposure he was without food or shelter. He did not even have any matches with which to build a fire. His escape was fortunate.

Jesse Yancey spent a good deal of time and money this fall protecting his property along Crooked river, just above town with piling. The high water is undoing some of the work.

The Royal Insurance Co., of Liverpool, England, enjoys the distinction of being listed among the companies—there were but six of them—which settled claims in the San Francisco conflagration at 100 cents on the dollar as adjusted. Assets over six million and an annual income of more than fifteen million. It pays to insure where you know your losses will be paid. The Royal gives such insurance; J. E. Stewart & Co. are their Prineville agents.

John E. Jones, son of G. W. Jones of Powell Buttes, a young man about 27 years of age, was brought to Prineville Sunday by Sheriff Elkins for examination as to his sanity. Drs. Edwards and Hyde took up his case Monday and pronounced it unsafe for the young man to be at large. He was committed to the insane asylum. Jones is temporarily confined in the county jail pending the arrival of the asylum officials who are to take him to Salem.

Manford Nye had quite a thrilling experience a week or so ago. He left the ranch of George Millican to go to his home on Bear creek. The heavy fall of snow made everything look alike to Mr. Nye and consequently he lost his way. He wandered around on horseback for two days and two nights before he ran across familiar landmarks. When he finally got his bearings he was thirty miles from home. During his exposure he was without food or shelter. He did not even have any matches with which to build a fire. His escape was fortunate.

Jesse Yancey spent a good deal of time and money this fall protecting his property along Crooked river, just above town with piling. The high water is undoing some of the work.

The Royal Insurance Co., of Liverpool, England, enjoys the distinction of being listed among the companies—there were but six of them—which settled claims in the San Francisco conflagration at 100 cents on the dollar as adjusted. Assets over six million and an annual income of more than fifteen million. It pays to insure where you know your losses will be paid. The Royal gives such insurance; J. E. Stewart & Co. are their Prineville agents.

John E. Jones, son of G. W. Jones of Powell Buttes, a young man about 27 years of age, was brought to Prineville Sunday by Sheriff Elkins for examination as to his sanity. Drs. Edwards and Hyde took up his case Monday and pronounced it unsafe for the young man to be at large. He was committed to the insane asylum. Jones is temporarily confined in the county jail pending the arrival of the asylum officials who are to take him to Salem.

Manford Nye had quite a thrilling experience a week or so ago. He left the ranch of George Millican to go to his home on Bear creek. The heavy fall of snow made everything look alike to Mr. Nye and consequently he lost his way. He wandered around on horseback for two days and two nights before he ran across familiar landmarks. When he finally got his bearings he was thirty miles from home. During his exposure he was without food or shelter. He did not even have any matches with which to build a fire. His escape was fortunate.

Jesse Yancey spent a good deal of time and money this fall protecting his property along Crooked river, just above town with piling. The high water is undoing some of the work.

The Royal Insurance Co., of Liverpool, England, enjoys the distinction of being listed among the companies—there were but six of them—which settled claims in the San Francisco conflagration at 100 cents on the dollar as adjusted. Assets over six million and an annual income of more than fifteen million. It pays to insure where you know your losses will be paid. The Royal gives such insurance; J. E. Stewart & Co. are their Prineville agents.

John E. Jones, son of G. W. Jones of Powell Buttes, a young man about 27 years of age, was brought to Prineville Sunday by Sheriff Elkins for examination as to his sanity. Drs. Edwards and Hyde took up his case Monday and pronounced it unsafe for the young man to be at large. He was committed to the insane asylum. Jones is temporarily confined in the county jail pending the arrival of the asylum officials who are to take him to Salem.

Manford Nye had quite a thrilling experience a week or so ago. He left the ranch of George Millican to go to his home on Bear creek. The heavy fall of snow made everything look alike to Mr. Nye and consequently he lost his way. He wandered around on horseback for two days and two nights before he ran across familiar landmarks. When he finally got his bearings he was thirty miles from home. During his exposure he was without food or shelter. He did not even have any matches with which to build a fire. His escape was fortunate.

Jesse Yancey spent a good deal of time and money this fall protecting his property along Crooked river, just above town with piling. The high water is undoing some of the work.

The Royal Insurance Co., of Liverpool, England, enjoys the distinction of being listed among the companies—there were but six of them—which settled claims in the San Francisco conflagration at 100 cents on the dollar as adjusted. Assets over six million and an annual income of more than fifteen million. It pays to insure where you know your losses will be paid. The Royal gives such insurance; J. E. Stewart & Co. are their Prineville agents.

John E. Jones, son of G. W. Jones of Powell Buttes, a young man about 27 years of age, was brought to Prineville Sunday by Sheriff Elkins for examination as to his sanity. Drs. Edwards and Hyde took up his case Monday and pronounced it unsafe for the young man to be at large. He was committed to the insane asylum. Jones is temporarily confined in the county jail pending the arrival of the asylum officials who are to take him to Salem.

Manford Nye had quite a thrilling experience a week or so ago. He left the ranch of George Millican to go to his home on Bear creek. The heavy fall of snow made everything look alike to Mr. Nye and consequently he lost his way. He wandered around on horseback for two days and two nights before he ran across familiar landmarks. When he finally got his bearings he was thirty miles from home. During his exposure he was without food or shelter. He did not even have any matches with which to build a fire. His escape was fortunate.

Jesse Yancey spent a good deal of time and money this fall protecting his property along Crooked river, just above town with piling. The high water is undoing some of the work.

The Royal Insurance Co., of Liverpool, England, enjoys the distinction of being listed among the companies—there were but six of them—which settled claims in the San Francisco conflagration at 100 cents on the dollar as adjusted. Assets over six million and an annual income of more than fifteen million. It pays to insure where you know your losses will be paid. The Royal gives such insurance; J. E. Stewart & Co. are their Prineville agents.

John E. Jones, son of G. W. Jones of Powell Buttes, a young man about 27 years of age, was brought to Prineville Sunday by Sheriff Elkins for examination as to his sanity. Drs. Edwards and Hyde took up his case Monday and pronounced it unsafe for the young man to be at large. He was committed to the insane asylum. Jones is temporarily confined in the county jail pending the arrival of the asylum officials who are to take him to Salem.

Manford Nye had quite a thrilling experience a week or so ago. He left the ranch of George Millican to go to his home on Bear creek. The heavy fall of snow made everything look alike to Mr. Nye and consequently he lost his way. He wandered around on horseback for two days and two nights before he ran across familiar landmarks. When he finally got his bearings he was thirty miles from home. During his exposure he was without food or shelter. He did not even have any matches with which to build a fire. His escape was fortunate.

Jesse Yancey spent a good deal of time and money this fall protecting his property along Crooked river, just above town with piling. The high water is undoing some of the work.

T. J. Ferguson came down from Bear creek the first of the week. He reports lots of snow but hay is plentiful and cattle are doing well.

Miss Jessie McCallister has gone to Portland to learn the millinery business. She will work in a wholesale house for a month or two before ordering her spring stock.

A letter from the San Francisco Relief and Red Cross Funds to T. M. Baldwin states that it is gathering data to make final report of its work and that as chairman of the committee here to secure funds for the San Francisco sufferers, desire to obtain from him a complete list of the contributors to this fund with the amount contributed by each person and the expense involved in handling the same. Mr. Baldwin has furnished the desired information. The amount subscribed by the people of Prineville was $108. There was no expense attached for collection or forwarding.

George Millican came in from his Pine Mountain ranch the other day and brings a story that is enough to make the heart of the hunter rejoice. A number of vaqueros were looking for cattle on the desert and ran across a band of 350 antelope about twelve miles from Mr. Millican's ranch. The cowboys ran into the band and stamped them. They could strike the animals with their quirts. It is said that it is so unusual to find large bands of antelope to make their way to the desert from the mountains after a heavy fall of snow. This year the snow is unusually deep.

The usual services at the Presbyterian church next Sunday, February 10. Subject for 11 a. m. "Life's Desert"; for 7:30 p. m. "Some of Our Enemies." Brother Lilly of Cline Falls, addressed the congregation at 7:30 last Sunday. Christian Endeavor at 6:30; leader, Miss Adah Morse. Subject, "Lessons from the Patriarchs to Noah." The Christian Endeavor choir will practice Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Winnek. The ladies aid will give a Valentine social in the church library February 14th. You are all invited.

A good barometer to local business conditions is the amount of business transacted by Uncle Sam. The Prineville postoffice is certainly at the head of the column for towns of its size. Postmaster Lafollett's reports forwarded to the department February 1st show that for ninety days just preceding there was issued in domestic money orders some $48,000. This is an increase of $9,455.31 for the corresponding period of last year. There was also issued $250 of orders to be paid in foreign lands. The stamp and stamp supplies sales reached the $4000 limit, a big increase in the business done in any previous year.

The mail from Prineville is being stacked up in the postoffice at Shaniko awaiting the resumption of train service on the Columbia Southern. If the road is not soon opened up it will be necessary to build an addition to the postoffice to hold it.

In a letter from S. C. Bertrum, of Roseburg, forest supervisor, to T. H. Lafollett, president of the Crook County Stockgrowers Association, the forest supervisor says: "Owing to the pressure of business at this office and other portions of this reserve, it was impossible for me to visit your section of country this season; however, with but few minor changes, principally in the application blank, there will be no material changes made in the allotment of grazing the coming season, except that the price charged for sheep will be 10 cents per head for all over six months old—everything under six months will go free—so you can see there will be practically no charge for lambs. The limit of the number of head in a band will be 1250 ewes with their lambs, or 2250 dry sheep."

No mail from the Columbia Southern for eight days. This means, if we take the general average, that there are nine thousand pounds of mail due the Prineville postoffice which is being held up. Working night and day it will take the postoffice employes here from thirty-six to forty-eight hours to handle that portion of it which is distributed at this office. About half of it, or 4500 pounds, is redistributed for local points. If the blockade continues another week, which seems quite probable at the present time, you can easily figure what it will cost in time and effort to care for it. We have the assurance that our postoffice facilities are ample to handle any strain that may be thrown upon it. The Cornett Stage Company has four-horse teams in waiting at Shaniko ready to load as soon as it arrives.

Manford Nye had quite a thrilling experience a week or so ago. He left the ranch of George Millican to go to his home on Bear creek. The heavy fall of snow made everything look alike to Mr. Nye and consequently he lost his way. He wandered around on horseback for two days and two nights before he ran across familiar landmarks. When he finally got his bearings he was thirty miles from home. During his exposure he was without food or shelter. He did not even have any matches with which to build a fire. His escape was fortunate.

Jesse Yancey spent a good deal of time and money this fall protecting his property along Crooked river, just above town with piling. The high water is undoing some of the work.

The Royal Insurance Co., of Liverpool, England, enjoys the distinction of being listed among the companies—there were but six of them—which settled claims in the San Francisco conflagration at 100 cents on the dollar as adjusted. Assets over six million and an annual income of more than fifteen million. It pays to insure where you know your losses will be paid. The Royal gives such insurance; J. E. Stewart & Co. are their Prineville agents.

John E. Jones, son of G. W. Jones of Powell Buttes, a young man about 27 years of age, was brought to Prineville Sunday by Sheriff Elkins for examination as to his sanity. Drs. Edwards and Hyde took up his case Monday and pronounced it unsafe for the young man to be at large. He was committed to the insane asylum. Jones is temporarily confined in the county jail pending the arrival of the asylum officials who are to take him to Salem.

Manford Nye had quite a thrilling experience a week or so ago. He left the ranch of George Millican to go to his home on Bear creek. The heavy fall of snow made everything look alike to Mr. Nye and consequently he lost his way. He wandered around on horseback for two days and two nights before he ran across familiar landmarks. When he finally got his bearings he was thirty miles from home. During his exposure he was without food or shelter. He did not even have any matches with which to build a fire. His escape was fortunate.

Jesse Yancey spent a good deal of time and money this fall protecting his property along Crooked river, just above town with piling. The high water is undoing some of the work.

The Royal Insurance Co., of Liverpool, England, enjoys the distinction of being listed among the companies—there were but six of them—which settled claims in the San Francisco conflagration at 100 cents on the dollar as adjusted. Assets over six million and an annual income of more than fifteen million. It pays to insure where you know your losses will be paid. The Royal gives such insurance; J. E. Stewart & Co. are their Prineville agents.

John E. Jones, son of G. W. Jones of Powell Buttes, a young man about 27 years of age, was brought to Prineville Sunday by Sheriff Elkins for examination as to his sanity. Drs. Edwards and Hyde took up his case Monday and pronounced it unsafe for the young man to be at large. He was committed to the insane asylum. Jones is temporarily confined in the county jail pending the arrival of the asylum officials who are to take him to Salem.

Manford Nye had quite a thrilling experience a week or so ago. He left the ranch of George Millican to go to his home on Bear creek. The heavy fall of snow made everything look alike to Mr. Nye and consequently he lost his way. He wandered around on horseback for two days and two nights before he ran across familiar landmarks. When he finally got his bearings he was thirty miles from home. During his exposure he was without food or shelter. He did not even have any matches with which to build a fire. His escape was fortunate.

Jesse Yancey spent a good deal of time and money this fall protecting his property along Crooked river, just above town with piling. The high water is undoing some of the work.

The Royal Insurance Co., of Liverpool, England, enjoys the distinction of being listed among the companies—there were but six of them—which settled claims in the San Francisco conflagration at 100 cents on the dollar as adjusted. Assets over six million and an annual income of more than fifteen million. It pays to insure where you know your losses will be paid. The Royal gives such insurance; J. E. Stewart & Co. are their Prineville agents.

John E. Jones, son of G. W. Jones of Powell Buttes, a young man about 27 years of age, was brought to Prineville Sunday by Sheriff Elkins for examination as to his sanity. Drs. Edwards and Hyde took up his case Monday and pronounced it unsafe for the young man to be at large. He was committed to the insane asylum. Jones is temporarily confined in the county jail pending the arrival of the asylum officials who are to take him to Salem.

Manford Nye had quite a thrilling experience a week or so ago. He left the ranch of George Millican to go to his home on Bear creek. The heavy fall of snow made everything look alike to Mr. Nye and consequently he lost his way. He wandered around on horseback for two days and two nights before he ran across familiar landmarks. When he finally got his bearings he was thirty miles from home. During his exposure he was without food or shelter. He did not even have any matches with which to build a fire. His escape was fortunate.

Jesse Yancey spent a good deal of time and money this fall protecting his property along Crooked river, just above town with piling. The high water is undoing some of the work.

The Royal Insurance Co., of Liverpool, England, enjoys the distinction of being listed among the companies—there were but six of them—which settled claims in the San Francisco conflagration at 100 cents on the dollar as adjusted. Assets over six million and an annual income of more than fifteen million. It pays to insure where you know your losses will be paid. The Royal gives such insurance; J. E. Stewart & Co. are their Prineville agents.

John E. Jones, son of G. W. Jones of Powell Buttes, a young man about 27 years of age, was brought to Prineville Sunday by Sheriff Elkins for examination as to his sanity. Drs. Edwards and Hyde took up his case Monday and pronounced it unsafe for the young man to be at large. He was committed to the insane asylum. Jones is temporarily confined in the county jail pending the arrival of the asylum officials who are to take him to Salem.

Manford Nye had quite a thrilling experience a week or so ago. He left the ranch of George Millican to go to his home on Bear creek. The heavy fall of snow made everything look alike to Mr. Nye and consequently he lost his way. He wandered around on horseback for two days and two nights before he ran across familiar landmarks. When he finally got his bearings he was thirty miles from home. During his exposure he was without food or shelter. He did not even have any matches with which to build a fire. His escape was fortunate.

Jesse Yancey spent a good deal of time and money this fall protecting his property along Crooked river, just above town with piling. The high water is undoing some of the work.

The Royal Insurance Co., of Liverpool, England, enjoys the distinction of being listed among the companies—there were but six of them—which settled claims in the San Francisco conflagration at 100 cents on the dollar as adjusted. Assets over six million and an annual income of more than fifteen million. It pays to insure where you know your losses will be paid. The Royal gives such insurance; J. E. Stewart & Co. are their Prineville agents.

John E. Jones, son of G. W. Jones of Powell Buttes, a young man about 27 years of age, was brought to Prineville Sunday by Sheriff Elkins for examination as to his sanity. Drs. Edwards and Hyde took up his case Monday and pronounced it unsafe for the young man to be at large. He was committed to the insane asylum. Jones is temporarily confined in the county jail pending the arrival of the asylum officials who are to take him to Salem.

Manford Nye had quite a thrilling experience a week or so ago. He left the ranch of George Millican to go to his home on Bear creek. The heavy fall of snow made everything look alike to Mr. Nye and consequently he lost his way. He wandered around on horseback for two days and two nights before he ran across familiar landmarks. When he finally got his bearings he was thirty miles from home. During his exposure he was without food or shelter. He did not even have any matches with which to build a fire. His escape was fortunate.

Jesse Yancey spent a good deal of time and money this fall protecting his property along Crooked river, just above town with piling. The high water is undoing some of the work.

The Royal Insurance Co., of Liverpool, England, enjoys the distinction of being listed among the companies—there were but six of them—which settled claims in the San Francisco conflagration at 100 cents on the dollar as adjusted. Assets over six million and an annual income of more than fifteen million. It pays to insure where you know your losses will be paid. The Royal gives such insurance; J. E. Stewart & Co. are their Prineville agents.

John E. Jones, son of G. W. Jones of Powell Buttes, a young man about 27 years of age, was brought to Prineville Sunday by Sheriff Elkins for examination as to his sanity. Drs. Edwards and Hyde took up his case Monday and pronounced it unsafe for the young man to be at large. He was committed to the insane asylum. Jones is temporarily confined in the county jail pending the arrival of the asylum officials who are to take him to Salem.

Manford Nye had quite a thrilling experience a week or so ago. He left the ranch of George Millican to go to his home on Bear creek. The heavy fall of snow made everything look alike to Mr. Nye and consequently he lost his way. He wandered around on horseback for two days and two nights before he ran across familiar landmarks. When he finally got his bearings he was thirty miles from home. During his exposure he was without food or shelter. He did not even have any matches with which to build a fire. His escape was fortunate.

Jesse Yancey spent a good deal of time and money this fall protecting his property along Crooked river, just above town with piling. The high water is undoing some of the work.

The Royal Insurance Co., of Liverpool, England, enjoys the distinction of being listed among the companies—there were but six of them—which settled claims in the San Francisco conflagration at 100 cents on the dollar as adjusted. Assets over six million and an annual income of more than fifteen million. It pays to insure where you know your losses will be paid. The