Redmond Items.

Redmond, Ore., March 18, 1907.
Mr. and Mrs. John Trisler of Ottumwa, Iowa, who have spent the winter with us, start on their return trip today. Both have been very favorably impressed with this section of Oregon and we look for Mr. T. at least to be with us again next winter. The grand children though, in Iowa, we are afraid, will be too much for Mrs. T.
Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Moore of the county capital were with us for several days looking after their interests here, and have returned to Prineville.
Mr. Henege has moved his family to the homestead.
Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Walker of Loveland, Colorado, were in town several days preparatory to moving out to their place south of the Johnson ranch. Mr. W. is a Presbyterian minister.
Mr. Morgan and Mr. Wood had to visit Prineville last week. Mr. Wood came back with a new team of horses. E. C. PARK.

War Between Cattle and Sheepmen.

A dispatch from Sheridan, Wyoming, says that the situation between the cattlemen and sheepmen has reached a crucial point, and notices have been posted at all sheep camps in Northern Wyoming, warning the herders to take their flocks and get out of the country, on pain of death to both herders and sheep. These notices were posted at camps and cross roads. The movement is so widespread that the notices appeared the same night at points 200 miles from each other. They cover the entire grazing country of Northern Wyoming.
The sheepmen say the notices came from the cattlemen, who want to drive the flocks out of the country that the cattle may have the grass.
Sheepmen are armed and will resist any attempt to make them leave the country. A meeting of flockmasters has been called to take measures to protect the flocks.

A. E. Ammons of the firm of Birdsong & Co., Maury mountains, was in town the other day. His people are busy out that way cutting shingles. They have lots of them.

Adam Kozman of Bend, was in town today. He spent the winter in Ohio, Wisconsin and Minnesota and came back to Crook county better satisfied than ever with this country. Mr. Kozman is particularly interested in the dairying business and made a study during his trip East. After seeing what the business has accomplished for the states he visited he is anxious to have a start made in Crook county. He does not know of a better field nor a business that has a wider margin of profit. The Journal has always advocated a creamery for Prineville believing that it could be made to pay from the start. We import tons of butter that should be made at home. Let us see what can be done along this line this coming spring.
