Bulletin advertisements are out for bids to carry the mail from Crook postoffice to Prineville, a distance of thirty-two miles, once a week. The schedule calls for a start from Crook on Monday and return on Tuesday. The service to begin May 7th and continue until January 30, 1910. All bids must be in by April 16. This service is badly needed and will be a great accommodation to the residents of that section.

C. C. Lundy returned to his work in Harney county this week after finishing his collection here for the Read Company. In talking to Mr. Lundy concerning the company's interests in Crook county, he said that it would be perhaps three or four years before the company's lands would be thrown upon the market. The rentals received do not pay interest on the money invested, but it is thought that the increase in the value of the land will amply repay for the delay in selling.

Friday evening the students of the high school entertained the alumni and former students. The evening opened with the following musical program: Instrumental solo, Ben-Jah Crooks; Vocal solo, Cella Nelm; duet, Lora and Nora Stearns; Vocal quartette, Messrs. Ketchum, Mills, Moore and Lindborg; Vocal solo, Miss C. Conway. Games and various amusements were indulged in until a late hour when refreshments were served. Much credit is due the committee, Elva Dobbs, Agnes Elliott and Orin Mills, who had charge of the evening.

Are You Satisfied

To live in a poorly painted house that will soon look dingy and grow shabby from peeling paint? Then go to the man who offers to work cheap. But if you want your house well painted, the colors clear in tone, the materials the best that can be bought, the labor done by skilled mechanics—in short, if you want the work done so it will last, then come to us. Our reputation gained by twenty years of honest dealing is a guarantee that the work will be done right. PATTERSON & WILSON, Painters and Decorators.
