DRANK POISON.

Mrs. Johnson of Bend Died Last has no relatives so far as known and no acquaintances that can throw much light on the past history of the dead woman. She was buried today at Bend.

She was some sand bar or has been caught by some drift wood. Renewed vigilance on the part of those living between the Matoles and the Columbia river may result in the recovery of the body.

$500 REWARD.

We are authorized to announce that Mrs. Homer M. Street will pay the sum of $500 for the recovery of the body of her husband that was blown into the Matoles river March 30. Neighbors and others have done all that was possible, but without avail. It is hoped that the reward will stimulate others to take up the work and if possible recover the body. It is thought that the Indians might be enlisted in the search by the hope of obtaining the reward. Mr. Street at the time of his death carried $6000 in insurance, but unless the body is recovered it will be hard to establish proof of death that will be satisfactory to the companies carrying policies on Mr. Street's life. It is barely possible that the body has lodged on some sand bar or has been caught by some drift wood. Renewed vigilance on the part of those life. We are authorized to announce
