APPOINTED.

Office. On recommendation of Senator Bourne, concurred in by Senator Fulton, the president appointed Charles W. Moore, of Grass Valley, as Register of The Dalles Land Office to succeed M. T. Nolan, removed, and named Louis H. Arneson, of Hood River, as Receiver of that office to succeed Miss Anne M. Lang, whose term of J. E. Stewart & Co.'s add. expired March 3.

Both Senators have given con-siderable time to the selection of new officers for The Dalles Land Office, it being their desire not only to obtain men thoroughly qualified, but men against whom no charges can properly be made. Many candidates appeared in the field, some of them strongly in dorsed politically.

As each name was suggested Mr. Bourne requested Land Commissioner Ballinger to have the record of the individual carefully examined by his special agents, for he was unwilling to support any man unless he was satisfied in advance that the administration was convinced both as to his compe-tency and his integrity.

Mr. Ballinger willingly made these numerous investigations, but with the distinct understanding 11 a. m. that he had done so at the request of Mr. Bourne. He did not want the impression to go forth that he was running a private detective

The judge also decided that the general policy of the state of Montana, voiced through its laws, toward grazing on the open public domain and on unfenced private lands could not be given effect in the face of the legislation by congress, under its constitutional powers, for the protection of the public lands in the national

The case which resulted in the decision was an action for injunction brought by the United States against Thomas Shannon of Geyser, Montana, whose land had been fenced but who refused to keep the fence in repair. Shannon's cattle drifted from his land to the better grazing of the Little Belt national grazing. He contends that the government is obliged to keep its land in Montana
