

Redmond Items.

A. J. Booth has moved into the Iverson house for the summer.

Progress on the well at Redmond is rather slow owing to the very hard nature of the rock through which the drilling is progressing.

Lots of ditch laborers were in town Saturday night.

C. M. Redfield says the lateral system in the neighborhood of Powell Buttes is to be pushed rapidly to completion.

Chris Ehret will soon be as much of a rancher as any of us. He has filed on a homestead.

The premium list for the Deschutes Valley Fair is being revised and will soon be in shape for the printer.

Mr. Covert and Mr. Gibson were each hunting stray colts last week.

It's a cold day when there are not several fishing parties passing here on their way to the river. The last few days luck has been only moderate owing to weather conditions.

Today we were treated to quite a rain and sleet storm. The ground was quite white for a little while. It will be a real help to small grain, though it was rather cool for some of the vegetables.

Died.

On Monday May 20, 1907, Mrs. Nancy McCallister, widow of James T. McCallister, aged 62 years.

The deceased lived on the McKay, about ten miles from Prineville. She was born in Illinois July 22, 1845, and was married to James T. McCallister in 1861. To this union there were born five children—three girls and two boys. Two boys and two girls survive her—Clarence F., Sylvander D., Edith M., of Prineville and Mrs. Victoria E. White, of Eugene. Mrs. McCallister was a woman of devout character and at an early age united with the Church of Christ.

The funeral services were held at the home of James Prose and the remains were laid at rest in the cemetery at Prineville.

FRIEND TO FRIEND.

The personal recommendations of people who have been cured of coughs and colds by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy have done more than all else to make it a staple article of trade and commerce over a large part of the civilized world.

AN INSTANCE.

Lucy Suddreth, of Lenoir, N. C., had been troubled with a very bad cough for over a year. She says: "A friend bought a bottle of CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY, brought it to me and insisted that I should take it. I did so and to my surprise it helped me. Four bottles of it cured me of my cough."
