Must Scrutinize Papers.

The general land office has sent the following notice to Registers and Receivers: Your attention is called to that part of the act of June 29, which reads as follows: "That no notary public shall be authorized to take acknowledgments, administer oaths, certify papers or perform any official acts in connection with matters in which he is counsel, attorney or agent, or in which he may be in any way interested before any of the departments aforesaid."

Although this statute forms a part of the act of Congress amending section 558 of the Code of Law for the District of Columbia, it has recently been constructed by the Attorney-General to apply to notaries outside of that District; and you are therefore directed to scrutinize all affidavits and papers filed in your office for the purpose of seeing that they are not executed in conflict with this statute. Very respectfully, R. A. BALLINGER, Commissioner.

And the Journal did the work, did the work, did the work on the Fair Association envelopes, we mean, and it is all right, too.

We notice W. J. Buckley with us again after a somewhat prolonged absence.

A. J. Booth came home from Prineville, Friday evening with a team, wagon and harness. He has also bought the Bert Laney forty and proposes to do some farming now.

Messrs. Pratt Brothers and Ogg, of Payette, Idaho, are here looking over the country with a view to purchasing and are also visiting at the home of I. L. Harader and other former Payette people here.

Geo. Woods has bought himself a farm over towards the river. Not Geo. Wood.

A. Ehret is here from Newberg, Oregon, visiting his sons and will probably stay all summer.

Prospects are good here for a fine crop of strawberries this season. J. R. Whitney has many vines with over a hundred buds, blossoms and fruit. That sounds pretty good to us.

The Ladies Aid Society gives an ice cream social Wednesday night of this week. That sounds good too. Music and recitations will be given before the cream is served.

Father Hickey Cancels Engagements.

Father Hickey, of Wasco, has been forced to cancel appointments in outlying districts. It was his intention to hold a series of meetings at James Connolly's on the John Day, at the Axehandle school house, and at Kingsley, but unless conditions improve he will be obliged to return to Portland and consult his physician. The reverend gentleman has never entirely recovered from a severe attack of pneumonia and bronchitis which confined him in a hospital for several weeks last winter, and in consequence of his enervated condition his eye trouble is easily aggravated, and compels him to remain in a darkened room often for days at a time. Father Hickey's duties are numerous, the territory which he covers in his parochial visits being extensive. Besides, he is devoting much time and thought to the publication of his periodical the "Occidental magazine, and it is a source of anxiety to him that he may be forced, by the unfortunate circumstance of his illness, to postpone the appearance of the magazine, and also that he is unable to meet his parishioners as per appointments. It is hoped that his condition will speedily improve and that he may soon recover his health and strength.
