After a selection by the orchestra the chairman announced the "Rose March" by the little girls of the first and second grades. The little tots were dressed in pink and green and each carried a large rose. They looked very pretty and went through their drill without a mistake.

The "Lullaby" by the girls of the third and fourth grades was well done and was rewarded with generous applause.

The "Sunflower Drill" by the boys of the third and fourth grades was most creditable. They were well drilled and went through the various evolutions without a hitch.

The chorus "My Own United States" by the pupils of the fifth and sixth grades was well rendered.

Miss Goldie Gray gave a declamation entitled, "The Light on Deadman's Bar." It was well received. The class address by Rev. Bernard W. Bass was clear-cut and scholarly.

Superintendent Dirwiddie then presented the following graduates with diplomas: Goldie Gray, Lotta Smith, Frances Pettit, Allie Horigan, Teresa Snyder, Caroline Christiani, Verna Smith, Elmer Mitchell, Newton Poindexter, Cecil B.
