A. W. Carey, of Powell Buttes, is spending a few days in town. All kinds of grain look well over his way. He says that the feed on the desert is the best he has seen for years. Fruit, too, he says, promises a good yield.

MARRIED—At the Prineville Hotel, Tuesday evening, June 25, Geo. P. Lee and Miss Mary Koba, both of Paulina. Judge Bell performed the ceremony. The young couple left for their home at Paulina yesterday.

A dispatch from Bend says that recently 37 head of pure-bred Shorthorn cattle were purchased by the Davenport Bros. for the Davenport-Stanley ranch, east of Bend. The cattle were bought from Judge Byrket's herd, and cost from $100 to $400 a head. Davenport Bros. also plan to buy about 100 head of Merino sheep this fall.

On account of the inclement weather the ice cream social by the Civic Improvement Brigade was held in the old bank building Saturday instead of at the court house grounds as announced. The wet weather prevented a very large attendance so that the receipts were correspondingly light. Enough money was taken in to purchase one waste box and some sort of an entertainment will be given in the near future to raise funds to buy another. The Civic Brigade is doing good work and should be encouraged by our people.

A large belt broke at the P. L. & W. Co's plant Tuesday evening. A chair that was used just a few minutes before the accident was knocked to splinters. Fortunately nobody was hurt.

Dr. Rosenberg and family will leave Sunday for Portland and other coast cities. While away the doctor will attend the session of the Oregon State Medical association to be held at Seaside, and also the Eastern Oregon Medical association meeting at Hot Springs. He will have about two weeks' hospital work to do in Portland while away so that his time will be fully occupied. The doctor and family will return about the middle of July.

The Prineville Electric Light & Water Company has machinery on the ground to enlarge and otherwise add to the efficiency of its generating plant. It is the purpose of the company to lay new mains over an area almost one-half as large as that already covered. The company will install a new boiler and dynamo and will be prepared to furnish brighter lights. Superintendent Crooks says that the town will be wired so that when the principal part of the plant is disabled for a few minutes the new equipment can be switched onto the business section.

D. F. Stewart and Dale Jones got back the first of the week from a seven-days' fishing trip on the head waters of the Deschutes. They enjoyed their outing but do not report a very large catch. The weather was against them. It was not only cold, but it rained and snowed while they were out.

Pansy day at C. W. Elkins' store last Thursday was a great success. Over one hundred varieties of this beautiful flower were placed on exhibition by the members of the Civic Improvement Brigade. Anna Thronson took first prize and Agnes Elliot second. The promoters of the Civic Improvement Brigade should feel greatly encouraged at the results of the first year's work of the brigade. Not only are habits of industry formed by our little folks, but a love for the beautiful in nature is also inculcated.
