Rev. W. P. Jinnett left Monday for Walla Walla where he will visit his family for about ten days.

B. A. Felton was in the city the last of the week from the Breeze & Felton cattle ranch on Crooked river.

J. H. Horney was in the city on Friday from Madras. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Clara.

T. B. Price was in town Tuesday from his ranch at Crook. Mr. Price reports heavy crops but says that there is a scarcity of men to harvest them.

County School Superintendent Dinwiddie left for Salem Saturday to attend the county school superintendents' convention and the meeting of the state teachers' association.

Misses Louise and Veva Seisels passed through the city the first of the week on their way to their home in Harney county, after spending the winter in Portland. They were the guests of their uncle, Chas. Bedell, while in Prineville.

Norris Morgan, foreman of the Grant Mays cattle interests in the southern part of the county, was in the city the last of the week. He says that stock of all kinds are in first-class condition and that prospects were never better for a prosperous year in that part of Crook county.

W. S. Brown returned early this week from a trip to the Beaver creek country in Crook county where he went to buy beef. During his entire trip he found the mountain range the best it has been for several years, and in another month the country he was in will be full of beef—Blue Mountain Eagle.

The two Christian Endeavor Societies and the Epworth League held a temperance rally at the Union Church Sunday evening. The meeting was addressed by Revs. Moore and Jinnett. There were two male quartets, duets, solo; also declamations that went to make up an interesting program. During the summer months these societies will hold Union meetings. Mrs. I. Winick and Mrs. H. P. Belknap were elected delegates to the Christian Endeavor Convention to be held at Seattle this month.

There was a general exodus of the people of Prineville Wednesday for Bend, Howard, Sisters, Lamonta and other points to spend the Fourth.

I. O. O. F. hall is undergoing some extensive improvements. It has received a fresh coat of paint and the interior of the building will be overhauled.

J. H. Lackey and wife, from the Cold Springs ranch were in town Tuesday. Mr. Lackey was in search of help to harvest his crops. He says that it is next to impossible to find a man that wants work.

Mayor Goodwillie and wife, of Bend, were in town Saturday. The mayor says that Bend is expecting a big crowd on the Fourth and that Prineville people may depend upon a good feast of trout.

The Laidlaw Chronicle says that a letter recently received from L. I. Gregory, Secretary of the Oregon Trunk Line, states that he will be in our section again on a further tour of inspection sometime in July. He states that progress on the line up the river is very hopeful.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dobkins, of Lamonta, Cook Co., were in the city on Monday last, on their way home from Shaniko. They report the crops in their neighborhood generally good, with indications at present of a fair yield of grain.—Antelope Herald.

J. F. Huston of Crook was in town Tuesday. He says the people of the Crook neighborhood have a big kick coming on their mail service. In fact they have no service at all since the office at Crook was removed. People depend upon each other to carry mail. Oftentimes it is intrusted to children and it is a long shot if it is ever seen again.

TO THE FARMERS.

As haying is beginning, and will soon be in full blast, you will use more or less Fresh Meats. It will pay you to investigate the prices of meats at The O. K. Meat Market before buying.
