BABY NOW IN COURT

Portland Telegram

Receiving evidence, documentary and otherwise, that Mrs. Sallie Tomlin is the mother of the 2-year-old tot in possession of the woman known as Mrs. Norma Rowlee, and concluding that the latter has deceived the man she calls husband into believing the child their own offspring, with the intention of securing his money and other property, the juvenile court has taken possession of the baby.

This action was not taken until Judge Arthur L. Frazer, of the juvenile court, and Deputy District Attorney Robert Galloway, prosecutor for the tribunal, had personally investigated the affair. Mrs. Tomlin was sent for by Mr. Galloway this morning and was closeted with him and Judge Frazer for some time. Among the documents given them was one signed by Mrs. Tomlin and Mrs. Rowlee as she is known, dated April 27, 1907, forming an indenture allowing greater latitude taking the child from place to place than was permitted by what purported to be adoption papers, drafted January 26, 1906. In this indenture Mrs. Tomlin is admitted to be the mother of the boy known as Orse Carlton Livingston Rowlee.

EVIDENCE OF CONSPIRACY

The chain of evidence showing the existence of a conspiracy to deceive F. C. Rowlee, superintendent of the Deschutes Irrigation & Power Company, into believing the child his own son, is thought by the officials of the juvenile court to be complete, warranting them in taking quick and vigorous action to remove the child from the custody of a woman who is known to have consorted habitually with women of the half-world and is now under indictment on the charge of placing 17-year-old Alice Francis in the disorderly North End establishments of Dorothy Darlington and Essie Watkins.

One of the strangest parts of the whole affair, it is said by Mr. Galloway, is the discovery that Rowlee, who is a spiritualist, believes that the woman he calls wife is under hypnotic influence, and not responsible for her actions. He adhered to this opinion even after he had seen a letter written by the woman to Alice Francis, in which she said that Rowlee had "gone broke" and that she was very glad of it, and intended leaving him at once.

Information has also been secured which will probably result in additional complaints being filed against the Watkins woman and the Rowlee woman. According to the story told Judge Frazer and Prosecutor Galloway this morning by Mrs. Tomlin, the following are the facts in the case:

The child known as William Dudley Tomlin and also as Orse Carlton Livingston Rowlee was born to her at the county hospital April 7, 1905. Those in possession of the facts as regards the birth are Dr. Uhlman, Dr. Killingsworth, Miss Nathaway, then the head nurse. For certain reasons made known to the court, County Health Officer Dudley Evans has kept the birth certificate in his own possession and did not record it.

Mrs. Rowlee induced the mother to let her take the boy when he was six weeks old and a letter was sent to F. C. Rowlee at Bend, advising him of the birth of a child to Mrs. Rowlee. Mrs. Rowlee has always come to Portland for three months every spring since then, bringing the child with her and leaving him with a Mrs. Babbitt, on the east side. The mother was induced to sign papers permitting Mrs. Rowlee and her husband to adopt the child in Attorney Moore's office, at Moro, Or., January 26, 1906, and it is alleged that Mrs. Rowlee forged the name of the man she calls husband to these papers. Mrs. Tomlin was led to believe that the child was to be retained only temporarily.

Mrs. Rowlee came to Portland and had her sign another paper April 23, last, the witness being M. Esterly, which permitted Mrs. Rowlee to take the child out of the state.

"Last Thursday," said Mrs. Tomlin, "the woman tried to get me to lead a life of shame. She admitted to me at that time that she was not married to Mr. Rowlee and said that every time she came to Portland and put my baby with Mrs. Babbitt on the east side she spent her time in disorderly houses here. She said that was where she procured money to give me and to make me presents with."

I was also informed by her that Essie Watkins gave her $300 to take the Francis girl out of Dorothy Darlington's house and place her in the Watkins woman's house.

"As soon as I learned this I demanded my baby. She refused to give him to me and said I had signed papers and couldn't get him. So then I plotted to steal him from her, as I had a right to do. I want my boy, and will deny myself everything to feed and clothe him and give him an education."

Probation Officer Sam White, armed with the warrant, issued on complaint of Mrs. Tomlin, served the papers on the Rowlee woman this afternoon. The child is to be placed in the care of Matron Graham, at the Detention Home of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society until the case is disposed of. It will come up for hearing before Judge Frazer next Friday.

Paulina Notes

Haying is about finished in this part of Crook county. The scarcity of hay hands made slow work of it this season.

We understand that the beef ride commenced the 25th of August.

It is reported that Henry Faulkner has gone to Prineville to secure stable room for his string of race horses that will be entered at the Crook county fair in October.

There are to be races, a baseball game and a dance at Paulina September 6th. Everybody come.

The Paulina country will furnish some good horseflesh for the races at Prineville this fall. The boys are getting their "fliers" in shape and some speedy ones are on the list. Some of the purses are sure to come this way.

School Boards and Teachers

The attention of school boards and teachers is called to the following extracts from the late school laws. Teachers, especially, for their own protection should see to it that a copy of their contract is filed in this office. This office will also expect the districts to comply with the law in regard to flags. Note well the following provisions:

The county superintendent shall require teachers before beginning to teach in any school district in his county to register in his office, if they have not previously done so, their county certificates, state papers, and contracts, and should any teacher fail to file his or her certificate, state paper or contract in his office before beginning to teach in any district in his county, said teacher shall forfeit the full amount of salary for the time taught before said certificate, or state paper, or contract was filed. The county superintendent shall notify the clerk of said district of the amount of such forfeiture and shall deduct the amount of said forfeiture from the next apportionment due said school district. The requirements of this section shall be enforced only by the county school superintendent of the county in which the school building in which the teacher is employed shall be situated.

That the boards of directors in the several school districts of this state shall procure a United States flag of suitable size, and shall cause said flag to be displayed upon or near each public school building during school hours, except in unsuitable weather, and at such other times as to said board may seem proper.

The necessary funds to defray the expenses to be incurred for such flags and for poles and appliances necessary in connection therewith, and for the care thereof, shall be assessed and collected in the same manner as the moneys are now raised by law for public school purposes, or may be paid out of any funds in the treasury of any school district not otherwise appropriated. Yours truly,
