The Annex will give a reception at the club tomorrow night. All Club members are invited.

Ralph Hahn, who formerly lived at Prineville, was thrown from a horse at Spokane and badly hurt.

G. W. Noble has moved into town from his ranch at Paulina. He will send his children to school.

A petition is being circulated by the citizens of the Paulina country for a daily mail service from this place to Paulina.

The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church will serve a New England supper Friday, October 25.

Rev. Mr. Harper, who was formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church at this place, will preach next Sunday morning.

B. F. Nichols, the pioneer pharmacist, was in the city from his home at Laidlaw the first of the week. "Uncle Frank" says that Laidlaw is expecting a railroad daily now.

S. Dungee and family returned Saturday from a six weeks' trip to Salem and the coast. Mr. Dungee reports a fine trip. They were in attendance at the state fair at Salem a few days and say that the exhibits were very good, especially horses and cattle.

B. Cram of Shaniko passed through Prineville Tuesday with a bunch of 100 feeders which he bought from Andrew Noble. The cattle are in good flesh. The price paid was from $35 to $37 a head. Mr. Cram will feed the stock at his ranch near Shaniko.

W. J. Wright, a prominent farmer of Lamonia, was in the city Monday. Mr. Wright reports threshing a little more than half completed in the vicinity of his place. The yield in most places is better than was hoped for and the grain is of the best quality. Mr. Wright threshed about 3200 bushels of wheat and barley on his ranch.

Rev. H. Chas. Dunsmore, D. D., pastor at large for the Presbyterian church in Oregon, arrived in the city last Thursday to assume charge of the local Presbyterian church, until a permanent pastor can be secured. Services will be held next Sunday, both morning and evening, at the usual hours. Dr. Dunsmore will possibly remain with the church until the end of this year. The public are most cordially invited to attend all the services of the church.

Andrew Anderson was in the city Monday.

P. B. Davis left the first of the week for his home in The Dalles. Mr. Davis is gathering statistics regarding this part of the state with a view of interesting outside capital in industrial enterprises here.

A. W. Pope, aged 54 years, died from dropsy last Monday. He was buried in the afternoon. The deceased has lived in Crook county for a number of years. He was an engineer by trade and formerly worked for the Deschutes Lumber Company of Bend.

W. F. Hammer returned the first of the week from a visit in the Madras country. He reports several thousands of bushels of grain in the vicinity of Madras and all threshing crews busy trying to finish the season's work before the fall rains begin.

W. P. Epperson of Colorado City, Colo., paid a flying visit to Prineville and vicinity last week. Mr. Epperson was looking up land investments in Central Oregon. He thinks this country has a great future and that things will hum when we eventually get a railroad.

C. H. Dealy was in the city the last of the week from his ranch at Bear Creek Buttes. Mr. Dealy reports the sale of his spring lambs, 800 in number, to Wurzwiler & Co. at $2.80 per head. The lambs have just returned from their summer range in the Cascades and are in fine condition.

Orin Mills, son of I. M. Mills, of Paulina, was thrown from his saddle horse while riding after cattle recently in the Suplee country, and sustained painful injuries. Besides being kicked in the back, he was thrown on a stump of sage brush and received an ugly wound on the face.—Blue Mountain Eagle.

Mrs. J. F. Morris, Stanley Morris and Mrs. Keehn, who lives on Crooked river, returned last evening from a trip to the Willamette valley. They had a very pleasant time. On the return trip Mrs. Morris made the distance from Lebanon here, across the mountains, in three days. This is record time.

J. H. Gray of the Bonnyview farm reports the sale of one hundred head of two-year-old steers to W. W. Brown as soon as the alfalfa meadows are open. The price paid was 31 1/2 cents per pound on foot. The steers will average 950 pounds or better. This is the record price for animals of this kind and shows the superiority of blooded stock over the common cow.

No more gambling in the city of Prineville. The edict has gone forth and Sheriff Elkins last Saturday served notice on all saloons. The saloonmen took the matter good-naturedly and promised a strict compliance with the law.

The schedule on the Prineville-Sisters mail route has been changed again. This time the mail will leave Prineville on the arrival of mail from Shaniko, but not later than 2 p. m. in the winter season, which begins November 1st. For the summer schedule the mail will leave on receipt of the Shaniko mail but not later than 8 a. m. The winter schedule extends from November 1 to May 1.

Fred A. Rice has returned from a trip into the Fremont forest reserve beyond Bend. A part of this reserve was thrown open to settlement at midnight of September 23. Mr. Rice says that there are some fine timber in the lot thrown open to entry but there are more people on the ground than will get claims. On two desirable claims in the vicinity of Bend, there were seventeen tents on the morning of the 28th, all occupied by prospective settlers.

Advertisements are out for bids on the mail route from Prineville to Crook, thirty-two miles, once a week. Although the location of the Crook office has been changed, making the entire distance about 55 miles, the attention of the department has been called to this fact and due allowance will be made for the additional distance. The Crook office has been without a mail route for over two years and some one should submit a bid in order to supply the residents of that part of the county with mail service.
