CLOSING OUT Has brought a tremendous rush of business. Every department shows the effects of heavy selling. We must, however, crowd out our goods at a hot pace in order to be ready to surrender store building at expiration of our lease next spring. We accordingly are making deeper cuts into our prices. We are not seeking profits; WE ONLY WANT TO CLOSE OUT, AND THAT SOON.

WOOLGROWERS' CONVENTION

The annual session of the Oregon Woolgrowers' Association at The Dalles has passed on several of the vital questions that engaged the minds of the woolgrowers of the state for many months.

WANT WOOL TARIFF UPHOLD

1. Resolved, That we are unqualified in our indorsement of the present import tariff duties on wool, woolen fabrics, hides, meat and animals and oppose emphatically any legislation which shall tend to decrease or disturb the present prosperous conditions of the wool and live stock industry of the United States.

2. Whereas, we the people of the United States are being bunched daily by shoddy and cotton goods, misrepresented as wool, and

Whereas, the United States government does protect the people by means of pure food laws and meat inspection laws from food adulteration, and

Whereas, it is right and just in the abstract that the government protect the people from frauds and counterfeit and adulterations; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we have government inspection to protect us from shoddy and cotton counterfeits of wool and we hereby request our Congressman and United States Senators to introduce, work and vote for an act requiring manufacturers of goods and clothing to brand their products designating the percentages of wool, cotton, shoddy or any other material contained in said clothing and goods; and, be it

Resolved, That the President of the United States be made acquainted with the wish of the people of the United States so that he may recommend, if he deems proper, to Congress the necessary remedial legislation.

3. Whereas, much complaint has reached members of this association as to the management of the Wenaha forest reserve and to the western division of the Blue Mountain reserve; and,

Whereas, much discrimination has been shown against Oregon woolgrowers by the recent supervisor; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by this association, That the Forestry Department be requested to remove the present supervisor; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by this association, That the Forestry Department be requested to remove the present supervisor of those reserves and replace him by some official less prejudiced against the woolgrowers' interests of Eastern Oregon.

Further, the convention went on record against the leasing of public domain or placing it under the control of the Forestry Department, believing that such legislation would prove detrimental to the livestock interests, and would greatly retard the settlement and development of the country.

It was the sense of the meeting also that the forestry service should increase the salaries of its officers "to the end that competent men may be more easily obtained."

The action of the forest service in sending moneys derived from Oregon reserves out of the state while the management of Oregon reserves is lacking both in numbers and personnel, was condemned.

Relative to the amendment to the interstate commerce law, the resolution says:

Resolved, by the Oregon Woolgrowers' Association, whose members are deeply interested in the upbuilding of the wool industry of the Pacific Northwest. That at the coming session of our National congress an amendment shall be presented providing in effect that when any railroad company or corporation attempts to advance or lower any interstate freight rate or to make any changes in classification it must give ample notice and receive the approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission before such rates or changes in classification shall become a law.

Relative to the alarming increase in the number of predatory wild animals, particularly the coyote, the state woolgrowers, in a resolution, petitioned the chief forester of the United States "that he cause to be sent to the National reserves of Oregon special agents to accomplish the destruction of predatory wild animals," assigning for a reason that "within the borders of the National forests are great and natural breeding grounds for such animals."

The action and work of the United States Bureau of Animal Industry, in its effort to eradicate scab from the Oregon flocks during the last nine months was heartily indorsed, and an earnest desire was expressed that the bureau continue its work in the state along lines followed in the past.

A resolution asked for the removal of the ranger in the eastern division of the Blue Mountain National Forest Reserve, because he "has proven his incompetency during the season of 1907 by being arbitrary and unreasonable."

It was further resolved "that the cattlemen be confined to their own range until such time that the sheepmen can arrive at their respective allotments with their sheep."

The convention indorsed the movement of Western stockmen for the establishment at some central point in the range states a field pathological station equipped with the necessary laboratory for the purpose of studying diseases among sheep and cattle, and urged on the Department of Agriculture the necessity of such a bureau.

Remember the Poor.

Prof. C. B. Dinwiddie, Prineville, Ore.

Dear Sir: As Thanksgiving Day is again drawing near, I beg to solicit your co-operation with the teachers and pupils of the schools under your care for a contribution for the benefit of this society. The great good that has been accomplished along these lines has been felt by the management and has enabled us to give our children many little luxuries that they otherwise could not have received. We feel that in asking the aid of the pupils of the public schools throughout the state that we are at once assisting the children under our care and teaching the pupils of the public schools a valuable object lesson in charity.

The railroad companies have already signified their willingness to carry all freight sent to us during Thanksgiving time free so long as it is plainly marked "Boys' & Girls' Aid Society, Portland, Ore."

We sincerely trust that you will not fail to co-operate with us in this most worthy cause, and remain, Respectfully yours, Boys' & Girls' Aid Society of Ore.
