MORE NEW CANDIDATES

The Candidates' Column grows in length each week. There are several new names this week.

Fred A. Rice is out after the republican nomination for county surveyor. Mr. Rice is comparatively a new comer with us but he is an old-timer at the business. He is an experienced civil engineer and is well qualified to discharge the duties of the office to which he asks your support.

R. A. Ford is a veteran teacher that asks your support at the primaries next April. He is too well known to need any introduction from us. With 20 years' experience in the school room, three of which as principal of the Prineville public school, he goes before the voters of the county asking their support for the office of county superintendent of schools.

W. R. McFarland is another man that has spent the best part of his life in Crook county. He asks his democratic friends to support him for the office of county treasurer.

Ralph Sharp, mine host of the Poindexter Hotel, has caught the infection and asks the democratic voters not to overlook him for the office of justice of the peace. If elected he promises to marry the first couple free of charge, not only that, but he will add a free supper, bed and breakfast into the bargain. Bro. Kennedy will have to put his skates on if he wants to be in the running.

H. F. Jones is a Redmond man that announces himself as a candidate for the office of county assessor. The Redmondites noted for their modesty and Mr. Jones is no exception. His aspirations should meet with the approval of the republican voters.

The many friends of the J. F. Blanchard have prevailed upon him to run for county judge instead of for county school superintendent. Mr. Blanchard has consented to make the change and now asks his friends to rally to his support. He is a young man and very popular and will no doubt attract a large following.

White-Eagles

Married—At high noon, on February 26th, in the parlors of the Hotel Prineville, Silas White, and Miss Ica Eagles, both of Madras, Oregon. Rev. H. Chas. Dunsmore, D. D. pastor of the Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony in the presence of a few intimate friends of the bride. The happy couple left at once for their home near Madras, where the groom is engaged in ranching. Their many friends unite in wishing them all joy, happiness and prosperity.

Free Garden Seeds

We have received from the U. S. government an assortment of garden seeds for free distribution. As it is not the intention of the government to run in opposition to dealers, each person is entitled to one package which contains several varieties of choice seeds. Drop a postal addressed to the Crook County Journal office and receive your package.

The Best Physic

When you want a physic that is mild and gentle, easy to take and certain to act, always use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by D. P. Adamson.

DIED

On Tuesday, February 25, 1908, W. J. Watkins, aged 70 years.

Mr. Watkins was born on March 30, 1838, in Cherkow county, North Carolina. He crossed the plains in 1859 and located at Pike's Peak, Colorado, where he engaged in mining. In 1900 he took up a homestead northeast of Prineville and lived there until his death. He was a devout member of the Baptist church. Quite a large family survive him. He was buried at the Union cemetery today.

Sick Headache

This distressing ailment results from a disordered condition of the stomach. All that is needed to effect a cure is a dose or two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. In fact, the attack may be warded off, or greatly lessened in severity, by taking a dose of these tablets as soon as the first symptom of an attack appears. Sold by D. P. Adamson.
