

SHARP - FOSTER.

It is not only a "sharp" Foster, but a lucky Foster. The many friends of Frank Foster and Miss Gertie Sharp were agreeably surprised this morning to learn of their marriage last evening at the home of Postmaster Lafollette.

The affair was kept a profound secret, not even the parents of the bride knew of it until notified that the ceremony would take place in a few minutes.

While we are very sorry to lose our "side kicker" we cannot but rejoice in her happiness. Miss Sharp has been a valued assistant in this office for some time where her services have been highly appreciated.

CLEAN-UP DAY.

In accordance with the practice of all up-to-date towns Mayor Wurzwiler has set apart March 31st as a holiday for general clean-up purposes.

Now that the debate is over all attention at the high school centers around the oratorical and declamation contest. There will be six contestants from each society and the fight promises to be an interesting one, closer even than the debate.

John E. Ryan sent a couple of carloads of beef cattle to Shaniko the first of the week, destined for the Portland markets.

Arthur Hodges came over on business from Boise, Idaho, Monday. He likes his new home in Idaho, and thinks Boise is one of the best towns in the United States to live in.

Last Thursday evening the Amateur Athletic Club of Crook county High School, held a meeting to make arrangements for the new tennis court to be fixed up on the school grounds.

At its last meeting Friday afternoon the Alpha Society of Crook county High School elected new officers to serve for the next three months.

Local Mention

Begone dull care. "Three Hats" a positive cure.

Mrs. W. F. King and son left yesterday for Portland.

Floyd Huston of Crook, was in town a few days this week.

Born—Sunday, March 1, to the wife of Columbus Johnson, a girl.

Do you enjoy a good hearty laugh? Then don't miss "Three Hats" tomorrow night.

Rev. H. B. Hudson will preach next Sunday at 11 a. m. at the Union church. Everybody invited.

March 1st came in stormy enough to justify a pleasant ending, if there is any truth in the old adage. The ground was covered with an inch of snow which soon disappeared.

Frank Johnson of the Forest service, is home again from a prolonged stay at John Day, the headquarters of the new forest division of the Blue mountains.

E. B. Knox of Post, passed through town Tuesday on his way home from his sheep camp in the Pine Mountains country. He says the winter has been a good one for sheep in that section.

Eugene Guard: There is evidently a large number of patriots in Crook county willing and even anxious to serve the public. The Prineville Journal contains two columns of candidates' announcements.

Now that the debate is over all attention at the high school centers around the oratorical and declamation contest. There will be six contestants from each society and the fight promises to be an interesting one, closer even than the debate.

John E. Ryan sent a couple of carloads of beef cattle to Shaniko the first of the week, destined for the Portland markets. He has several hundred head of fat steers that he is feeding in the vicinity of Prineville which will be ready for shipment about the middle of April.

Arthur Hodges came over on business from Boise, Idaho, Monday. He likes his new home in Idaho, and thinks Boise is one of the best towns in the United States to live in.

Last Thursday evening the Amateur Athletic Club of Crook county High School, held a meeting to make arrangements for the new tennis court to be fixed up on the school grounds.

At its last meeting Friday afternoon the Alpha Society of Crook county High School elected new officers to serve for the next three months. Frank Lafollette and Reuben Booten were re-elected to the offices of president and secretary, and Edgar Barnes was elected vice-president.

Garden and flower seeds of all varieties at J. E. Stewart & Co.

T. M. Baldwin returned Saturday from a brief trip to Portland.

We would call your attention to the removal notice of W. Frank Petett, the Jeweler.

One of the brightest farce-comedies written, "Three Hats," at the P. A. A. C. hall tomorrow night.

Mrs. Harry Whitman of Lebanon, was here the first of the week visiting her sister, Mrs. George Roberts.

R. A. Kester is studying for a permit to teach school and if successful will take the school at Supplee.

E. J. Chatfield of Baker City, has accepted the position at D. P. Adamson & Co.'s as jeweler and engraver.

Miss Hillman will complete a five-months' school at the Rye Grass school house on Friday and will begin a term on Upper McKay at once.

L. B. Lafollette sold five carloads of beef steers in Portland Monday at $4.50 per hundred. The average weights were about 1150 pounds.

James Rice of Haycreek is greeting friends in Prineville today. Mr. Rice is out for the republican nomination of county commissioner. His nomination and election is a forgone conclusion.

J. O. Powell has delivered his beef at Shaniko. He received $4.25 per hundred which is a good price. They were in very good condition and sold well.

J. H. Templeton and C. I. Winnek returned from Portland the first of the week where they have been buying spring goods for their respective lines of business.

Miss Jessie McCallister has returned from Portland with an up-to-date line of millinery. The McCallister store on Main street is being made ready for the arrival of the goods.

Nicholas J. Lambert has bought the interests of E. H. Sparks in the Black Butte Company at Lower Bridge and will assume active management of the affairs of the company at once.

A masquerade was given at the home of C. M. Elkins last Saturday evening to the young friends of Millard. The young folks had a good time. Some were dressed as cowboys, others were Indian maidens, and there were sailors and characters of every description.

M. A. Lehman, the republican candidate for county school superintendent, desires us to make a correction. We underestimated the number of years in which he has been engaged in the school work. He has had twelve years' experience and has lived in Crook county eight years. We are glad to make the correction as the young man has lived here long enough to build up an excellent reputation in his chosen field of work.

For oranges, lemons and bananas, call on Mrs. Cyrus.

If your girl has gone back on you—see "Three Hats," then you won't care.

W. W. Soule of Crook, returned from a two weeks' visit in Portland Saturday.

J. A. Brown of Culver, was a business visitor to the county seat today.

Tom Langdon was in from the ditch camp a few miles west of town over Sunday.

If you want to find W. Frank Petett, the Jeweler, go to the O'Neil Restaurant corner.

An egg race is announced to take place at the skating rink on Saturday evening. An exciting time is expected. Manager Poindexter also wishes to announce a grand skating masquerade on Friday evening, March 13.

The ladies of the Annex are going to give a Leap Year ball Friday evening, March 13. Every club member is invited and expected to be present whether they have an escort or not. Each member is entitled to invite a friend and can procure printed invitations by applying to the invitation committee composed of Miss Frieda Lippman and Mesdames L. E. Hudson and F. B. Foster. It costs the ladies a big "simoleon" whether they bring a beau or not.

Officers for the coming year have been chosen in the high school. They are as follows: M. B. Hockenberry, principal, salary $125 per calendar month throughout the year. Miss Stevens, salary $90 per school month and Miss Conway salary $90 per school month. Miss Acker will perhaps be retained for the fourth position but has not up to this time made formal application for the place. The salary for this position is the same as those of the two last mentioned.

The ladies had a fine time at the Annex masquerade Friday evening. As everything of the male persuasion was rigidly excluded a full report could not be obtained. All doors, windows and side entrances were double barred and padlocked. Even "Stub," the janitor, was unceremoniously banished to the basement. There were many fine costumes worn we are told, and some good local "take-offs" that caused lots of fun. The party broke up about 10 o'clock.

The rebekah lodge of Prineville held a special meeting last Saturday night at the I. O. O. F. hall in honor of the president of the Grand lodge of Oregon, Mrs. Emma Galloway of McMinville, Oregon. After an hour spent at regular lodge work the following program was given: Song by Beulah Crooks; recitation by Mrs. Belknap; song by Celia Nelms and a quartet by Messrs. Williamson, Elkins, Edwards and McLeod. Mrs. Galloway said that of the fifty lodges she had visited but eight others were as perfect in their work. From Prineville she has gone to Pendleton and Baker city and will visit lodges through that part of the state.

See "Three Hats" tomorrow night. It's funny.
