A Legal Holiday.

By request of the Civic Improvement Brigade and others interested in the appearance and growth of our city, I, as mayor of the city of Prineville and by virtue of the authority vested in me as such officer, do hereby appoint and designate the 31st day of March, 1908, as a legal holiday, set apart for the purpose of cleaning up the city. Rubbish in all streets, alleys, yards and vacant lots must be cleaned up and removed.

WILL WURZWELER, Mayor.

THE FAIR TO BE THE BEST EVER

At a special meeting of the directors of the Central Oregon Live-stock & Agricultural Association held on Friday last, it was decided to hold their annual fair in October from 13th to 17th inclusive. A letter from Julian Byrd, secretary of the Harney County Association was read, intimating that their fair will close on October 3d, which will give horsemen ten days to attend our meeting. The pavilion has been painted, the track will be put in thorough going order, and the contract has been let to erect enclosed stalls for the horses, and other improvements will be made to ensure the most successful fair and race meeting ever held in this county. It was further decided that all delinquent stock shall be disposed of by public sale (at a place to be announced later) on or about May 15th. The association is now out of debt, and to enable it to remain so, the remaining unsold and delinquent stock will be offered to the public, and there should be no trouble experienced in finding purchasers.

Statement No. 1.

Culver, Or., March 9, 1908.
Editor Journal—Dear Sir: I notice in a recent interview you make me say I believe the question (statement No. 1) will cause lots of scratching when the ballots are counted. Should the candidates be divided on the question some declaring for and some against, it would no doubt result in a healthy disregard of party lines. At this writing, however, I do not know that there will be any division among the candidates on the question. I am sure I would not be better pleased if before the primaries every legislative candidate would declare his loyalty to the people by indorsing the popular election of United States Senator as I believe it is more important than the success of any man or party. G. SPRINGER.

New Land Requirements.

Department of the Interior, General Land Office, Washington, D. C., February 21, 1908. Registers and Recivers, United States Land Offices.—Gentlemen: In cases of applications to locate all scrip, warrants, certificates, soldier's additional homestead rights, or to make selections of public lands of the United States, the following requirements will govern on and after April 1, 1908:

1. The location or selection must be accompanied, in addition to the evidence required by existing rules and regulations, by affidavit of the locator, selector, or some credible person possessed of the requisite personal knowledge of the premises, showing that the land located or selected is not in any manner occupied adversely to the locator or selector.

2. You will require the locator or selector, within twenty days from the filing of his location or selection, to begin

For an Impaired Appetite

Loss of appetite always results from faulty digestion. All that is needed is a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They will invigorate the stomach, strengthen the digestion and give you an appetite like a wolf. These tablets also act as a gentle laxative. For sale by D. P. Adamsou.

Notice for Publication.

Department of the Interior, Land Office at The Dalles, Oregon, February 8, 1908. Notice is hereby given that John Kemmling, of Prineville, Oregon, has filed notice of his intention to make final commutation proof in support of his claim, viz: Homestead entry No. 11098, made June 11, 1892, for the SW 1/4, Sec. 28, T. 12 S., R. 17 E., W. 2, and that said proof will be made before the county clerk, at Prineville, Oregon on March 24, 1908. He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon, and cultivation of, the land, viz: John O. Powell, James F. Rose, Paul Johnson and Richard Powell all of Prineville, Oregon.

publication of notice thereof, at his own expense, in a newspaper to be designated by the register as of general circulation in the vicinity of the land, and to be the nearest thereto. Such publication must cover a period of thirty days, during which time a similar notice of the location or selection must be posted in the local land office and upon the lands included in the location or selection, and upon each and every noncontiguous tract thereof.

3. The notice must describe the land located or selected, give the date of location or selection, and state that the purpose thereof is to allow all persons claiming the land adversely, or desiring to show it to be mineral in character, an opportunity to file objection to such location or selection with the local officers for the land district in which the land is situated, and to establish their interest therein, or the mineral character thereof.

4. Proof of publication must consist of an affidavit of the publisher, or of the foreman or other proper employee of the newspaper in which the notice was published, with a copy of the publication notice attached. Proof that the notice remained posted upon the land during the entire period of publication, must be made by the locator or selector or some credible person having personal knowledge of the fact. The register will certify to the posting in his office. The first and last days of such publication and posting must in all cases be given. Very respectfully, R. A. BALLANGER, Commissioner. Approved: Feb. 21, 1908. JAMES RUDOLPH GARFIELD, Secretary.
