

A Legal Holiday.

By request of the Civic Improvement Brigade and others interested in the appearance and growth of our city, I, as mayor of the city of Prineville and by virtue of the authority vested in me as such officer, do hereby appoint and designate the 31st day of March, 1908, as a legal holiday, set apart for the purpose of cleaning up the city. Rubbish in all streets, alleys, yards and vacant lots must be cleaned up and removed.

WILL WURZWEILER, Mayor.

FOREST RANGERS' EXAMINATION

To be Held at Prineville on April 23 and 24
—Three-hundred Men Wanted in the Forest Service.

The United States Civil Service Commission has just announced that examinations will be held for the position of ranger at the supervisors' headquarters at every National Forest on April 23 and 24. It is estimated that 300 more rangers will be required during the present fiscal year than were on duty last year, and eligibles to fill these vacancies will be furnished the forest service by the coming examination. The examinations will be held in seventeen states and territories. Supervisor Ireland will have charge of the examinations held in Prineville on the above dates.

Applicants can secure information on the examination from the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C., or from Forest Supervisor Ireland at this place. Those who wish to take the examination should ask for application form 1093, a copy of the "Use Book," and a copy of "Information regarding Employment on the National Forests." The papers in the examination will all be forwarded to the Civil Service Commission and the results announced in due time.

Experience, a thorough knowledge of forest conditions, and a sound body rather than book education, are the qualities sought in examining applicants who desire to become forest rangers. The man must have the ability, however, to make simple maps and write intelligent reports upon forest business connected with the position. A ranger must be able to take care of himself and his horses in regions remote from settlement and supplies. Necessary qualifications of applicants include the knowledge of trail building, construction of cabins, and the ability to ride, pack, and deal tactfully with all classes of people. They must also know something of the land laws, surveying, estimating and scaling timber, logging, mining and the livestock business.

The applicant should be thoroughly familiar with the region of the country in which he seeks employment. Personal equipment and horses for use in connection with the duty of a ranger are furnished by the rangers themselves, and not by the forest service.

Working under the direction of the forest supervisors, the ranger patrols the forests to prevent fire and trespass, estimates, surveys and marks timber, supervises and performs other duties which a man thoroughly familiar with forested regions and possessing a fair education is able to fulfill.

Only those men who are at least 21 years of age, and not more than 40, of good character, temperate, and in good physical condition are eligible to take the examination. The salary paid to beginners is $75 per month. Compensation runs as high as $1,400 per year for rangers who have had some experience and demonstrate their capability. Still better places are open to these men, for it is the policy of the forest service to fill vacancies in higher positions by the promotion of rangers who have proved their capacity.

MARRIED.

In Burns, Or., March 18, Harvey Winslow and Miss Lena Street. Rev. A. J. Irwin performed the ceremony. The bride is the popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Street of Crook county. The bridegroom is a Seattle boy, a nephew of W. W. Brown. The young lady has many friends in Prineville who join us in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Winslow much happiness and prosperity. A WELL WISHER.

OBITUARY.

Died, in Prineville on the evening of Thursday, March 19, 1908, Mr. George Taylor, aged 55 years. Mr. Taylor was one of the early settlers in the Sisters country, but about three years ago moved to a ranch near Bear Creek, where he has since resided. The remains were taken to the Sisters cemetery for burial, where the funeral services were held by Rev. Dr. Dunsmore of Prineville. The large attendance of old friends and neighbors attested the esteem in which the deceased was held. Mr. Taylor leaves a widow and a grown family of sons and daughters to mourn the loss of a fond husband and father.

Redmond Items

Mr. Lauderback and family left here about ten days ago for some Willamette point.

Mr. Rencer will be another new settler in a few days. Mr. R. is already located, but we did not learn where.

Mrs. Bauer has so far improved that she is partially able to resume her household duties, and she has already been calling.

C. L. Lowther preached yesterday to a good-sized audience. Quarterly meeting will be held on the evening of April 6.

Word received from Miss Muma states that she reached Sunnyside, Washington, in good shape, and is visiting there for a time.

Two more late comers are Mr. File and Earl Benton. They live just north of McGuffie's, where Mr. File has lately bought.

The forty where Mr. Richardson from Tennessee lived has been sold again, this time to an actual settler. His name some other time.

Mrs. Manderschild has returned to Oklahoma. Tom will stay here for a time yet but has rented the farm to W. L. Gibson, who will soon occupy it.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Tinsley were business visitors at O'Neil today. They will soon be installed in the hotel there, caring for the ever shifting population as well as the regulars.

We neglected to state that the Frank Glass building has been moved to the corner across the street east from Ehret Brothers' store, so those four corners are now pretty well taken up.

The masquerade at the hall on St. Patrick's day was well attended by a crowd who thoroughly enjoyed themselves. We did not learn who took the prizes except one, Mr. Norwood, impersonating Uncle Sam.

J. G. McGuffie is home from Bend for a sojourn extended visit during reorganization business in the D. I. & P. Company. Some San Diego capital has been interested, but details of the transaction were not to be had. F. S. Stanley and others interested are expected in a very few days.

Word has been received from E. L. Iverson that he will ship his goods about the last of this month. He has leased C. M. Redfield's house for a year and has rented the George Wood store building and we will soon have two general merchandise stores to accommodate our ever increasing population.

Quite a number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Redmond gathered at their home Saturday evening taking them completely by surprise. The evening was spent very pleasantly at games, conversation and refreshments. Mr. Redmond has been improving his home very materially and now has a nice, large, roomy residence.
