

EASTERN STAR ANNIVERSARY

The twelfth anniversary of Carnation Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, was held on Friday evening, March 27th, in the Masonic Hall. A large attendance of the members and their friends were present, and a very pleasing musical and literary program was rendered.

The Worthy Matron Mrs. Smith, welcomed the visitors and members in a very happy address, after which Mr. Brink gave a brief history of the Chapter and read some of the correspondence relating to the organization twelve years ago.

A solo, "Schooldays" by Miss Lorene Winnek, and one "Through Sunny Spain" by Miss Nelms, were greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Dr. Belknap recited a poem by Joaquin Miller, in her usual effective and charming manner, and another recitation by her son, Master Wilbur, was conclusive evidence of the dramatic talent in the Belknap family.

Hon. J. N. Williamson surprised the audience by his wonderful versatility, in that he proved conclusively his ability to comprise an entire quartette in himself, as he "sang a little tenor, sometimes baritone, and sometimes a little bass." His song brought an enthusiastic encore from his audience, to which he responded with a repetition of the chorus.

The "hit" of the evening was a "Screaming Farce" entitled "Female Masons," given by fifteen ladies, members of the Eastern Star. Mrs. Brink presided "in the East" and was most effectively supported by the various members. While they perhaps did not always adhere to the requirements of parliamentary law, and although their passwords and signs were a little unusual, it is certain that every brother Mason present must have gained a new insight into the secrets and beauties of masonry as its precepts, principles and practices were unfolded and presented by the "female masons."

The sudden appearance of a little mouse on the floor rather upset the dignity of the members for a time, and caused some of them to strike peculiar and mavelous attitudes, but the interruption was shortlived and the "regular order" resumed.

Following the program refreshments of ice cream and cake were served, and the company lingered some time in the enjoyment of that fellowship always found under such auspices. Carnation Chapter O. E. S. is one of Prineville's most prosperous and flourishing societies.

Redmond Items

Redmond, Ore., Mar. 30, '08.
Fin's Woods was to go to Madras today.

A remonstrance is out against granting a license for saloon at this place.

The new schoolhouse is beginning to take on the appearance of a building.

C. W. Muma reports the roads from Shaniko in pretty good condition, especially for this time of year.

Lou Reed was in from spending Sunday at Mr. Tuck's. Mrs. Reed has been there for a week or ten days.

P. K. Simons showed his pleasant countenance once more in Redmond last Wednesday from the Bend-bound stage.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamb, Davidson and Mr. Eby attended the Sunday School meeting at the Forked Horn schoolhouse Saturday.

The annual business meeting and election of officers of the Ladies' Aid Society is to be held Thursday April 9. A full attendance is desired.

A very pleasant surprise on Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Tinsley was planned and on Saturday night was carried out. Many neighbors gathered and passed the evening with them.

Two road petitions are out, one for a continuation of the last north and south road on south across the school section to connect with the Laidlaw road, and another one to connect that one with the Bend road.

And now comes word that an old friend, Neighbor Handegaard did not go to the old country at all but settled down at Lake Park, Minnesota, and last fall got married. We knew that he was afflicted with the microbe when he left here, but we supposed it would carry him off before it did.

Additional Locals.

Charley Summers left the first of the week for Arlington, Or.

Registration closes April 7. Don't wait until the last moment.

H. F. Jones, the republican candidate for nomination as assessor, will have an article in next week's issue of the Journal that will be of interest to every taxpayer in Crook county regardless of party affiliations. Mr. Jones has had four years' experience as assessor in Colorado, with an added experience of fifteen years as a real estate appraiser and salesman, and as he is thoroughly familiar with the subject his article should be read by every voter in the county.

William P. Vandeventer of Bend, was in the city Saturday in attendance at the meeting of the stockmen with the forester supervisors. Mr. Vandeventer runs his stock in the upper Deschutes country where he has made his home for many years. "We certainly had a fine meeting," he said, in speaking of the session with the supervisors. "One matter was adjusted that has for a long time been a subject of controversy, and that was the apportionment of the range in the vicinity of Crane Prairie. Everybody's interests were looked out for, passage ways for the bands of sheep were provided for, and everyone interested in that portion of the range was, so far as could be learned, perfectly satisfied. It is the adjustment of these matters that make the meetings of the stockmen and the representatives of the government so valuable."

Candidates Column.

James W. Wright for County Judge
To the Democratic voters of Crook county: I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of county judge, subject to your approval at the primaries to be held April 17.
