Redmond Items

Redmond, Ore., April 20, '08.
Ten of the neighbors of Edwin Lockyear met with him on Tuesday with their teams and had a regular old-fashioned plowing bee. Mr. Lockyear has been very poorly ever since his injury last December and has been unable to do his spring work, but this will help out some. We got the item in time for the paper but were sorry not to have it in time to join the crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. John Trishler left here Saturday, April 11, accompanied by Mrs. Park senior, for their homes in Iowa. They gave evidence of having spent a pleasant winter in Oregon and left in good health and spirits.

Friday night the surprisers met by invitation the hostess at B. A. Kendall's, the occasion being on account of the surprise the week before that failed to surprise.

As near as we could get it from a very meager statement of facts, it was like this: Chris and the barber got into an argument about a ball game, and as Chris was undergoing an operation at the time and the barber held the razor, Chris had to take his fingers over to Prineville for another operation. That may sound rather gory and it is, but the best of it is that no bad blood was spilled. It was all an accident.

We understand that Mrs. J. L. Gibson is ill enough that she is requiring medical attention.

Mrs. McLallin took advantage of having her mother over for a short visit to give a little birthday party in her honor which was much enjoyed by the several guests present.

E. B. Born of Sisters, was over for a little freight that was left for him. He is getting ready to seed 40 acres or more to clover and alfalfa this spring.

The new north and south road is being cleared out by Mr. Perry preparatory to going on it with teams and getting it opened in proper shape.

Mrs. Kenyon reports that Cecil has leased the farm in North Dakota and will probably be home this week.

Word was received by Mr. F. A. Kennard recently of the death of a son at Turtle Lake, North Dakota. Friends extend their sympathies.

Son Irvin left here Friday for Pueblo, Colorado, on account of his health. We hate to see the young man go.

Here is a new "kid story" guaranteed never to have been in print before. Auntie told it herself. Her name was probably Kalamazoo, but that is so common that we will call her Smith, instead. She had been looking for her husband home for several days, and one day when he did not come, to use her own expression, she just sat down and howled. Tommy, who was present, opened his brown eyes, big with wonder, and with a voice deep and husky with emotion he said: "Aunt Mollie, are you howling 'cause our carrots are bigger'n you'n? They are bigger, aren't they?"

On a recent trip to Shaniko, we found evidence all along the way that this country can grow fruit. The best showing near home was at Trail Crossing by R. M. Morris, who will have several varieties of fruit in full bloom this year. Mrs. Parrish of Hay Creek, one of those whom we saw says she will have several stands of bees to sell this year and they are nearly ready to swarm. Those desiring bees should write to her.

Messrs. Eby and F. H. Woods announce themselves as professional horse breakers and trainers. When they made the announcement they were on their way to G. Springer's for the first herd.

LOCAL MENTION

Rev. J. Anthony Mitchell of Bend, passed through the city on Wednesday en route to the meeting of the Pendleton Presbytery at Moro. From there, Mr. Mitchell will go to California to visit his family, and thence to Kansas City, Mo., to the meeting of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church, to which he is a delegate.

C. A. Chapman of Bend, went to Kansas last December with the avowed intention of bringing back with him a colony of home-seekers to settle in the Deschutes Valley. But it seems that when Mr. Chapman reached Kansas that he himself turned home-seeker and got married. Mr. Chapman and his wife reached Prineville last evening on their way home to Bend.

There will be no preaching service at the Presbyterian church Sunday, the pastor being absent from the city. Sunday school meeting will be at 10 o'clock and Christian Endeavor at 7 o'clock as usual.

Dr. Dunsmore left on Wednesday to attend the semi-annual meeting of the Pendleton Presbytery which is being held at Moro. From Moro Dr. Dunsmore will continue on to Portland, and spend a few days with his family, returning to Prineville on Friday, May 1st.

Before you buy a Cream Separator look over the U. S. for sale by J. E. Stewart & Co.

John Schmeer of Post, passed through Prineville the first of the week on his way to Salem with one of his fleet-footed 2-year-old trotters. The little filly gave such promise of speed that it was decided to train it for the Salem races this fall.

At the Methodist church next Sunday evening, the sermon by the pastor will be one suggested by the recent convention of the Socialists. The subject is, "The American Social Problem." All are cordially invited. Services begin at eight. Other services of the day are as usual.

A. A. Baldwin, who was so badly injured by a runaway horse at the Devenport-Stanley ranch on Wednesday, April 15, died on the morning of the 17th. He was buried Monday afternoon from the undertaking parlors of Lippmann & Co. The funeral services were conducted by Dr. Dunsmore of the Presbyterian church, and were attended by a large number of friends and acquaintances.

Evangelistic meetings at the Union church continue until next Sunday evening. Don't fail to hear the popular recital given by E. R. Moon, Tuesday evening, April 27.

Civil service examinations are being held today and tomorrow at the court house by Forest Supervisor A. S. Ireland. Twelve applicants for forest rangers' positions are reported, among whom are T. B. Zell and Clyde C. Hon.

James W. Wright wishes to state that on the 1st day of May, 1907, he transferred to C. C. McNeely all of his interest in the contract with Crook county for the construction of the new court house. He is therefore not one of the defaulting contractors as mentioned in last week's issue.

Keep up Your Chickens
On and after this date all chickens must be kept from running at large. This means everybody. If you fail to do so the city ordinances will be strictly enforced.

Dated this 9th day of April, 1908.
J. H. CROOKS, City Marshal.
