

State Returns Complete

The returns from the state primary election are all in and show that H. M. Cake defeated C. W. Fulton for the republican nomination for United States senator. Mr. Cake's majority for the state was 2487.

In the congressional race for the Second district W. R. Ellis won handily. He received 11,813 votes, George Shepherd 8476, and T. T. Geer 8275. The Pendleton statesman will therefore succeed himself as representative in congress from this district.

The race for the democratic nomination for congress from this district was very close. J. A. Jeffrey won by the narrow margin of five over A. J. Derby.

R. S. Bean polled 40,807 votes for the nomination of supreme justice on the republican ticket. He had no opposition.

C. B. Aitchison has a plurality of 678 over his opponents for railroad commissioner.

J. W. Bailey, the republican nominee for food and dairy commissioner, defeated his opponent by 14,989 votes.

The Bend Bulletin goes out of its way to besmirch the good name of Prineville. It gives publicity to rumors that are without foundation. It rebashes the "Shorty" Davis tragedy and would make it appear that Lark Elliott had "implicated" 22 persons living at Prineville and vicinity, some of them prominent business men and stockraisers. What not.

James T. Robinson of Culver, announces himself an independent candidate for the office of county judge. Mr. Robinson has lived twenty-three years in Crook county and is numbered among its prosperous ranchers.
