Redmond News.

Redmond, June 8.-It would be futhe rain we got today in dollars and extend heartlest congratulations. cents. Here's hoping, however, that the Haystackers, and other dry farming sections, got more than we did. If they got as much it will do them very well for awhile.

The recent election showed some surprises. Who would have thought from the remarks that were made that equal suffrage would lose in this precinct by an even vote of 42 to 42. Either some voted the way they did not intend or those who favored the measure kept very quiet about it. The vote for prohibition of 63 to 28 was hardly in the nature of a surprise as it has been a dry precinct ever since transient ditch labor-ers quit voting here. Several ballots came in with the left hand column voted in full but not a scratch found on the right hand side. That must have been for the antis. The single tax proposition got more votes here tax proposition got more votes here than anyone seemed to think it The day after the election here Iowa gave the direct primary law
