CAUGHT WITH THE GOODS

John Eagan Arrested for Burglary of Dozen Watches from J. C. Rush at Lamonta

CRIME COMMITTED LAST FALL

Eagan Waives Examination and in Default of $250 Bonds Will Board with Sheriff

After waiting since last fall for some evidence pointing to the guilty party, Jack Eagan of Lamonta has been arrested by Sheriff Elkins on a charge of the burglary of some watches, the property of J. C. Rush, the Lamonta merchant. Eagan waived examination and Justice Luckey bound him over to the fall term of the district court in the sum of $250. He will board with the sheriff until he can raise the amount of the bonds.

It was last fall while Mr. Rush was at supper that some one broke in the back door of the store and made away with a tray containing several hundred dollars worth of watches. The sheriff was notified and that officer has been on the lookout ever since for the guilty party. The first of the week Eagan came to town with one of the stolen watches in his pocket. The sheriff gathered him in. The case against Eagan is very strong as the number of the watch found on him agrees with the number of one of the missing timepieces. Eagan is a middle-aged man and is well known in the Lamonta district.

Wood Sawing.

Having purchased the wood sawing outfit of C. D. Calbreath I am prepared to cut wood both for the people living in Prineville and those in the neighboring district.

PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS CHOSEN

Some of the Best Talent in County Engaged in Prineville Schools for Coming Year

PROF. FULTON AS PRINCIPAL

Building Not Large Enough to Accommodate All Classes—Need Two More Rooms

The public school board has completed the list of teachers for the Prineville public schools for the years 1908-9. There are eight teachers and among the number may be found some of the best talent in the county.

In the selection of principal there could not have been a better selection made than that of P. C. Fulton of Madras. Mr. Fulton has a life certificate and has had many years of experience in the county.

The seven assistant teachers are: Elsie Osborne, Miss Hartwig, L. H. Arensmeyer, Elva J. Smith, Cora Ferguson, Alwilda Wilson and Cora Streit.

The date of opening the term has not been decided upon but will be either September 14 or 21.

Besides the room furnished in the public school building which has recently been enlarged, at least two rooms in other parts of the town will have to be rented to accommodate the classes for the coming year.

Attention Home-seekers.

People coming to Crook county with the intention of locating on government land should first write or call on Cady & Jones, Prineville, Or.

Horses for Sale.

One mare and yearling colt will be sold at public sale, on Saturday, the 18th day of July, 1908, at 10 a. m., at the ranch of W. O. ELLIOTT, on the Ochoco, to satisfy feed bill. 6-18-aw

RAILROAD IS INCORPORATED

Capitalized at $50,000, Most of Which Will Be Taken by Crook County People

PORTLAND CAPITAL WAKING UP

May Extend a Helping Hand to Central Oregon in Her Dire Need of Transportation

Articles of incorporation of the Central Oregon Railroad Company the object of which is to construct a railroad from Shaniko to Prineville and Bend, were filed in the office of the county clerk this morning, says the Portland Telegram. The company is capitalized at $50,000, which will be taken up to a considerable extent by the people of Crook county, who have practically decided to build their own road, because Harriman has done nothing.

The incorporators are Alfred F. Biles, F. S. Stanley, Jesse Stearns and Roscoe Howard.

The route of the new road will follow the line on which Harriman promised to build a road when he took over the Columbia Southern. Hampered by the lack of an outlet for their immense resources, the people have tired of Harriman's delays and as a result the Central Oregon Railroad Company was organized.

"This is not a scheme of speculation, nor is it a great enterprise," said Jesse Stearns. "It is simply a united effort on the part of the people of Central Oregon to secure an outlet for their products. Many of the farmers who have not the ready money will contribute grain and others will give work on the grading, so that the road may be built."

"While it is of vast importance to Central Oregon, it is also highly important to Portland, so important in fact that the people of Portland ought to help in every way possible to insure the construction of this road. It will give a direct route by rail for the shipment of Central Oregon produce to the Portland market. In the meantime Harriman is apparently trying to turn the trade of Central Oregon to San Francisco. He is building up from the south, and of course the trade will go with the railroad."

"In order that Oregon may have the full benefit of her own industries, it is necessary that the vast Central Oregon trade should come to Portland instead of going to San Francisco."

Aside from the irrigation enterprises now under way in Central Oregon, there is a large volume of produce now grown in Central Oregon. Last year there was shipped from Shaniko 4,000,000 pounds of wool, to say nothing of wheat and other grain and timber. All this produce had to be hauled by team to Shaniko from points as far as 150 miles in the interior.

Connecting with the O. R. & N. at Biggs, on the Columbia River, the Columbia Southern extends as far south as Shaniko.

From Shaniko to Prineville is 65 miles, and from Shaniko to Bend is about 90 miles. By constructing the Central Oregon road south from Shaniko the rich interior country will be provided with an outlet for its products, and will be given a great impetus in the way of further development.

It is the purpose of the organizers of the new company to push the work to completion with the utmost dispatch.

Portland Journal: Over in Crook county the inhabitants have reached the stage of desperation where people get out with picks, shovels and scrapers and build their own railroad in order to get crops to the markets. This is the
