 Mrs. Robert Moore has been very sick for a week past. She is reported as a little better today.
 James Elkins came in from the Matoles Tuesday. He leaves in a few days for his home in Albany.
 Bob Zevely has returned from a week spent with his wife at the home of her mother, 18 miles up the Ochoco.
 Meyer & Brown, who run two ranches on Upper Crooked river, report a 10 per cent better yield of hay this year than last, with over 200 acres planted. Monday of this week they still had 90 acres to cut. C. R. Henry, whose place is just above them, has the finest crop of timothy hay ever seen in the Paulina neighborhood.

R. Borten was in town the first of the week.
 Hugh Lister and family have moved in from the ranch.
 Aaron Wilson has returned to Paulina with a load of brick.
 Buy your shoes of J. E. Stewart & Co. They give the best values.

 Tent meeting are now being held by Rev. J. J. Paulsell of San Francisco in the lot next to the home of Guy Lafollett, which is one block west of the postoffice in this city. The meetings commenced August 18 and will end September 6. Services are held daily except Saturday at 2:30 and 8 o'clock. Everybody is welcome.
 It is now announced that the union evangelistic meetings, which were arranged for last spring, to be led by Evangelist Haudenschield, will begin Sept. 23. The home of Mr. Haudenschield is in Chicago, but he has spent most of his time in the northwest for the past two years, holding successful meetings at Pendleton, Eugene, Tacoma and many other places. The Baptist, Presbyterian and Methodist Episcopal churches are uniting in the meetings to be held here.
 Each evening, from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock, sees a large and interested audience at the Prineville moving picture theater, where vivid portrayals of up-to-the-minute topics and beautiful illustrated songs help to while away the hot summer season. Judged by the low price of admission, if by nothing else, and the difficulty of getting the pictures here, the exhibition is certainly par excellence, and should be as well patronized in the future as it has been in the past.
 Once again it has been rumored about town that the bones of "Shorty" Davis have been found and are now in the possession of the sheriff. In the absence of Mr. Elkins, Deputy Sheriff Combs was asked as to the truth of the report and denied it in toto. The Davis bones are resurrected and rattled perennially in Prineville and numerous articles have been written anent his mysterious disappearance from what is now Porfily's ranch in 1903. Sheriff Elkins even went so far as to search for Davis' bones last spring, but thus far the bones and the mystery of their sepulcher are safely in the keeping of mother earth.

 Guy Lafollett is at Sisters and vicinity on business.
 Andrew Morrow of Grizzly was a local caller Wednesday.

 J. H. Wigle, Dr. Hudson and families returned today from an outing in the mountains.
 Frank Long returned Wednesday from Portland and will spend the remainder of the summer in Prineville.
 J. M. Montgomery's barn with about 18 tons of hay, two sets of harness and two saddles, burned Monday at his ranch, nine miles below Sisters. No one knows how the fire started. A team of horses were in the barn at the time, but were rescued before the flames reached them.
 The family of Professor J. Alton Thompson of Laidlaw will not come west from Michigan this fall or winter, owing to the illness of Mrs. Thompson's mother back at the old home. Owing to unsettled conditions, it is doubtful if the Thompsons will ever settle on their two forties near Redmond, though Professor Thompson will teach at Laidlaw until next June.
 Freighters are still coming to the Prineville mill from Burns after flour for the drouth afflicted people of Harney county. In all, 100,000 pounds have been ordered here and it is understood that twice this quantity is being imported into Burns through Ontario. The only crops which were a success in Harney county this year, it is reported, are barley and hay, with no surplus of either. Flour is selling for $2.15 a sack at Burns.

Dan Heising was down from Bend Sunday.
 J. A. Holmes was in Saturday from Bear creek.
 Douglas Hood of Madras was in town Saturday on his way home from a trip to Bend.
 Frank and Carey Foster and families returned today from a two weeks' outing on the Matoles.
 Twenty eight rattlesnakes have been killed on the Borten place up Newsom creek this summer. The ranch was always a great place for rattlers, but the reptiles this year seem more prolific than ever.
 Alex Ammond, employed at the Maury mountain sawmill, became wedged between the flywheel and the boiler a few days ago and sustained some severe lacerations and scalds. He is now back at work.
 The Maury sawmill planer broke last week and could not be operated for several days. Inability to prepare the lumber for market delayed work on the new schoolhouse at Paulina four days.
 Thomas Sharp has sold his alfalfa hay to the Baldwin Sheep & Land company of Haycreek for $6.50 per ton. The crop will be fed on the Sharp ranch on Crooked river. It will aggregate about 600 tons.

BUSINESS LOCALS

The La Rosa cigar at 10 cents is not a teaser; it's a good full smoke.
 The place to save money on your Grocery purchases is at J. E. Stewart & Co.'s.
 To burn or not to burn! That is the question with some cigars—but not with the Eagle.
 Half-soling ladies' and children's shoes 50c a pair; men's 75c to $1 at Wilson's Shoe Shop, next door to Journal office.
 Ammunition, Shelf Hardware and Tinware, Wire Netting, Barb Wire and almost everything in the hardware line can be had of J. E. Stewart & Co. at very reasonable price.
 Mr. Kindred, Sr., of Aberdeen, Wash., passed through Prineville Friday on horseback bound for Burns. He has six sons in Washington and is looking for a tract of land where the whole family can buy or homestead adjoining quarter sections. He did not find what he wanted this side of Paulina, which place he left for the east on Sunday.
 T. S. Hamilton of Ashwood passed through Prineville Monday with his family bound home from his sheep camp on March creek. He was fairly well satisfied with sheep conditions this year. He got between 15 and 16 cents for his wool, which is a pretty good price but he does not think there is much room for expansion in the industry on account of the crowded condition of the range.

Some Fine Berries.

Mr. and Mrs. Summers received a shipment of choice berries the other day, marked "Compliments of the Bend Nursery." In the lot was a box of Gregg blackcap raspberries, the result of one day's picking from two 3-year-old plants. These same plants were picked before this season, about four days previous to the picking that was sent over here. L. D. Wiest, the proprietor of the Bend Nursery, says the yield this year from the 3-year-old plants will be two tons to the acre.
 There were generous samples of Cumberland black raspberries, Yellow Golden Queen raspberries and half-ripe Logan berries. The samples represented the pickings from 1½ 3-year old plants. The yield from these berries will be about four tons to the acre with a market value at Bend of about $1600.
 The Journal can testify as to the size and quality of the berries. They cannot be beaten in any man's country. Try them yourself.

Which CREAM SEPARATOR is Cheapest?

Several catalogues houses are offering "just as good" cream separators for sale at a lower price than the U. S. Cream Separator sells for. But before the unfortunate purchaser of one of these "mail order" separators gets through paying the repair bills he finds that first cost isn't the only difference. The "cheap" separators soon get out of fix because they are built of cheap material, and loosely put together. The cost of repairs alone in the first year or two would pay the difference in price between one of them and a U. S. But more important still they do not skim clean, they waste cream at every skimming.

U. S. CREAM SEPARATORS

have stood the test of time. Many of them have been in use for 10 years or more, and have cost their owners next to nothing for repairs. They are easy running, skim cleaner than any others, have a simple, easy-to-wash bowl; enclosed, safety gearing and a convenient, low milk tank. See a U. S. Separator for yourself—that's the best way. They are sold by

The Horton "Spinner" washing machine. One of the latest and best machines on the market. Price is no higher than for old style machines.
