

LOCAL MENTION

Frank Elkins returned on last Thursday from camp at Matoles.

Miss Frieda Lippman came back Monday from an extended sojourn at Portland and other points in the Willamette valley.

Mrs. Estes came in on Wednesday's stage from Portland, where she has been ordering her fall and winter stock of millinery.

J. E. Roberts has gone to Milliken's ranch above Bend, with dogs and guns, to hunt down the cougar which has slain a dozen colts on the place.

Albert Seals was in from his ranch near Lamonta this week and says some good strong men are needed in his locality to mow the weeds for awhile, but the crops are fine notwithstanding.

The absence of Rev. C. A. Housel at conference in Wenatchee, Wash., will not affect the usual hours of service at the Methodist church next Sunday. Rev. J. R. Knodell, assistant secretary of the Antislavery league, will be in Prineville from Portland to officiate and will preach both morning and evening.

R. D. Powell, living five miles up McKay creek, has bought a $950 threshing machine for alfalfa, and will thresh out 100 acres this fall on his own place. Next year he intends to thresh for his neighbors. The alfalfa thresher introduces a new industry into Crook county agriculture, as the alfalfa seed is too fine for the ordinary thresher.

Cards are out for the wedding of Miss Bessie Katherine Luckey, a former Prineville girl who has a number of local relatives, to Mr. Harold Simeon Gilbert. The date is Wednesday evening, September 16, at the First Congregational church, Portland, in which city both of the contracting parties live. Mr. Gilbert is a brother of Alfred C. Gilbert, of Yale, who had the distinction of breaking the world's record for pole vaulting at the recent Olympic games in London. Miss Luckey is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Luckey, and is talented musically. She is a St. Helen's hall graduate but recently returned from Italy, where she studied voice culture at the Conservatory of Bologna. In Portland she studied with Signor Lucchessi.

You never smoked a milder cigar than the La Rosa.

Ray V. Constable is again back of the counters at Adamson's drug store.

Miss Leola Estes won the $1.50 prize offered this week by Clifton & Cornett for the best specimen of homegrown aster displayed in their window. Miss Golda Cleek was awarded the $1 prize for the best collection of asters.

A. K. Marriott, representing the Smith Premier typewriter company at Portland, was in Prineville on business this week. As a result of his visit it is likely that a local typewriter agent will be appointed, the outlook for business in that line here being good.

James A. Norwood of Redmond and Miss Emma Kennedy of Portland were quietly married Saturday evening at the Methodist parsonage in this city by Rev. C. A. Housel. Mr. Norwood is a clerk in the store of Ehret Bros., at Redmond, and the young couple will make their home in that town.

Next Sunday will witness the closing services in the revival tent, which for the last three weeks have been conducted with fair success by Evangelist Paulsell and his energetic assistants. The evangelists are considering either Bend or Paulina as the scene of their next labors for the conversion of souls.

Essanay films are now being shown at the nightly moving picture exhibitions in Prineville. This brand of films is among the best on the market, and have never before been seen locally. They are funny, dramatic, snappy and true to life. The rendition of the illustrated songs has also been improved upon, the accompaniment being by piano instead of phonograph.

W. H. Kilmer, of Seattle, Wash., has purchased the U. S. Cowles sheep ranch east of Madras on the old Hay Creek road, comprising 1,100 acres, and will occupy the place with his family. He will raise blooded cattle and hogs. He expects to take up his residence there in the next two or three weeks. The price paid for the place was in the neighborhood of $10,000. The sale was made through Ora Van Tassel of Madras, and principals to the deal were in this city last week arranging the transfer of the property.

Rev. J. T. Moore, lately pastor of the Baptist church in this city, who since his trip to the southern part of this state has been living with his family on his homestead up the McKay, has received a call to the Baptist pastorate at Fossil and is about decided to accept. As his homestead has two more years to run before he can make final proof without commuting, he will drive back and forth as often as necessary between Prineville and Fossil. He and Mrs. Moore went to Bend Saturday, returning Monday, the minister preaching there morning and evening Sunday.

LOCAL MENTION

Next Monday will be Labor Day. T. M. Baldwin left Wednesday for Portland on business.

Robert Smith and Prince Glaze and families have returned from their camping trip.

Rev. Cook and Mrs. Harriet Smith, Mrs. Cook's mother, were in from Powell Buttes Tuesday.

Miss Annie Roba, George Roba and George Lee and wife, all of Paulina, paid a local visit Sunday.

The new county court, presided over by Judge H. C. Ellis of Bend, is in session for the first time this week.

Miss Elsie Osborn's name was overlooked last week in our list of teachers for the Prineville public schools. She will teach the seventh grade.

Prof. M. B. Hockenberry and family returned Monday evening from LaGrande, where they have been visiting Mrs. Hockenberry's parents.

Luther Moore, eldest son of Rev. J. T. Moore, will leave in a week or ten days for Witcherville, Ark., to study for the Baptist ministry at Buckner college. He will stay away from home four years.

J. R. Terrell, who ten days ago was seriously injured by falling under his horse near O'Neil, is now reported out of danger by Dr. Edwards, his physician, and in about a week will be moved from the Prineville hotel, where he now is, to his ranch near O'Neil. It will be several months, though, ere he will be around again.

In the opinion of Judge Ellis and the other members of the county court, the most important business transacted this week is the provision made for a separate, or private, cell under the sheriff's office in the new court house for occupancy by women or persons insane. It will be provided with fine but strong wire mesh over the window pane to prevent injury to violent inmates, and in the case of women will afford seclusion from the male prisoners. The two modern cells already in position are for male malefactors or persons suspected of a crime awaiting trial or release on bail. Within a month an instance arose when a man and a woman were theoretically under arrest at the same time in adjoining cells separated only by steel bars, but of course the woman was not confined. The persons detained in this way were Ada Pierce and A. B. Estebenet.

Portland Business College

"THE SCHOOL OF QUALITY"

Tenth and Morrison, Portland, Oregon A. P. Armstrong, LL.B., Principal

☐ We occupy two floors 65 by 100 feet, have a $20,000 equipment, employ a large faculty, give individual instruction, receive more calls for office help than we can meet. Our school admittedly leads all others in quality of instruction. It pays to attend such an institution.

☐ Said a Business Man: "Keep hammering away everlastingly on thorough work. It will win out in the end." Said an Educator: "The quality of instruction given in your school makes it the standard of its kind in the Northwest."

☐ Open all the year. Students admitted at any time. Catalogue free. References: Any bank, any newspaper, any business man in Portland.

Judge Bell and family came in from their camp at Matoles Friday.

Mrs. Glaze returned from her visit to Willamette valley points the first of the week.

R. H. Bayley of Laidlaw and James Rice of Hay Creek, county commissioners, arrived here Tuesday for the session of the county court.

Fred Stimson, the popular pharmacist at Winnek's, left yesterday for his home in the Willamette valley.

Dr. Dunsmore and daughter returned from the Howard mines yesterday where they had been visiting the family of James Scott.

B. S. Cole, whose home is in Duluth, Minn., but who has been working for the irrigation company at Bend, left Prineville on Monday's stage to spend a month at Spokane. He said he would return to Crook county in October.

The Harney County News says that Fred Mosier, lately of Paulina, is at Burns receiving treatment for a badly lacerated thumb, which became entangled in a rope on the Lost creek ranch of W. W. Brown.

Harry Gee, who for more than 5 years has lived on a homestead near Howard, left this week with his family for The Dalles, where he will farm seven miles out from that city on a rented place. Mr. Gee will retain his Ochoco property, the change being made mainly for the benefit of his children, who seek advanced educational facilities.

Bids are being submitted to the board of directors for the building of a new school house in the Lower McKay district, about four miles northeast of this city. Until the new school is finished this fall, the old building will be used, although inadequate for present needs. Miss Nora Mitchell, the teacher, will have 22 or more children, ranging from the first to the eighth grades, in her charge this season.

S. O. Johnson, of San Francisco, who is heavily interested in timber above Bend, and chauffeur, J. W. Dana, of Berkeley, Cal., passed out of Crook county Sunday by way of Bend, Powell Buttes and Prineville, following the stage road to Shaniko. They were accompanied from Bend by J. E. Ryan of that place and John Bloss of Sisters. Mr. Ryan spent a day or two at the county seat, but Mr. Bloss took the stage Monday morning for Burns, where he goes on business.

GRAND BALL SATURDAY EVE.

The first grand ball of the season will be given next Saturday evening in the Club Hall by Morgan's orchestra from 8 to 12 o'clock and the occasion promises to be largely attended. This will be the first public appearance of Prineville's new six-piece orchestra, and those who have heard the rehearsals say that the best music ever furnished for dancing in Prineville will be heard Saturday evening. Dance tickets will cost $1.00. Gentlemen spectators, 25c; ladies free. Everybody invited. Among the musical selections which will be rendered for this dance are the following:

Two Steps—Under Storm, Aren't You the Girl I Met at Sherry's, Down the Field, Onawa, Peaceful Henry, Old Faithful, Bunch O' Blackberries, Golden Rod, Creole Queen, Reed Bird, Red Wing, When the Band Plays Yankee Doodle.

Waltzes—Dreaming, School Days, Won't You Come Over to My House, The Girl Who Threw Me Down, In Dear Old Colorado, Daughter of Love, Lazarre, Janice Meredith, Schottisches—Cuddle Up a Little Closer, The Tenderfoot, Three-Step—Moon Winks, Quadrilles.

Presbyterian Services Resumed.

Next Sunday morning the regular services will be resumed at the Presbyterian church, the pastor preaching both morning and evening. The public cordially invited to all the services.

Sunday school at 10 a. m. and morning worship at 11. Evening service at 7:30.

An Eye Opener.

Smokers find the Eagle cigar an eye opener as to quality. Try one and see why.
