

CATTLEMAN GETS GOOD PRICES

C. M. Lister Is First Local Man to Favor New System of Marketing

C. M. Lister of the Ochoco valley is the first cattleman in Crook county to go on record in favor of the new plan by which the Union stock yards at Portland buys and pays for cattle; in other words, the elimination of the buyer from the field and shipments direct to the stock yards at current market prices. He says the new plan is more profitable to the stockman and more satisfactory to the yards. Having some eighteen carloads of beef cattle to market this fall, Mr. Lister shipped three carloads under the new plan as a test, accompanied his cattle in person to Portland and having now received the returns on this initial lot he is so well pleased that he will forthwith ship the remaining fifteen carloads in the same way, without awaiting the appearance of a buyer. He says he received about $5 a head more for his cattle this way than formerly under the old plan. The elimination of buyers by the stock yards eliminates also much of the expense, giving stockmen the advantage of this difference so long as the packers do not combine to their detriment.

Fast Time By Auto.

Max Wurzweiler, who has been thinking of buying an automobile for some time, with Deputy Sheriff John Combs of this city, was treated to an exhibition of speed in a large Cadillac car this week which not only smashed some standing records but likewise convinced him that an automobile is a very desirable kind of locomotion to possess. It is not understood that Mr. Wurzweiler has ordered a car yet, but an addition to the array of local mobiles may reasonably be assumed in prospect.

The Cadillac in question was brought in here by the owner, C. F. Gilbert, of Hood River, and S. S. Baldwin, of Portland. The trial trip in which Messrs. Wurzweiler and Combs participated was made over the kite-shaped track; that is, from Prineville to Bend, and back to Prineville by way of Redmond, a distance of 80 miles. The time was just 4 1/2 hours, or 270 minutes over country roads, some of them rough, others good, yet others very dusty. The leg to Bend by way of Powell Buttes was covered in 2 1/2 hours, Bend to Redmond in one hour, and Redmond to Prineville in 1 1/2 hours.

John Combs said afterward that they "were going some."

Spaulding--Vanderpool.

Bright and early this morning, at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. Elmer E. Spaulding and Miss Addie L. Vanderpool, both of this city, were united in marriage by Dr. Dunsmore, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. The bridal party left by auto immediately after the ceremony for Portland, where they will reside for awhile.

A month ago, when Dr. Spaulding withdrew from the dental firm of Davis & Spaulding, leaving Dr. Davis in sole charge, it became known that Dr. Spaulding was to go to Portland to take a post-graduate course in his profession. That he should take a wife with him was a very logical thing to do, and he and his charming bride carry with them best wishes from many local friends.

Mrs. Spaulding, nee Vanderpool, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Med Van Lerpool, and has a number of local relatives. She is a very talented girl and has always been a general favorite. For some time she was employed on the staff of the Prineville Review.

John Elliott, living six miles below Prineville on Crooked river, threshed only 2,000 bushels of grain from about 160 acres this year as compared with 3,600 bushels from the same acreage last season. Rye was the single crop that yielded a good average, the grain mentioned being rye, wheat, barley and oats.

J. Frank Stroud, formerly in business at Bend and Prineville, is visiting with his father, J. Stroud, at Lamonta. Mr. Stroud is now the representative of the Beaver real estate company, with offices at Beaverton, dealers in farm and timber lands in the valley. While here he paid calls on old friends, in both Prineville and Bend.

F. M. Post, J. H. Gray and Reuben Booten passed through Prineville today from Post with a bunch of about 120 beef cattle for the Portland market. Messrs. Booten and Gray go through to Portland, but Mr. Post will return to Post, where his father, Postmaster Wallace Post, is rounding up his own cattle for another Post shipment, in which Messrs. Gray and Booten will join, making a shipment of 500 head in all.

The dance given by Morgan's Orchestra Saturday evening was well attended. The music was the best ever heard here. Another dance will be given within the next few weeks.

Some miscreant at 1 o'clock on Thursday night [Sept. 10] opened fire at the Methodist church in this city and shot holes in the costly stained glass windows, completely shattering them. A number of people in the neighborhood were awakened by the fusillade. The authorities are looking for the offender.

F. C. Logan of Crook came in by wagon Tuesday, bringing with him a party of middle west relatives who have been visiting on the Logan ranch and looking over the Oregon country this summer. The guests, who were on the way out, were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Miner and daughter, Miss Ella Miner, of Bussey, Iowa, and J. T. Fisher, wife and family, of Pleasantville, Iowa, all of whom are relatives of Mrs. S. A. Logan.

Clarence Jackson's smile is seen in town again. He came in last evening from his work at Powell Buttes.

J. Ward Harader will soon remove to Clifton Falls, where he has been engaged to teach the school.

Browns all left some time ago for their home in Washington. We want to be sure and have the item in before they get back. E. C. PARK.
