DIRECT TO YOU

from the best known, strictly wholesale house in the Northwest. Established in Portland in 1864. 4 quarts GENUINE CYRUS NOBLE $4.90. A pure—old—honest—whiskey bottled by the distillers. Guaranteed to the United States Government, and to contain nothing excepting pure straight whiskey. Many of the railroads use Cyrus Noble almost exclusively. So do the big steamship companies. So does nearly every big metropolitan hotel. Because it's pure. Because it's aged in wood. Because it has that soft, delicate, palatable flavor of the ripened grain, often mentioned but rarely found.

Redmond News.

REDMOND, Or., Sept. 13.—John Johnson has had snakes again. He killed them this time without any harm being done to anyone. Rattles they were. One of them he killed seven feet in the air on a load of hay. They are the first ones reported this year.

H. M. Smith will build for J. E. Lamb.

C. W. Ehret and F. A. Kennard have our sympathy; their wives are either away visiting or helping the neighbors.

John Trieler expects to come from Iowa again this fall when Mrs. Park returns.

Evelyn Atkinson was quite sick Thursday night and Friday, even going into convulsions. Drs. Coe and Belknap were both summoned. Too many green peas was the cause. Yesterday she seemed all right again.

When Mr. Landes got home last Sunday after the rain, he found his dog lying dead beside the house. The first thought was of poison but taken in connection with several splinters knocked from the house he was forced to the conclusion that the house had been struck by lightning and the dog killed in that way.

After quite a short stay with us, during which she made many firm friends, Miss Olive Smith left for Colfax, Wash., this week to work for a grain company; either office work, bookkeeping or stenography. We regret that her vacation was so short but are pleased to say that she leaves much improved in her health. Word received from her at Shaniko states that she stood so much of the trip in fine shape.

H. M. Smith and family will be out on their place several days this week doing some clearing.
