

LOCAL MENTION

Clair E. Smith is a new clerk at W. F. King's.
 Dick Rhode of Crook was a county seat visitor Sunday.
 George Roba of Paulina was a Sunday visitor in Prineville.
 Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Christian, October 19, a son.
 Phillip Graham and wife of Hay-crook were in the city Saturday.
 Mrs. Marion Morgan of Paulina visited in this city over Sunday.
 M. J. Morrison and R. J. McCann were down Sunday from Bend.
 E. W. Crosswhite of Haycreek was a business caller in town Saturday.
 W. W. Brown of Heald and J. H. Sherman of The Dalles spent Sunday together in this city.
 As a result of the local item advertising a lost purse, which appeared in last Thursday's Journal, the lost article was restored to its owner, little Miss Caroline Tharson of this city.
 W. A. Collier, a Coos bay dairyman whose home is at Marshfield, and who is a brother of O. G. Collier of Culver, arrived in this city with the latter Monday to see this part of Crook county and attend court.

Mrs. L. O. Coates, Miss Lena Miller and Miss Ina Redfield, all of Albany and Mrs. Alton B. Coates, of The Dalles, visited in Prineville during fair week with Mrs. Frank S. Hoffman, who is a sister of Mrs. Coates.
 Dr. H. Charles Dunsmore has rented a front room in the home of Mrs. Morse, where he has set up his library and will use the room as his study. His home, however, will continue to be at the Prineville hotel, where he has lived ever since his arrival here more than one year ago.

John Debus, who came west last spring and who since then has been bookkeeper at C. W. Elkins' store, left this week for his home in Chicago to remain. He likes Oregon well enough, but loves his home better, this being the first time he has ever been away from his own folks.
 Regular quarterly Communion at First Presbyterian church Sunday morning, October 25, at 11 o'clock, when the right hand of fellowship will be extended to new members uniting with the church and the ordinance of baptism and sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered. At 7:30, Dr. Dunsmore will speak on "Half Baked People."

J. A. Douthitt, until recently editor of The Dalles Times-Mountaineer and founder of the Prineville Review, who has many relatives and friends in this county, has returned to his daily pursuits after a very critical illness during which he underwent an exceptionally severe surgical operation at his home in The Dalles. He is again able to sit at table and apparently restored to health.

At the Methodist Church for Sunday, October 25, the Sunday School will begin at 10 o'clock. The subject for the preaching service at 11 a. m. will be, "The Rest which Christ Has to Give." The Epworth League will hold its devotion service at 6:30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to the young people to attend this meeting. Preaching at 7:30; subject, "The All-Seeing Eye of God." At the close of the morning service the new members will be received into the church. J. D. Lewellen, pastor.

Miss Jessie Bennett was in from Post Sunday.
 G. C. Price came in from Crook the first of this week.
 W. A. Stevens was here Saturday from O'Neil.
 The family of J. E. Wilson has returned here from Madras.
 J. C. Rush and W. S. Rice of Lamona are registered at the Prineville.
 A band of 2100 sheep, the property of Al Jones, passed through Prineville Wednesday afternoon en route from the summer range at Davis lake to Mr. Jones' place west of this city.
 Grand Master Ed Hostetler will be in Prineville Saturday night to meet with the Odd Fellows of Ochoco lodge, and a general invitation to attend has been sent to all I. O. O. F. members. One or two candidates will be initiated.

Three declarations of intention to become citizens of the United States were made this week at the court house, by Joshua Morgan, 24 years old, a native of Wales; David James, 23 years old, also of Wales; and Tom Cameron, 25 years old, a native of Scotland.
 Joe Howard, who a number of years ago forsook Crook county to live in San Francisco, where he invested heavily in property, is back again determined to end his days in peace and prosperity right here where he got his start in life in the cattle business on the Ochoco. Mr. Howard lost almost everything 2½ years ago in the earthquake and fire at San Francisco.

Wills Earl Barnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnes of this city, and eldest of nine children, died October 11 at the sanitarium in Chicago, Ill., where he had been undergoing treatment for spinal trouble since January, 1906. The remains were interred at Chicago. Earl Barnes, as he was known, was born in this city January 30, 1881. He was first taken ill seven years ago.
 Henry Cadle returned last week from a trip to the Willamette valley, where he had been to take Miss Ruby to school. In his travels Mr. Cadle saw much of other places but nowhere did he see a place that he liked better than Crook county, when everything is considered. While some localities offered a great many more advantages yet when it came to a question of making money this country could beat them all.

At the Methodist Church for Sunday, October 25, the Sunday School will begin at 10 o'clock. The subject for the preaching service at 11 a. m. will be, "The Rest which Christ Has to Give." The Epworth League will hold its devotion service at 6:30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to the young people to attend this meeting. Preaching at 7:30; subject, "The All-Seeing Eye of God." At the close of the morning service the new members will be received into the church. J. D. Lewellen, pastor.

J. H. Zevely, whose fame as a dairyman has spread over Oregon by virtue of the excellent butter, etc., made at his Ochoco ranch, returned a week ago from a month's visit in Baker City and vicinity with relatives, being accompanied both ways on the trip by Mrs. Zevely. The next day after Mr. Zevely returned he was served with a venue man's subpoena and is now in this city serving upon the trial jury. Mr. and Mrs. Zevely, who are old subscribers to the Journal, brought back with them the latter's mother, Mrs. Boyles, whose husband died recently at their home in Medical Springs, Union county. Mrs. Boyles will make Crook county her home from now on.

LOCAL MENTION

H. F. Jones is here from Redmond.
 M. Triplett of Bend came over Sunday.
 J. A. Moon of Redmond was a Sunday visitor.
 C. D. Brown of Bend is in the city on business.
 G. W. Davies of Redmond is attending court.
 Jim Elkins of Albany is visiting relatives in town.
 J. H. Horney is here from Madras for the district court.
 J. W. Robinson and D. Hood of Madras are here attending court.

Ely Robey and family of Browns-ville, Or., have moved to Culver.
 J. H. Window of Culver will leave Saturday for Corvallis to remain in that city for the winter with his family.
 J. H. Delore is building a neat two-story home in town. It will have six rooms and when completed will cost about $1400.
 W. R. Childers of Mitchell has bought the McElroy blacksmith shop at Madras and will in the future make that town his home.

Lowe's Madison Square Theatre Company which showed here last week to crowded houses, left Monday for a tour of Crook county, during which they will show at Bend, Redmond and Madras.
 The regular evenings for skating at the club are Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Wednesdays from 4 to 6 p. m. and Saturdays from 1 to 4 will be given up to the ladies of the Annex and to the children of members of the club.
 Mrs. Jesse Yancey lost a purse containing a small sum of money the other day. It was dropped somewhere between Adamson's drug store and the home of Steve Yancey. The finder can leave same at this office or return to Mrs. Yancey.

L. S. Thomas, who has a dry ranch near Clute Buttes, brought to Prineville recently some specimens of potatoes which he raised this year on his homestead without irrigation. These potatoes show what the desert can do toward raising profitable root crops.
 M. C. Awbrey, the first settler on the Deschutes, was a caller at the Journal office Wednesday. Mr. Awbrey is a remarkable man in his way; old in years though not in mind or body. His home is near Laidlaw. A large waterfall in the Deschutes bears his name—Awbrey Falls.

Alma T. Morris had a fine exhibit of dry land potatoes that were brought in too late to be entered at the fair. They were of the White Victor variety and were grown at his place on Combs' Flat. The spuds were smooth and well matured and show conclusively what can be done with vegetables on that high ground.

LOCAL MENTION

E. P. Buchanan of Sisters is a county seat visitor.
 Miss Elva J. Smith, fourth-grade teacher, has returned from a short visit to her home at Madras.
 Herman Poch, whose place lies 3 miles above Prineville on the Ochoco, reports the discovery of coal near his ranch. Specimens which he brought into town showed the find to be a good grade of fuel, adapted either to heating or steam purposes.
 Here is a chance to work up a little interest in the election: A reader of the Journal, who withholds his name, but who is good for the amounts named, offers to wager $50 that Taft will carry New York, $50 that Taft will carry Oregon by 10,000 and $100 that Taft will be elected.

Taylor-Dillon Wedding.

Miss Aleatha Zilphia Dillon, daughter of Mrs. Lenora Dillon, and George Beranda Taylor, both of this city, were married at the home of the bride's mother Sunday evening by Dr. H. C. Dunsmore, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends. A wedding supper followed.
 The couple stood beneath a fine wedding bell during the ceremony, immediately afterward receiving congratulations there. The bride, who was unattended, wore a gown of white silk and carried white moss roses. Mrs. Frankie Lehrman played the wedding march.
 Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left Prineville Tuesday noon for the home of the bridegroom's mother on Bear creek, where they will abide until such time as they can build for themselves on an adjoining ranch.

Present at the wedding were: Mrs. Lenora Dillon, Vera and John Cyrus, J. C. Breeding and wife, B. F. Wilhoit and wife, Mrs. Frankie Lehrman, Miss Alta Dillon, Miss Lavell Dillon, Orval Dillon, A. S. Ireland and wife, Mrs. Minnie E. Wilson, Eugene Long and wife, R. G. Smith and wife, Mrs. Young, Emerin Young, E. H. Smith and wife, Mrs. Will Wurzweiler, Peter Lehrman, W. H. Young, Miss Leslie Potter, Miss Edna Long, Rose and Christina Gibson, Miss Wilda Nye, Miss Merle Ireland, Elva and Vera Wilhoit, Isabel and May Ireland, Miss Henrietta Ireland, Doris Ireland, W. Frank Petet, William Marks, Alf Ellefson, Dick Long, Widd Barnes, Harry Hamilton, Frank Long.

Small Boy With Gun.

Arthur Houston, son of Charles Houston, while visiting recently at the J. T. Moore ranch north of town, took down a .38 caliber revolver hanging from the wall in a holster and proceeded, boylike, to examine it. Several chambers were loaded, but the boy evidently did not know this. Members of the family were in the next room, separated from the boy with the revolver by only two inches of rough pine boarding.
 Suddenly the gun went off, the heavy bullet plunging its way through two walls, within a few feet of where the other children were standing, and buried itself in the ceiling. The Houston boy was too abashed to say anything, and so remained silent. Mrs. Moore, who was in the next room, not hearing him speak or move, thought he had shot himself and ran to his side, only to find Arthur gazing abstractedly at the still smoking revolver.

The Monmouth Herald, published at the seat of the State Normal by W. T. Fogle, is a very creditable little five-column paper. It is valuable to its readers for its local news, normal school notes, Polk county correspondence and departments. Its short editorials are well written. Mr. Fogle, a number of years ago, was editor of this paper.

Will Change Location.

The Prineville Steam Laundry will move from the old Prineville Hotel building to the building in the rear of McCallister's store, where I will be ready to take care of business as usual.
