The five-year-old daughter of John W. Hanley is convalescing from a siege of sickness.
Farmer Powell, who came home recently for a short visit, returned this week for Portland.
W. M. Keene and wife and Mrs. A. L. Wilson and son, all of Burns, visited in this city during the week.
Attention is called to the Crook county fair and livestock exposition list which appears in another column of this issue.
Mrs. Naomi Salomon left Tuesday for her home at Salem, after a month's stay in Prineville closing up her husband's estate.
Miss Florence A. Baldwin of Portland and Miss Mary E. Kerehaw of Columbus, Ohio, registered at the Hotel Prineville Sunday.
William Adams of Combs Flat brought 2,500 head of sheep through Prineville during the week from the summer to the winter range.
L. P. Rounds, Modern Woodman deputy, who has been in Prineville for the past month, left on Monday's stage for Kent, Or. and his home at Walla Walla, Wash.
Judge Bradshaw and the outside attorneys who were present for the fall term of district court last week departed for their homes on Saturday's stage.
One of Bob Zevely's twins, the little girl who captured first prize at the Crook county baby show, was nigh unto death Sunday with a sudden illness, but is now on the mend.
At the Methodist church, Sunday, November 1, the subject is: "The Christian Faith; What It Is and How Appropriated." Epworth League will hold its devotional meeting at 6:30 p. m. A cordial reception is given to strangers. The preaching service in the evening begins at 7:30; subject, "The Cross of Christ." Good music at all the services. J. D. Lewellen, pastor.

Mrs. P. Miller is seriously ill at her home up the Ochoco.
C. W. Elkins and wife spent Wednesday at Bend on business.
J. E. Roberts of near Paulina was a caller at the Journal office Wednesday.
John W. Morris is still confined to his house, though strong hope is held out for his recovery.
Miss Bertha Hegardt starts this week in sending in items from Powell Buttes. Give her the news.

The Prineville Workers will meet at the home of Mrs. Edie Calbreath on the afternoon of November 4. All members are urged to be present.
Have you tried the new "Tantalum" lamps? They are dandies. A 16-candle power gives light equivalent to the ordinary 24. Ask the electric light company about them.
Work has commenced on the library room at the P. A. A. C. A good selection of books has been made. The club is indebted to the ladies of the Annex for this valuable adjunct to the attractions of the club.
Grand Master Ed Hostetter, banker and postmaster at The Dalles, was in Prineville Saturday night to meet with Ochoco lodge of Odd Fellows. The initiatory degree was conferred on one candidate. Mr. Hostetter, who never visited this city before, was well pleased with Prineville and Crook county. He also visited the lodges at Laidlaw and Madras, returning home via Mitchell and Condon.
A few days ago there appeared in papers here and elsewhere an account of the exhumation of one or more human bones from a lonely grave in the Bear mountains, south from Bear creek. Mr. and Mrs. Millican of this city making the find. The article was read by J. S. Hoskins, of Freewater, Umatilla county, Oregon, who forthwith wrote to Mrs. Millican saying the remains were those of a child, one of his relatives. Mrs. Millican answered the letter, and it is quite probable that Mr. Hoskins will make a journey to the grave to recover its contents.

LOCAL MENTION

Next Tuesday is Annex meeting day at the club.
Miss Nellie Summers is setting type at the Journal office.
Joe Street of Paulina was in the city the first of this week laying in his winter supplies.
P. B. Howard has gone to Madras, where he has accepted a position in the Robinson store.
Voters to the number of 1,827 are registered here for the presidential election of November 3, as compared with 1,788 electors registered for the elections last spring in Crook county.
Judge Bell says that it is all a mistake about his intention to leave Prineville. While he sold his residence property all right to J. H. Gray, yet he will be found doing business at the old stand.
Fire in the chimney of the house occupied by Prof. M. B. Hockenberry and family at 9 o'clock last Sunday night caused a general alarm over the city, but the flames had been extinguished by the time the fire department arrived on the scene. The damage was trifling.
T. H. Lafollett sold 340 tons of alfalfa hay to J. N. Williamson this week for $6 a ton, with the privilege of using sheep barns for feeding. This comprised the bulk of the crop raised on Mr. Lafollett's Ochoco place this season. The remainder of about 100 tons is stored in hay barns for use in feeding the stock on his ranch this winter.
Miss Brink, who taught the fourth grade in the Prineville school four years ago, has been re-employed for about a fortnight—the period being indeterminate—to take charge of Principal Ashby's eighth grade class while he familiarizes himself with the work each teacher is doing in every one of the eight grades; then Mr. Ashby will resume teaching the eighth grade.
Joe Delore was tossed from his buggy several days ago between the Crooked river road and the river. He escaped unhurt except for sundry scratches. When his team started to run the horses bolted direct for the river, where the bank is 20 feet high, with rocks below. When less than 10 feet from the edge the horses swerved back from the bank, the sharp turn upsetting the rig and depositing Delore on terra firma. The harness was torn and one shaft smashed.

Mrs. P. Miller is seriously ill at her home up the Ochoco.
C. W. Elkins and wife spent Wednesday at Bend on business.

Portland Business College
"THE SCHOOL OF QUALITY"
Tenth and Morrison, Portland, Oregon A. P. Armstrong, LL.B., Principal
We occupy two floors 65 by 100 feet, have a $20,000 equipment, employ a large faculty, give individual instruction, receive more calls for office help than we can meet. Our school admittedly leads all others in quality of instruction. It pays to attend such an institution.
"Said a Business Man: "Keep hammering away everlastingly on thorough work. It will win out in the end." Said an Educator: "The quality of instruction given in your school makes it the standard of its kind in the Northwest."
Open all the year. Students admitted at any time. Catalogue free. References: Any bank, any newspaper, any business man in Portland.

Sisters Sayings.

SISTERS, Or., Oct. 28.—Sawmill whistles, the 'cling' of saw and of hammer, load after load of lumber passing through the streets, and recent transfers of valuable ranches, all this would seem to indicate a real boom in Sisters.
Mr. Person, a pioneer resident of Black butte, while out rounding up his horses near Cold springs, saw four black bear scramble up a tree. He was gunless; his daughter, being with her father, ran home for a gun; result: three bear dead, another bear-lic escaped.
Sisters is sorry to give up its townsman and neighbor, Joe Claypool, who recently sold his ranch and goes to live with his son some distance from town.
Sister's enterprising school directors have let the contract to build an addition to the excellent school building here.
—D. A. BOWMAN.

Death of Mrs. Tillman.
Mrs. Ida Tillman, who came to Prineville from Washington state sometime ago with her husband, and who since then lived awhile at the Colby and Cram ranch, died suddenly Friday while on the road to this city in a wagon. The trip was continued and the remains cared for at A. H. Lippman & Co.'s morgue.
Interment was made Sunday, the Knights of Pythias, of which Mr. Tillman is a member, turning out in a body.
Mrs. Tillman had been sick with an incurable disease for quite a length of time, the only unusual circumstance anent her death being its suddenness.

Powell Buttes News.

POWELL BUTTES, Or., Oct. 27.—Moses Niswonger is building a 16x24 addition to the east side of his house. Charles Niswonger is doing the work. Who says Powell Buttes isn't booming!
Will Osborne, who is now running the station, went to Prineville Saturday, returning today on the stage.
A crowd of young people scaled one of the buttes Sunday, partaking of a hearty luncheon at the top. Lucile Cooke, Gladys Bayn, Lillian Niswonger, Bertha Hegardt, Charles Shattuck, Ross Basset, Ora Foster, Harold and Paul Cooke made up the jolly crowd.
The well now being drilled on the townsite of Butte is 900 feet deep. They have water, but are not satisfied and will go deeper.
Moses Niswonger expects to resume charge of the station the first of next week.
Sunday school at the Shepherd school house at 3 o'clock every Sunday afternoon. All invited.
Jim Green, who has been working in Prineville, returned this evening.
A daughter was born October 12 to Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sears at Powell Buttes.
Mrs. S. A. Wilcox, of Hillsdale, Mich., is spending the winter at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Guy Sears.
Will Change Location.
The Prineville Steam Laundry will move from the old Prineville Hotel building to the building in the rear of McCallister's store, where I will be ready to take care of business as usual.
