Death of Mrs. Price.

Mrs. America Price, wife of Nimrod Price, a prominent Linn county pioneer and mother of Strauder Price and Bruce Price of Prineville, died at her home near Albany Friday, October 30, at the ripe old age of 81 years. She was an Oregon pioneer of 1851 and had lived continuously in Linn county for 56 years. She was a sister of Strauder Froman, a leading Linn county man, who died at his home in Albany only the day before, October 29. Mrs. Price had been seriously ill for some time, but their deaths so near together was a mere coincidence and not occasioned by a shock, as neither knew of the serious illness of the other.

Mrs. Price was a native of Illinois and was married in that state to Nimrod Price October 22, 1846. With her husband she crossed the plains in 1851, and arrived in Marion county that fall. The following year they located in Linn county.

She is survived by seven children: Curtis Price of Tolo, Or.; Strauder Price of Prineville; Mrs. Clara Wolverton, wife of Federal Judge C. E. Wolverton of Portland; Bruce Price of Prineville; Mrs. Charles C. LaFollette and Mrs. Horace Powell of San Leandro, Cal., and Clark Price who resides on the old home farm near Albany.

Owing to the distance and the late receipt of the tidings of their mother's death, her children in this city could not attend the funeral. Judge and Mrs. Wolverton of Portland, however, being within access of Albany, left immediately for the Price homestead and were present at the double funeral of Mrs. America Price and Strauder Froman.

HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETICS.

Athletics at the Crook County High School are interesting most of the students. Attendance is good in all departments.

A tennis court has been laid out in front of the school edifice and many of the pupils are getting on to the game of "love all" with a skill that is surprising.

Basket ball, too, has its enthusiasts, and clubs for girls will be organized.

A running track is being put in condition, and many of the boys are drilling in running and jumping. Some Olympic champions may be seen there in embryo any day. If the boys get in shape to have anything like a fighting chance at the athletic contests to be held at Walla Walla, Pendleton and other places the school will send them to show what Crook county can do. So boys, do your best.

Redmond News.

REDMOND, Nov. 1.—Having had such a good substitute as a news gatherer for one week, we did not know but he or she would keep at it, hence no letter last week from the chicken totem pole ranch. Another reason was, we were getting ready to go for lumber at the time these letters are usually written.

Friends of Mrs. Carl Ehret and Mr. Norwood, especially those who had the pleasure of making the acquaintance of their father, who was here something over a year ago, will be pained to hear of his death, which occurred early the past week. His children left here Sunday night for the home at McMinnville, but did not reach there in time to see their father alive. They will probably be back in Redmond in a day or two.

There are no houses for rent in Redmond and we think some one might do well by putting up a few cottages for that purpose. Transients have been compelled to hunt up an empty farm house, of which there are a few, or provide themselves with a tent when they could not afford to run a hotel bill for a whole family.

Mr. Evans is a late comer from Michigan who has purchased land just west of town and already has a house up and has sent for his family.

Mr. Getchell and family are now living on their forty east of the Browns.

Mr. Doney and family are new settlers. He has bought the Allen forty north of town. We understand that Mr. Allen will go to the Flathead valley in Montana.

The Grizzly Lake Lumber Company has reason to know that there is something doing in the vicinity of Redmond. Until two weeks ago almost no lumber has been hauled here. Now J. E. Lamb has hauled seven or eight loads for his building. Mr. Trisler has already had five and will have more. Mr. Brown has had we don't know how many and will probably have as much more. Mr. Worley has hauled for himself, and Mr. Oakes and Mr. Meyers will later haul for themselves or have some hauled. Surely the world do move.

Travel to Redmond and also on through has been heavy all summer and fall, both freighting and emigrant. Saturday the writer was one of seven men with 29 horses, who camped for dinner beside Lateral D, bound for Redmond and vicinity, including Cline Falls, Bend and Silver Lake. Besides these, others came by Trail Crossing and yet others reached Redmond in time for dinner. Not every day is like this, of course, but it shows the trend.

The Ladies' Aid Society had a very pleasant meeting with Mrs. G. A. M. Lilly at Cline Falls on Thursday. Rev. and Mr. Lilly had a sumptuous dinner prepared and in addition there was what the women took with them. One of the enjoyable features of the day was the hayrack ride over and back, for which Messrs. Kendall and Chapman will receive due credit. Next meeting in two weeks with Mrs. Meyers.

We are glad to see by Journal letters that things are happening at Culver, Cline Falls, Powell Buttes, Lamonta, Sisters, Ashwood and Rosland; also that someone besides Three Fingers Pete or Vox Populi is responsible for the reporting. If they only will keep it up, we venture the assertion that the Journal will soon have to permanently increase its size.

Word received from Mrs. Landis states that her father was slightly improved when she arrived though still speechless with paralysis, with but little hope of recovery.

H. M. Smith is running a saw at the Grizzly Lake mill.

Mrs. Trichler has returned to her old home in Ohio. E. C. PARK.

Spray of the Falls.

CLINE FALLS, Nov. 4.—Quite a few people of the falls are having a siege of the grip.

We are glad to hear the good news of the Harriman railway up the Dechutes.

The Ladies Aid of Redmond met with Mrs. Lilly of the Falls last Thursday.

Marion Files and wife of Redmond passed through Cline Falls Thursday en route to Sisters.

The little dinner party at Ward Harader's place was a feature of the times. Mr. and Mrs. Cochran and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Harader attended.

We are looking for a number of newcomers around Cline Falls at an early date.
