

LOCAL MENTION

Ed Katcher of Haycreek was in town the end of the week. Superstitious persons should watch out tomorrow, for it's Friday, the Thirteenth.

Henry Faulkner and Edith McCullister were married near Paulina last week.

The county S. S. convention meets in Prineville Friday, Saturday and Sunday, November 13, 14 and 15.

J. L. McCulloch and grandson, Raymond Smith, left the end of the week for Portland to join Mrs. McCulloch.

The firm of Craver & Penor have taken charge of the Acme restaurant, opposite the local postoffice, and will conduct the business in future.

William Farrell of the Madras country was in town during the week on business connected with school district No. 68, which is one of the new districts in this county.

Louis H. Arnsmeier, teacher of the Sixth grade in the local school, has returned from Madras, where he went recently to make proof on his homestead southwest of that place.

There will be a big turkey shoot on the ridge north of town Sunday, with John Luckey in charge. Marksmen who enter will shoot at blue rocks, and those scoring the highest will receive the turkey.

Madras Pioneer: Prof. Ashby, principal of the Prineville public school, was visiting in Madras Saturday. The professor is already an enthusiastic admirer of Oregon's climate, and says there is a pleasing tract of country between Madras and Prineville.

S. D. Able fractured both bones of the right forearm in a peculiar way early this week. He was holding the bridle of a horse, when the animal turned its head suddenly, striking Able's forearm so forcibly with its nose that the bones were broken. Dr. Rosenberg reduced the fracture.

The ladies of the Annex are rehearsing a four-act drama entitled "Valley Farm." Twelve characters are required for this very interesting piece, and with the excellent local talent that Prineville possesses it goes without saying the production will be an immense success in every way. "Valley Farm" will be given at the club hall in three or four weeks, shortly after Thanksgiving.

The Young Men's Bible class of the M. E. church will give a social at the home of Collins W. Elkins Friday evening, Nov. 20. The proceeds will be used to help furnish the church. The following program has been arranged: Music, orchestra; solo, C. W. Elkins; reading, Prof. Ashby; solo, Randolph Ketchum; pantomime, L. Hardman; music, orchestra. Admission 15 cents, children 10 cents. Refreshments will be served from booths.

Millard Triplett was over from Bend this week.

Harry Webb of this city was in Madras election day and voted there. Commissioner James Rice returned home on Wednesday's stage to Haycreek.

Thanksgiving two weeks from today; Christmas six weeks from tomorrow.

The two youngest children of Walter O'Neil are ill with mild cases of typhoid fever.

J. H. Reams, who has been sick with typhoid fever, is out of the house again, though still convalescent.

Mrs. Lou Hodges and family are now comfortably installed in their new home at the west end of Fourth street.

M. S. Mayfield passed through town Monday evening with a bunch of 100 head of cattle which he brought from his ranch to feed below the city.

County Commissioner R. H. Bayley has returned to his home west of Laddlaw, after being in this city for nearly a week in attendance at county court.

Morgan's orchestra will give another of their delightful dances at the club hall Friday evening, November 13. Tomorrow night, Friday, the Thirteenth.

Lovers of the festive roller skates will be in their glory in this city tonight, when a mask carnival will be given at the Polndexter rink. Tonight, November 12.

Judge H. C. Ellis is back in Bend after a stay in the county seat of nearly ten days at the November term of the county court. He cast his vote for Taft here election day.

Harriman surveyors, for the first time are giving Prineville the "go-by." Surveys heretofore have always been run through Lamonta gap, near this city, but now they are being run west of Trail Crossing instead.

Walter Foster, a brother of Frank and Carey Foster, was married on the 4th of November at Albany to Miss Bertha Holzman, who has visited in Prineville. The happy couple are now at Los Angeles enjoying their honeymoon.

County Clerk Brown expects to be away from his office next week. Hence all land matters coming before him will have to be deferred until his return. His deputy can attend to all other matters but the law says that the county clerk himself must attend to land matters. This announcement is made so that those having land business may govern themselves accordingly.

The regular services for divine worship will be held at the Presbyterian church next Sunday, morning and evening. It is probable that the pulpit will be occupied, in the morning, by Rev. C. A. Phillips, state superintendent of Sunday school work, who will be in the city conducting the county convention. Dr. Dunsmore will probably preach in the evening. The public is cordially invited to all the services.

The Chinaman engaged by Mrs. McDowell to do the laundry work at the Prineville hotel is having his own troubles these days, or rather nights. Every evening, almost, for a week past, according to Mrs. McDowell, the Oriental washerman has been greatly annoyed by boys and young men throwing stones at the old building in the rear of the hotel where he works and sleeps. The Chinaman, with far eastern notions, fears for his life, and the landlady is afraid he will either leave or take summary vengeance on his tormentors. It is likely the law will step in too late if a clash ensues.

Fred Powell and Lewis Throop of Beaver creek have installed a single telephone line between their homes, about one mile apart.

Ritter & Jones have bought the Great Western Lumber Co.'s mill, and have installed it on the Ochoco ranch. The mill is complete as to planter, etc. and the firm is now prepared to do first class work.

Bill Jacobs and Carl W. Cecil of the Silver creek country in Harney county passed through Prineville Monday with 13,500 pounds of goods and winter feed bought at Portland. One wagon had four teams hauling the big load, the other wagon the usual two teams.

George Nelson, a brother of W. F. Nelson, promoter of the Oregon Trunk Line, while on a visit to Madras last week and work on the location of the line up the Deschutes river is progressing in a satisfactory manner and that the survey will soon be completed.

The Winnek company will shortly remove to and occupy the Claypool building on the northwest corner of Main and Fourth streets. The independent telephone exchange will also be located in the same building upstairs, and poles have already been placed to carry the wires.

Lark Elliott, who was convicted at the spring term of court for arson, poisoning sheep and destroying fences in the sheep and cattle war in this county, and who is now serving a four-year term in the state penitentiary, has fallen a victim to quick consumption. About ten days ago he had three hemorrhages in as many hours, and there seems no hope for his recovery.

Miss Ajwilda Wilson, teacher of the second grade in the city school, was made the recipient of a pleasant surprise last Friday afternoon by her youthful pupils, who carried through the affair with almost adult strategy and judgment. The teacher was asked to hide her face in her hands, whereupon the merry youngsters brought forth a large and varied assortment of candies, nuts, fruits and sweetmeats from the recesses of their desks. The teacher then equally divided all her gifts among the 32 pupils, after which study was resumed to the accompaniment of toothsome munching.

C. Davis of Post was a local caller Tuesday.

F. W. McCaffery of Redmond is a local visitor.

W. F. Arnold was in the city from Sisters Tuesday.

J. A. Holmes of Crook paid this city a visit this week.

The Journal wants correspondents wherever it has none at present, especially at Buck Creek, Paulina, Post, Crook and Howard.

This office is in possession of a lady's clasp belt picked up near the court house. Finder can have same by calling at the Journal office.

Valda Barnes has returned home from Hood River, where she went last spring on a visit. She has reentered the Crook county high school.

Jack Smith, father of Mrs. Thomas Powell, is visiting for the winter with his grandson, Richard M. Powell, on McKay creek. The old gentleman is 83 years of age.

Maek Davis, accompanied by R. P. Long, is trying the hot baths at Hot Lake, Union county, for eczema. They were driven to Shaniko last week by Guy Allingham.

W. G. Trill, of Salem, agent for the Pacific Monthly, has arrived in this city from Lake county on business connected with his publication. He is visiting with local friends this week.

Antelope Herald: Harry Webb and family of near Prineville were in this city Friday last. Mrs. Webb and children left Saturday for Pine Creek to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. McCoy.

W. F. King has carpenters at work in his store, building a private office for himself, apart from the book-keeper's office, into which no one can now enter from the store without first passing through Mr. King's own office.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Ryan came down from their home above Bend this week accompanied by Miss Marian Myers, who is on her way back to her home in San Francisco. Miss Iva West, who was also in the party, goes to Portland to continue her musical studies.

The program rendered at the First Presbyterian church Friday evening was one of the most enjoyable of the season. The entertainment was furnished entirely by local talent, with a large audience present. It would not be possible to mention any part of the program as being the best, for all was good. The pantomime of "Jephtha's Daughter," given by Mesdames Rosenberg, Hyde and Booth, was unique, and out of the ordinary. The Morgan orchestra furnished the music, and requires no commendation, as its music is always of the best. The Ladies' Aid Society served a lunch in the basement parlors, to which ample justice was done at the conclusion of the program. The proceeds are for the purpose of enlarging the library of the Sunday school, and the Librarian Mrs. J. H. Wigle, has been indefatigable in her efforts in its interests.

LOCAL MENTION

The city council met Tuesday night and allowed a number of bills. Nothing was brought up about the matter of city revenue for next year. An order was issued to the city marshal through the city recorder to have all outhouses and barns cleaned up whenever unsanitary conditions exist, and the city marshal has been instructed to notify property holders to this effect.

Young ladies of the M. E. church last Saturday evening organized a class to be known as the W. I. N. M. at the home of Miss Hazel Caldwell. No mere man is permitted to understand the deep significance lying back of the four initials, the class being on the order of a secret society. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Iva Booth the coming Saturday evening.

The Moving Pictures.

Travelogue pictures shown at the moving picture show this week, "A Trip Across the Continent on the Canadian Pacific Railroad" Tuesday night and "The Yosemite Valley" Wednesday evening, were highly entertaining, interesting and instructive, showing, as they did, some of the finest scenery in North America, if not in the world. Large audiences saw the productions and commented favorably upon the pictures, each of which was described on the screen. The next travelogue will be presented next Tuesday night, and every Tuesday evening thereafter until the series of sixteen pictures is complete.

Friday night, at the moving picture show, "The Power of Labor," a very interesting and instructive film, will be shown, in company with the illustrated song, "I Can't Find Another Girl Like You." Monday and Tuesday evening the song will be "Smarty," and the moving pictures "Bengalar's New Trick" and "Lucky Accident."
