

Roscoe Knox, Pioneer of 1853

Roscoe Knox of Post died in this city Saturday, November 14, aged 67 years and 14 days. The funeral was held Monday at Newsom creek. He was born in Missouri, Nov. 1, 1841, and crossed the plains with his parents to Oregon in 1853, settling in Lane county, near Creswell, where he resided until 1887. He was married to Matilda Jane Buoy, daughter of Capt. Laban Buoy, June 22, 1861, she dying at her home on Newsom creek, July 1, last. Thirteen children were born to them, of whom eleven are still living:

S. L. Knox, Stevenson, Wash.
Carrie B. Knox, Stevenson, Wn.
Mrs. Maggie M. Beck, Boring, Or.
Horace Knox, Boring, Oregon.
E. B. Knox, Crook county.
D. W. Knox, Crook county.
John R. Knox, Crook county.
W. C. Knox, Crook county.
G. E. Knox, Crook county.
Lillie E. Knox, Crook county.
Levicy Knox, Crook county.

Roscoe Knox and family moved from Lane county in 1887 and settled on New. om creek, where he and his sons engaged in the sheep and cattle business.

During his long illness, which extended over a period of eight months, he struggled with almost superhuman power against the grim reaper, and only yielded to the inevitable when exhausted nature gave out. Last Monday he was laid to rest by the side of his lifelong companion in the Newsom creek cemetery on the Knox ranch, in the presence of many neighbors and friends.

He was a man of sterling character, fearless and outspoken in his convictions, honored and respected by all who knew him well. He was active in public affairs and took a great interest in the development of the county. He was a generous neighbor and a kind and indulgent parent. He will long be remembered by many friends and acquaintances.

Leaves have their time to fall
And flowers to wither at the north wind's breath.
And suns to set; but thou hast all,
All time for thine own, oh Death.

A Tribute to a Good Man.

In the death of Roscoe Knox, his family has lost a kind and indulgent father and Crook county a worthy citizen and "God's greatest work, an honest man." I have known him over fifty years and know whereof I speak. A man of more than ordinary ability, he adhered strongly to his convictions and advocated them fearlessly. An old pioneer of Lane county, his loss will be deeply felt there, as it is here. All an old friend can say is—Farewell, Roscoe; peace to your ashes.

J. L. LUCKEY.

Spray of the Falls.

John Parks has moved his family to Cline Falls, where his children will have better school advantages.

J. W. Wright is doing some improvement work on his homestead south of town.

Mrs. Sears has moved to Madras where she can be with her husband who drives the "big 4" between Shaniko and Madras.

Lloyd Harader and John Park brought in a load of two of Madras flour for Prickett & Cochran.

D. McCarty brought in a load of freight from Shaniko last week.

I. L. Harader hauled two loads of potatoes to Bend last week.

Mr. Johanson came in on the stage to spend a few days with his family.

Mr. Sroufe, the stage man, has purchased some foot warming apparatus for his stage. The women passengers seem to appreciate it very much.

Harvie Miller and wife spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ward Harader.

Prickett & Cochran made a lighting trip to Redmond Saturday.

Prineville Dairy Changes Hands.

The Prineville Dairy that was formerly run by Charles Carroll has changed hands. Floyd Whelpley is the new proprietor. He will fill all orders promptly and guarantee satisfaction. Mr. Whelpley is an experienced dairy man and thoroughly understands the care of milk, and more than this he is familiar with the scientific methods in handling milk cows. Modern sanitation methods will be closely followed thus insuring absolute purity. Give him a trial.

Paulina Paragraphs.

PAULINA, Nov. 17.—"Uncle" McKim vows this is Indian summer, but we think it is simply delightful autumn weather.

Born, to the wife of James Gilchrist, November 4, a son.

Mr. Mosier, who has been laid up with a sore thumb for two months, is back at his position of cook.

Arthur Kelly of Post has returned to Paulina and is carpentering on Mr. Wilson's new house.

George Noble and Lee Miller made a flying trip to Prineville the end of the week.

Joseph Jacobs has returned from a month's visit to Portland and vicinity.

Miss Maggie Hinkle has returned to her position in Paulina after a two weeks' visit with her parents at Warm Springs.

Ben Gotter is building a new house for W. C. Congleton in the Paulina valley.

Miss Glee Laughlin has moved into town to take advantage of the winter's school.

Mr. Hall of Buck creek has telephoned into Paulina for a house to be reserved for himself and family. This will materially increase our school attendance, and we are all ways glad to welcome new pupils.

Lomer Lanoye has been hauling lumber to build a new house on his homestead.

Twenty-two pupils comprise the roster of the Paulina school.

Henry Faulkner and bride, who was Mrs. Edith Johnson, are making Paulina their home.

Albert Wilson is putting up a new house on the oriental plain. This is a distinct architectural gain for progressive Paulina.

Elmer Clark made a trip to Prineville this week after supplies for his hotel.

Sunday school was organized last Sunday with Mrs. Lytle as superintendent.

Calvin Morse was kicked by a horse last Saturday and bruised up considerably.

I wish to offer a vote of thanks to Mrs. Farnsworth for so kindly hauling our new stove to the school building last week, and also thanks to Mr. Clark for putting the stove in condition for use.

LOTTIE MONTGOMERY.

Redmond News.

Redmond, Nov. 15.

Some of our old friends are heard from again this week. Miss Nellie Muma writes from Yakima that she is kept busy nursing, while word received from Miss Olive Smith states that she is very pleasantly employed in the county auditor's office at Colfax, Wash.

The State Bank of Redmond is now open for business.

Much freight is being moved these days. J. O. Hansen brought in a little load of 70,000 pounds for Sisters yesterday, while C. W. Muma, Finis Woods and Dan McCarty are kept busy looking after local needs.

Mr. and Mrs. McClay were pleasantly surprised Friday night, the occasion being the 13th anniversary of their wedding.

Road Overseer McLellan has a force of men at work on the road south of town.

A party at Tetherow's not long since gave our young folks from town a chance for a good long ride out and back and a good time while there in the bargain.

Guy Lafollett of the county seat was a business visitor in Redmond this week.

H. A. Meyers is a business tripper to Shaniko this week.

Mrs. Buckley was completely and pleasantly surprised Wednesday evening, the occasion being in celebration of the fact that W. J. had finished papering the house.

We are glad to learn from the Sisters correspondent that brick is being manufactured at that place.

There were so many children running loose at Mr. Meyer's Saturday as we came by, about 20 of them, that it looked a good deal like a birthday party or something of the kind.

Mr. Muma had lumber hauled from the Grizzly mill this week for more improvements at his place. He will soon begin his big cement cistern.

Rosland Items.

ROSLAND, Ore., November 16.—Mr. Everingham is building a new house in Rosland.

There will be a dance given in the hall over the new warehouse of Bogue & Co. Thanksgiving eve. A good time is expected.

A new store has been announced in Rosland. Mr. C. W. Richie is opening same and is receiving his opening stock from A. M. Lara of Bend.

Geo. T. Sly has succeeded in locating several new homesteaders on some fine places during the last two weeks.

The officials at the general land office at Lakeview have passed favorably on the contest of Carl E. Wase vs. the state desert selection No. 11. These decisions seem to bring out the smiles all over this community.

Lamonta News Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wiltse returned Monday from a visit with relatives at different valley points.

Mr. J. S. McMeen went on a business trip to Forest this week.

The oil company have resumed operations on their well at the base of Grizzly. They expect to put on a crew of about ten men in a few days.

The Harriman surveyors have moved to Redmond, from where they will extend their survey to Bend.

Mrs. Fred Mingers visited at Lamonta Monday.

Waite Brothers returned from Shaniko Friday.

Turkey shooting at Lamonta, Wednesday, November 25th.

Culver Cullings.

Culver, Nov. 17.

A basket social will be given at the Culver schoolhouse Friday, Nov. 27. The program to be given by the school (and others) will begin at 8 p. m., after which the baskets will be sold to the highest bidders. Those who buy baskets will be given tickets for the dance at Culver hall, immediately after the social. To others the dance tickets will be 50 cents.

As Culver has long been a meeting place for friends for miles around a good crowd is expected at the social Nov. 27.

Ashwood Arrows.

Ashwood, Nov. 16.

W. D. Walker was in town a few days this week.

David Wilson, Thomas Marshall and Miss Mary Magill left last week for Wanuk, Oregon. Miss Magill goes from there in a few days to The Dalles to enter St. Mary's Academy.

Thomas Lewis and wife and Mrs. Milo Wood were out camping a few days this week.
