TOYS! TOYS! TOYS!

Alive with the Christmas Spirit

The dolls and toys make their bow and beckon in the throngs of Christmas gift seekers, for with us all 'tis the children & the gifts for the children that do most to make the spirit of Christmas, that spirit of joy & generous desire to give, which is so typical of the Holiday Season. Our mammoth TOY SECTION will be Santa Claus Headquarters this year

We've dolls from the best factories dolls with long lashes & sleeping eyes, dollies with light dark or auburn hair, dolls with kid bodies, with bisque bodies, or all of celluloid. For the boys we have mechanical toys, rocking horses, tool chests. Everything for exercise or amusement

Paulina Paragraphs.

Paulina, Oregon, November 29
A light snow fell the first of the week.
Miss Vivian Allen, the Warm Springs teacher, spent Thanksgiving in Paulina.
Lee Miller is sick.
Andrew and George Noble, prominent stockmen of Paulina, spent Thanksgiving with their families in Prineville.
Sam Parish and Mrs. Brisco were visitors from Isee last week.
Mr. Mosler, who had a finger taken off at the first joint, is having quite a difficult time, it never having healed. The wound is causing a great deal of trouble.
Last week Clarence Wiley killed a cougar which measured ten feet from tip to tip.
T. H. Brennan has just completed a new stone dwelling ten miles east of Paulina.
Bruce Heisler's new house is completed and the most attractive thing about it is the three large "halls."
Three men, Art Bennett, Jimmie Gilchrist and Charlie Congleton, in the government employ are at Rigger Flat to begin work on their headquarters.
Mr. Laughlin, who has undergone a second operation on an affected limb, this time having it taken off just above the knee joint has returned to his home.
We were pleased to have our friends from Supple, Cold Springs, Buck Creek, Camp Creek, Newson Creek, Bear Creek, etc., with us on Thanksgiving.
Mr. Browlsby took the cake at the shooting match on Thanksgiving, shooting fifteen out of fifteen pigeons. It is really amazing what a small crowd can do to four beavers, one dozen turkeys and two dozen chickens which were offered as prizes at the shooting match.
A dance was given in the hall the evening of the 26. A large crowd attended.

Will Remain a Week Longer.

Dr. C. S. Kelsay, dentist, will remain in the city one more week. All those desiring up-to-date, high class dentistry call at once. All work guaranteed. Examination free. Painless extraction a specialty. Office in Hotel Prineville; Room H. Licensed to practice in Oregon and Washington.

Spray of the Falls.

CLINE FALLS, Dec. 1.—Quiet prevailed here Thanksgiving day, with everybody reporting a good dinner.
Messrs. Whelpley and Williams ate dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Prickett, Ward Harader and wife; I. L. Harader and family spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Bovard and Loyd Harader and wife.
Rev. and Mrs. G. A. M. Lilly entertained Mr. and Mrs. Norwood and Mr. and Mrs. File of Redmond at dinner.
John McKinney, Jess Tetherow, Dryden Rannalls and the Mises Johnson took in the dance at Sisters Thanksgiving day. They report a good time.
Leslie Wright made a trip to Prineville Thanksgiving day, but as Leslie often makes such trips we will let him off easy.
Dan McCarty came in from Shaniko during the week with a load of freight for Mr. Johanson.
Jesse McKinnie, with his son John, Dryden Rannalls and Jess Tetherow, returned last week from a bear hunt, bringing back a cinnamon bear, a greyhound and some deer horns.
Mr. and Mrs. John Park are enjoying a visit from Mrs. Park's mother, Mrs. Reeves, whose home is near Des Moines, Iowa. She expects to remain until spring.
Rev. B. F. Harper, of Milton, Or., arrived at Cline Falls Saturday. He is aiding Rev. G. A. M. Lilly in a series of meetings.
Parson Bishop, the prophet of the Deschutes valley, has returned to the Falls. He wears a pleasant smile and seems as happy as ever. Reason? Railroad's comin'!

Card of Thanks.

The undersigned desire to thank the Neighbors of the Circle and other friends who so kindly aided and sympathized with them in their late bereavement. Their kindly ministrations will always be remembered by Mr. and Mrs. C. A. LUELLING.

Lamonta News Notes.

LAMONTA, Dec. 1.—Mrs. Basey, who has been visiting her sons, Jean and Irvin Basey, left this week for her home at Heppner.
Lamonta people who visited at O'Neil were James McMeen and wife, Ethel and Walter Smith.
The neighbors of Albert Moore enjoyed a dance on Friday, Nov. 27. Joe Quinn was a business visitor last week.
There was no school Thursday and Friday.
Milliam Davenport was buying cattle around Lamonta this week.
Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Houk were in Lamonta on business.
Ressie Robinson spent Thursday with her parents at Madras.
John was a visitor here last week.

Powell Buttes News.

Powell Butte, Nov. 30
Hurray! for the shadow social at the Shepherd school house, Friday evening, Dec. 4th, at 7:30 o'clock. An interesting program is being prepared by Miss Hegardt. If you would like to get acquainted with the people of pumpkin ridge be sure to be present. You will find them very entertaining. A surprise awaits you when you see them perform. We are anticipating a good time. Boys, come and buy a shadow and you will be sure to get your supper.

Sunday school every Sunday at the Shepherd school house. The Sunday school is preparing a program for Christmas eve. Sunday school every Sunday at 2 p. m. Everybody invited to attend.

Levi Ernst of Montana is now at Powell Buttes improving his ditch land.

Thanksgiving dinner was enjoyed very much by those who were present at the Niswonger station, where 31 partook of turkey dinner. Those invited were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Myers, Adolphus Myers, Oza Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Brown and daughter Viola, Mr. Davidson and wife and Mr. C. H. Ellis and wife and four children.

Culver Cullings.

CULVER, Dec. 1.—The basket social held at the Culver school house Nov. 27 was a grand success, especially from the financial standpoint, the proceeds clear of expenses being nearly $80. As it was the first entertainment held here for some time, many people came from several miles on every side. The next entertainment arranged for is a Christmas tree, to which everybody is invited.

The Harriman party of surveyors stationed at Madras for some time past, is expected the early part of this week in Culver to remain for several days.

A shadow basket social will be held at Trail Crossing school house Friday evening, December 11, and many people in the neighborhood of Culver expect to attend.

The Culver school roll now shows 27 pupils in regular attendance.

Mrs. Thomas J. Alderdyce left Saturday morning for Seattle to see her mother, who is reported as very ill.

Robert Osborn and wife enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner at the home of George H. Osborn and wife.

Ashwood Arrows.

Ashwood, Nov. 29.
Mrs. Thomas Lewis gave a bachelor's Thanksgiving dinner in behalf of Fred McCollum, Oscar Marshall and R. L. Greene.
Ed Gosner has returned from Canada and he reports a good trip.
Mrs. James Clark spent Saturday and Sunday in Ashwood.
Mrs. E. W. Crosswhite visited at the home of Mrs. C. Friend Saturday and Sunday.
C. S. McCorkle and family, Oscar Marshall and David Wilson left Sunday for Tygh Valley, Oregon, where Mr. McCorkle expects to make his home for the winter.

Two ladies left Ashwood Sunday on the rear end of a log-chain, enroute to Patrick Reiley's to spend the day, returning home in the evening.

Mr. E. W. Crosswhite, Robert Gibson and Jack Church, all of Haystack, attended the dance at Ashwood Friday evening.

T. S. Hamilton, wife and little daughter, returned Friday from The Dalles.
