

LOCAL MENTION

Miss Hattie Quinn was in from O'Neil Saturday.
D. G. Rogers was in town from his home near Culver the first of the week.
Mrs. J. T. Moore has been confined to the house with the grip for a week.
Forty-five dollars was subscribed Sunday morning for missions at the services in the Methodist church.
David Templeton has been threatened with apoplexy all week, but is reported a little better at the hour of going to press.
William Combs and wife, who are living fifteen miles east of Bend, visited in the city this week, leaving for home again Wednesday.
Frank Osborn, U. S. Commissioner at Madras, was in Prineville Saturday, attending to business matters and renewing acquaintances with many friends.
D. Matthews arrived here Sunday from Roseburg to accept a position as forest ranger in the Deschutes national forest. He will begin work above Roseland in a few days.
The dance which was to have been held, en masque, at Templeton's hall on the McKay December 18 has been indefinitely postponed on account of the serious illness of David Templeton.
It has been mutually decided by committees of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs to give a banquet in connection with the joint installation of officers to be held early in January. The exact date has not yet been set.
The ladies of the Baptist church will serve dinner at Belknap hall Saturday, December 12, between the hours of 11 and 2 o'clock. If you enjoy a good meal call on the ladies, besides you are helping in a good cause.
P. B. Poindexter will give a masque carnival at the skating rink Saturday evening, December 12. Three prizes are offered, one for the best sustained lady character, one for the best comic character, and one for the best sustained gentleman character.
J. B. Brown and wife and Roy Brown, of Haystack country, and mother of the latter, Mrs. Bettie A. Booth, of Sisters, were in town on business this week. Mrs. Booth is the mother of Miss Vestal Brown, of Culver, who is attending the high school in this city.
Firemen of the volunteer department in this city held their annual election Monday evening. B. F. Johnson, of Hose Company No. 1, was elected chief, and J. A. McClun, also of No. 1, was chosen assistant chief, the ballots standing: For Chief, B. F. Johnson, of No. 1, S. C. D. Calbreath, of No. 2, 8; for Assistant Chief, J. A. McClun, of No. 1, 20, Arthur Barnes, of No. 2, 6.

John Y. Todd of Sisters was here Sunday.
J. Johnson came over from Sisters Saturday.
Lewis P. Foss was here from Youngs Saturday.
G. C. Price and L. V. Tice were in from Crook Saturday.
E. A. Parker and J. A. Holmes of Bear Creek were in town Sunday.
H. A. Chase and R. L. Kitching were in from the Williamson ranch Sunday.
Mrs. M. A. Parrish and daughter of Haycreek were in on business Monday.
The evangelistic meetings at the Baptist church closed Sunday night, Rev. I. D. Brown of Madras, preaching the closing sermon.
Miss Celia Nelms, daughter of Mrs. John Wigle, is expected home for the holidays. She is attending St. Helen's Hall in Portland.
All members of the Christian church are requested to meet at the Union church at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon to begin Bible study.
John E. Ryan and wife of the Tule, have rented the T. M. Baldwin cottage at the corner of Second and B streets, in this city and will move in this week.
Dr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards on their return home from Portland stopped off at The Dalles, where they were guests of Prof. and Mrs. Strange and Mrs. Percy Davis.
Mrs. Collins W. Elkins on Monday gave a party, inviting every baby in the city under the age of one year, in honor of the first birthday anniversary of her own baby, Collins W. Elkins, jr.
While doing some carpenter work above the targets in the rear of the new shooting gallery next to the Journal office Monday, Louis Miller was struck on the cheek bone just below the eye by a .22 caliber Winchester bullet. The leaden missile gouged into the flesh but glanced off the bone without doing injury to the man hit. Miller was able to resume his work the next day.
Rye Grass school, which now stands on the Jim Kendall place northwest of Prineville, will be moved to a point on the section line one and one-fourth miles east of its present location. Several families whose children now attend the McKay school will in consequence be sent to the other school, as the county authorities feel that 46 children in the McKay and only 19 in the Rye Grass districts is a rather unfair division for neighboring districts.

Antelope Herald: C. S. McCorkle and family, accompanied by J. D. Wilson, Mrs. McCorkle's father, spent last Sunday night in town, leaving next morning for Tygh Valley, where they will spend the winter. Mr. McCorkle, who has lived continuously on his ranch above Ashwood for the past 21 years, recently sold his place to T. S. Hamilton. Mr. and Mrs. McCorkle will be greatly missed from this section, where they have many friends.
R. A. Ford, county superintendent of schools, has returned from another visiting trip to the county schools. Thus far he has personally inspected the schools at Laidlaw, Redmond, Gist (Plainview), Tumalo (Bayley), Pleasant Ridge (south of Redmond), Forest (on Crooked river), Johnson Creek, Howard, McKay, Upper McKay, Lone Pine, Mill Creek, Upper and Lower Rye Grass, Powell Buttes and Shepherd (near Butte station). His future dates will be made known through the local press from time to time during the winter and spring.

John Y. Todd of Sisters was here Sunday.
J. Johnson came over from Sisters Saturday.
Lewis P. Foss was here from Youngs Saturday.
G. C. Price and L. V. Tice were in from Crook Saturday.
E. A. Parker and J. A. Holmes of Bear Creek were in town Sunday.
H. A. Chase and R. L. Kitching were in from the Williamson ranch Sunday.
Mrs. M. A. Parrish and daughter of Haycreek were in on business Monday.
The evangelistic meetings at the Baptist church closed Sunday night, Rev. I. D. Brown of Madras, preaching the closing sermon.
Miss Celia Nelms, daughter of Mrs. John Wigle, is expected home for the holidays. She is attending St. Helen's Hall in Portland.
All members of the Christian church are requested to meet at the Union church at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon to begin Bible study.
John E. Ryan and wife of the Tule, have rented the T. M. Baldwin cottage at the corner of Second and B streets, in this city and will move in this week.
Dr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards on their return home from Portland stopped off at The Dalles, where they were guests of Prof. and Mrs. Strange and Mrs. Percy Davis.
Mrs. Collins W. Elkins on Monday gave a party, inviting every baby in the city under the age of one year, in honor of the first birthday anniversary of her own baby, Collins W. Elkins, jr.
While doing some carpenter work above the targets in the rear of the new shooting gallery next to the Journal office Monday, Louis Miller was struck on the cheek bone just below the eye by a .22 caliber Winchester bullet. The leaden missile gouged into the flesh but glanced off the bone without doing injury to the man hit. Miller was able to resume his work the next day.
Rye Grass school, which now stands on the Jim Kendall place northwest of Prineville, will be moved to a point on the section line one and one-fourth miles east of its present location. Several families whose children now attend the McKay school will in consequence be sent to the other school, as the county authorities feel that 46 children in the McKay and only 19 in the Rye Grass districts is a rather unfair division for neighboring districts.

Antelope Herald: C. S. McCorkle and family, accompanied by J. D. Wilson, Mrs. McCorkle's father, spent last Sunday night in town, leaving next morning for Tygh Valley, where they will spend the winter. Mr. McCorkle, who has lived continuously on his ranch above Ashwood for the past 21 years, recently sold his place to T. S. Hamilton. Mr. and Mrs. McCorkle will be greatly missed from this section, where they have many friends.
R. A. Ford, county superintendent of schools, has returned from another visiting trip to the county schools. Thus far he has personally inspected the schools at Laidlaw, Redmond, Gist (Plainview), Tumalo (Bayley), Pleasant Ridge (south of Redmond), Forest (on Crooked river), Johnson Creek, Howard, McKay, Upper McKay, Lone Pine, Mill Creek, Upper and Lower Rye Grass, Powell Buttes and Shepherd (near Butte station). His future dates will be made known through the local press from time to time during the winter and spring.

John Y. Todd of Sisters was here Sunday.
J. Johnson came over from Sisters Saturday.
Lewis P. Foss was here from Youngs Saturday.
G. C. Price and L. V. Tice were in from Crook Saturday.
E. A. Parker and J. A. Holmes of Bear Creek were in town Sunday.
H. A. Chase and R. L. Kitching were in from the Williamson ranch Sunday.
Mrs. M. A. Parrish and daughter of Haycreek were in on business Monday.
The evangelistic meetings at the Baptist church closed Sunday night, Rev. I. D. Brown of Madras, preaching the closing sermon.
Miss Celia Nelms, daughter of Mrs. John Wigle, is expected home for the holidays. She is attending St. Helen's Hall in Portland.
All members of the Christian church are requested to meet at the Union church at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon to begin Bible study.
John E. Ryan and wife of the Tule, have rented the T. M. Baldwin cottage at the corner of Second and B streets, in this city and will move in this week.
Dr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards on their return home from Portland stopped off at The Dalles, where they were guests of Prof. and Mrs. Strange and Mrs. Percy Davis.
Mrs. Collins W. Elkins on Monday gave a party, inviting every baby in the city under the age of one year, in honor of the first birthday anniversary of her own baby, Collins W. Elkins, jr.
While doing some carpenter work above the targets in the rear of the new shooting gallery next to the Journal office Monday, Louis Miller was struck on the cheek bone just below the eye by a .22 caliber Winchester bullet. The leaden missile gouged into the flesh but glanced off the bone without doing injury to the man hit. Miller was able to resume his work the next day.
Rye Grass school, which now stands on the Jim Kendall place northwest of Prineville, will be moved to a point on the section line one and one-fourth miles east of its present location. Several families whose children now attend the McKay school will in consequence be sent to the other school, as the county authorities feel that 46 children in the McKay and only 19 in the Rye Grass districts is a rather unfair division for neighboring districts.

Wear Insured Sox

Are your socks insured? Our "Holeproof" Sox are insured for six months. This is the guarantee. Buy six pairs of "Holeproof" Sox for $2.00 and if any or all of them come to holes or need darning in six months we will replace them with new Sox FREE.

Holeproof Sox

are dyed with absolutely permanent fast colors. They will not "creak" or "rust" nor fade. "Holeproof" Sox do not shrink nor stretch. You can buy them in all assortments—six pairs of a size and weight in a box.

Wear "Holeproof" Sox once and you will never wear any other kind. Remember—they are guaranteed to wear six months or you get new Sox FREE. Let us sell you a box today.

J. E. Stewart & Co.

LOCAL MENTION

O. Laper and wife are here from Burns.
Mrs. Hauser, living 30 miles up Bear creek, is quite sick.
Teresa Snyder and Byron C. Cady were over from Laidlaw Sunday.
F. C. Logan and L. S. Logan, both of Crook, and A. M. Logan and wife of Paulina were county seat visitors Friday.
James Douglass is back at work on the new court house. His entire family has been ill with typhoid fever. Two of the children are now up, with Mrs. Douglass convalescent.
The court house furnace was lighted and tested this week, and found to be all that was anticipated. Only a small fraction of its maximum power is needed to warm the entire building.
The entire family of Henry Mitchell up the McKay is sick with scarlet fever. Miss Nora Mitchell, who was first taken ill nearly a month ago, is believed to have suffered with a light form of the malady.
The new reading room has been finished by the ladies of the Annex, and it is for the purpose of defraying the expenses incident thereto that the comedy drama, "Valley Farm", will be given by members of the club.
The subject for the 11 o'clock service at the Methodist church will be "The Blessing of Prayer." The topic at 7:30 will be "What makes the Home." At this service Miss Verna Howard will sing "The Holy City." Orchestra made at all services. Sunday school at 10. Epworth League at 6:30. You are cordially invited to come and worship with us.

The faculty of the Prineville public school, in order to increase the attendance and better the school in general, has decided to give a half holiday the end of each month to each pupil who during that month has neither been tardy nor absent and whose deportment has been perfect. The first such holiday will occur Friday afternoon, December 11.
Shu-mi-a is the Indian name chosen for the new ladies' reading club, which is limited as to its membership to fourteen women. Shu-mi-a means study-think. Insignia has also been selected by the ladies, as follows: Shu-mi-a color, light blue; Shu-mi-a flower, golden-rod. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Belknap. It is likely a reception after ye manner of ye olden time will be held New Year's day.
The Women of Woodcraft lodge in this city has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Ada B. Millican, guardian neighbor; Julia Young, past guardian neighbor; Sarah Wright, advisor; Mrs. Mary McDowell, magician; Sarah Thompson, clerk and musician; Vera Cyrus, banker; Lillian Jordan, attendant; Julia Lytle, captain of the guards; Laura Laelling, inner sentinel; Emma Prose, outer sentinel; Kate Panckake and Frank Johnson, managers.

The class in Journalism—reporting for newspapers—to be inaugurated in this city by John Alden Sanbury, will hold its first meeting Monday evening, December 14, at the home of Mrs. Ada B. Millican. Adults as well as pupils in the higher classes of the local schools will be welcomed, though there is no obligation to enroll until after the first meeting. Although the first session will be held Monday, another night may be chosen if more convenient to the students. Reporting as practiced in the big cities will be taught from A to Z.

Antelope Herald: C. S. McCorkle and family, accompanied by J. D. Wilson, Mrs. McCorkle's father, spent last Sunday night in town, leaving next morning for Tygh Valley, where they will spend the winter. Mr. McCorkle, who has lived continuously on his ranch above Ashwood for the past 21 years, recently sold his place to T. S. Hamilton. Mr. and Mrs. McCorkle will be greatly missed from this section, where they have many friends.
R. A. Ford, county superintendent of schools, has returned from another visiting trip to the county schools. Thus far he has personally inspected the schools at Laidlaw, Redmond, Gist (Plainview), Tumalo (Bayley), Pleasant Ridge (south of Redmond), Forest (on Crooked river), Johnson Creek, Howard, McKay, Upper McKay, Lone Pine, Mill Creek, Upper and Lower Rye Grass, Powell Buttes and Shepherd (near Butte station). His future dates will be made known through the local press from time to time during the winter and spring.

John Y. Todd of Sisters was here Sunday.
J. Johnson came over from Sisters Saturday.
Lewis P. Foss was here from Youngs Saturday.
G. C. Price and L. V. Tice were in from Crook Saturday.
E. A. Parker and J. A. Holmes of Bear Creek were in town Sunday.
H. A. Chase and R. L. Kitching were in from the Williamson ranch Sunday.
Mrs. M. A. Parrish and daughter of Haycreek were in on business Monday.
The evangelistic meetings at the Baptist church closed Sunday night, Rev. I. D. Brown of Madras, preaching the closing sermon.
Miss Celia Nelms, daughter of Mrs. John Wigle, is expected home for the holidays. She is attending St. Helen's Hall in Portland.
All members of the Christian church are requested to meet at the Union church at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon to begin Bible study.
John E. Ryan and wife of the Tule, have rented the T. M. Baldwin cottage at the corner of Second and B streets, in this city and will move in this week.
Dr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards on their return home from Portland stopped off at The Dalles, where they were guests of Prof. and Mrs. Strange and Mrs. Percy Davis.
Mrs. Collins W. Elkins on Monday gave a party, inviting every baby in the city under the age of one year, in honor of the first birthday anniversary of her own baby, Collins W. Elkins, jr.
While doing some carpenter work above the targets in the rear of the new shooting gallery next to the Journal office Monday, Louis Miller was struck on the cheek bone just below the eye by a .22 caliber Winchester bullet. The leaden missile gouged into the flesh but glanced off the bone without doing injury to the man hit. Miller was able to resume his work the next day.
Rye Grass school, which now stands on the Jim Kendall place northwest of Prineville, will be moved to a point on the section line one and one-fourth miles east of its present location. Several families whose children now attend the McKay school will in consequence be sent to the other school, as the county authorities feel that 46 children in the McKay and only 19 in the Rye Grass districts is a rather unfair division for neighboring districts.

Antelope Herald: C. S. McCorkle and family, accompanied by J. D. Wilson, Mrs. McCorkle's father, spent last Sunday night in town, leaving next morning for Tygh Valley, where they will spend the winter. Mr. McCorkle, who has lived continuously on his ranch above Ashwood for the past 21 years, recently sold his place to T. S. Hamilton. Mr. and Mrs. McCorkle will be greatly missed from this section, where they have many friends.
R. A. Ford, county superintendent of schools, has returned from another visiting trip to the county schools. Thus far he has personally inspected the schools at Laidlaw, Redmond, Gist (Plainview), Tumalo (Bayley), Pleasant Ridge (south of Redmond), Forest (on Crooked river), Johnson Creek, Howard, McKay, Upper McKay, Lone Pine, Mill Creek, Upper and Lower Rye Grass, Powell Buttes and Shepherd (near Butte station). His future dates will be made known through the local press from time to time during the winter and spring.

John Y. Todd of Sisters was here Sunday.
J. Johnson came over from Sisters Saturday.
Lewis P. Foss was here from Youngs Saturday.
G. C. Price and L. V. Tice were in from Crook Saturday.
E. A. Parker and J. A. Holmes of Bear Creek were in town Sunday.
H. A. Chase and R. L. Kitching were in from the Williamson ranch Sunday.
Mrs. M. A. Parrish and daughter of Haycreek were in on business Monday.
The evangelistic meetings at the Baptist church closed Sunday night, Rev. I. D. Brown of Madras, preaching the closing sermon.
Miss Celia Nelms, daughter of Mrs. John Wigle, is expected home for the holidays. She is attending St. Helen's Hall in Portland.
All members of the Christian church are requested to meet at the Union church at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon to begin Bible study.
John E. Ryan and wife of the Tule, have rented the T. M. Baldwin cottage at the corner of Second and B streets, in this city and will move in this week.
Dr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards on their return home from Portland stopped off at The Dalles, where they were guests of Prof. and Mrs. Strange and Mrs. Percy Davis.
Mrs. Collins W. Elkins on Monday gave a party, inviting every baby in the city under the age of one year, in honor of the first birthday anniversary of her own baby, Collins W. Elkins, jr.
While doing some carpenter work above the targets in the rear of the new shooting gallery next to the Journal office Monday, Louis Miller was struck on the cheek bone just below the eye by a .22 caliber Winchester bullet. The leaden missile gouged into the flesh but glanced off the bone without doing injury to the man hit. Miller was able to resume his work the next day.
Rye Grass school, which now stands on the Jim Kendall place northwest of Prineville, will be moved to a point on the section line one and one-fourth miles east of its present location. Several families whose children now attend the McKay school will in consequence be sent to the other school, as the county authorities feel that 46 children in the McKay and only 19 in the Rye Grass districts is a rather unfair division for neighboring districts.

LOCAL MENTION

"Valley Farm," the farce to be given by the Ladies' Annex, will be produced Dec. 18. See adv. in another column.
Miss Nora Buchanan and Herman Thomason were married Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Jennie Pickett. Dr. Dunsmore performed the ceremony.
I. D. Calbreath, one of the first white persons born in Prineville, is here from his present home in The Dalles, visiting his brother, C. D. Calbreath. This is his first trip in here for 24 years and he does not now recognize any of the oldtime landmarks of the years before 1884. His wife accompanies him.
Music furnished by three violinists, one clarinetist, the regular organist and a full choir rendered the Sunday evening song service at the Presbyterian church very enjoyable. Dr. Dunsmore expressed himself by saying that he believed without denominational ego that the service was the best from a musical standpoint at which it had ever been his privilege to be present in this city. A similar musical service will be held Sunday evening, December 13.
Father Hickey, the well-known Catholic priest who visits the more important interior Oregon points from time to time to administer the rites of his church, favors the Journal with a copy of the Occidental Magazine, published by himself at Wasco, Or. Really, one who has never seen this periodical should make it a point to request a sample copy, for whether the reader be a Catholic or Protestant he cannot fail to be interested in a magazine at once so militant and so excellent an advocate of the Northwest. Father Hickey deserves great credit for his Wasco enterprise.

The faculty of the Prineville public school, in order to increase the attendance and better the school in general, has decided to give a half holiday the end of each month to each pupil who during that month has neither been tardy nor absent and whose deportment has been perfect. The first such holiday will occur Friday afternoon, December 11.
Shu-mi-a is the Indian name chosen for the new ladies' reading club, which is limited as to its membership to fourteen women. Shu-mi-a means study-think. Insignia has also been selected by the ladies, as follows: Shu-mi-a color, light blue; Shu-mi-a flower, golden-rod. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Belknap. It is likely a reception after ye manner of ye olden time will be held New Year's day.
The Women of Woodcraft lodge in this city has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Ada B. Millican, guardian neighbor; Julia Young, past guardian neighbor; Sarah Wright, advisor; Mrs. Mary McDowell, magician; Sarah Thompson, clerk and musician; Vera Cyrus, banker; Lillian Jordan, attendant; Julia Lytle, captain of the guards; Laura Laelling, inner sentinel; Emma Prose, outer sentinel; Kate Panckake and Frank Johnson, managers.

The class in Journalism—reporting for newspapers—to be inaugurated in this city by John Alden Sanbury, will hold its first meeting Monday evening, December 14, at the home of Mrs. Ada B. Millican. Adults as well as pupils in the higher classes of the local schools will be welcomed, though there is no obligation to enroll until after the first meeting. Although the first session will be held Monday, another night may be chosen if more convenient to the students. Reporting as practiced in the big cities will be taught from A to Z.

Antelope Herald: C. S. McCorkle and family, accompanied by J. D. Wilson, Mrs. McCorkle's father, spent last Sunday night in town, leaving next morning for Tygh Valley, where they will spend the winter. Mr. McCorkle, who has lived continuously on his ranch above Ashwood for the past 21 years, recently sold his place to T. S. Hamilton. Mr. and Mrs. McCorkle will be greatly missed from this section, where they have many friends.
R. A. Ford, county superintendent of schools, has returned from another visiting trip to the county schools. Thus far he has personally inspected the schools at Laidlaw, Redmond, Gist (Plainview), Tumalo (Bayley), Pleasant Ridge (south of Redmond), Forest (on Crooked river), Johnson Creek, Howard, McKay, Upper McKay, Lone Pine, Mill Creek, Upper and Lower Rye Grass, Powell Buttes and Shepherd (near Butte station). His future dates will be made known through the local press from time to time during the winter and spring.

John Y. Todd of Sisters was here Sunday.
J. Johnson came over from Sisters Saturday.
Lewis P. Foss was here from Youngs Saturday.
G. C. Price and L. V. Tice were in from Crook Saturday.
E. A. Parker and J. A. Holmes of Bear Creek were in town Sunday.
H. A. Chase and R. L. Kitching were in from the Williamson ranch Sunday.
Mrs. M. A. Parrish and daughter of Haycreek were in on business Monday.
The evangelistic meetings at the Baptist church closed Sunday night, Rev. I. D. Brown of Madras, preaching the closing sermon.
Miss Celia Nelms, daughter of Mrs. John Wigle, is expected home for the holidays. She is attending St. Helen's Hall in Portland.
All members of the Christian church are requested to meet at the Union church at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon to begin Bible study.
John E. Ryan and wife of the Tule, have rented the T. M. Baldwin cottage at the corner of Second and B streets, in this city and will move in this week.
Dr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards on their return home from Portland stopped off at The Dalles, where they were guests of Prof. and Mrs. Strange and Mrs. Percy Davis.
Mrs. Collins W. Elkins on Monday gave a party, inviting every baby in the city under the age of one year, in honor of the first birthday anniversary of her own baby, Collins W. Elkins, jr.
While doing some carpenter work above the targets in the rear of the new shooting gallery next to the Journal office Monday, Louis Miller was struck on the cheek bone just below the eye by a .22 caliber Winchester bullet. The leaden missile gouged into the flesh but glanced off the bone without doing injury to the man hit. Miller was able to resume his work the next day.
Rye Grass school, which now stands on the Jim Kendall place northwest of Prineville, will be moved to a point on the section line one and one-fourth miles east of its present location. Several families whose children now attend the McKay school will in consequence be sent to the other school, as the county authorities feel that 46 children in the McKay and only 19 in the Rye Grass districts is a rather unfair division for neighboring districts.

Antelope Herald: C. S. McCorkle and family, accompanied by J. D. Wilson, Mrs. McCorkle's father, spent last Sunday night in town, leaving next morning for Tygh Valley, where they will spend the winter. Mr. McCorkle, who has lived continuously on his ranch above Ashwood for the past 21 years, recently sold his place to T. S. Hamilton. Mr. and Mrs. McCorkle will be greatly missed from this section, where they have many friends.
R. A. Ford, county superintendent of schools, has returned from another visiting trip to the county schools. Thus far he has personally inspected the schools at Laidlaw, Redmond, Gist (Plainview), Tumalo (Bayley), Pleasant Ridge (south of Redmond), Forest (on Crooked river), Johnson Creek, Howard, McKay, Upper McKay, Lone Pine, Mill Creek, Upper and Lower Rye Grass, Powell Buttes and Shepherd (near Butte station). His future dates will be made known through the local press from time to time during the winter and spring.

John Y. Todd of Sisters was here Sunday.
J. Johnson came over from Sisters Saturday.
Lewis P. Foss was here from Youngs Saturday.
G. C. Price and L. V. Tice were in from Crook Saturday.
E. A. Parker and J. A. Holmes of Bear Creek were in town Sunday.
H. A. Chase and R. L. Kitching were in from the Williamson ranch Sunday.
Mrs. M. A. Parrish and daughter of Haycreek were in on business Monday.
The evangelistic meetings at the Baptist church closed Sunday night, Rev. I. D. Brown of Madras, preaching the closing sermon.
Miss Celia Nelms, daughter of Mrs. John Wigle, is expected home for the holidays. She is attending St. Helen's Hall in Portland.
All members of the Christian church are requested to meet at the Union church at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon to begin Bible study.
John E. Ryan and wife of the Tule, have rented the T. M. Baldwin cottage at the corner of Second and B streets, in this city and will move in this week.
Dr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards on their return home from Portland stopped off at The Dalles, where they were guests of Prof. and Mrs. Strange and Mrs. Percy Davis.
Mrs. Collins W. Elkins on Monday gave a party, inviting every baby in the city under the age of one year, in honor of the first birthday anniversary of her own baby, Collins W. Elkins, jr.
While doing some carpenter work above the targets in the rear of the new shooting gallery next to the Journal office Monday, Louis Miller was struck on the cheek bone just below the eye by a .22 caliber Winchester bullet. The leaden missile gouged into the flesh but glanced off the bone without doing injury to the man hit. Miller was able to resume his work the next day.
Rye Grass school, which now stands on the Jim Kendall place northwest of Prineville, will be moved to a point on the section line one and one-fourth miles east of its present location. Several families whose children now attend the McKay school will in consequence be sent to the other school, as the county authorities feel that 46 children in the McKay and only 19 in the Rye Grass districts is a rather unfair division for neighboring districts.

Passion Play Xmas Week

The Oberammergau passion play as played by the famous German peasants in 1900 will be shown in 4,000 feet of moving pictures at the Prineville biograph show December 24, 25 and 26.
Randolph Ketchum and Frank Lafollett, managers of the local moving picture show, are indeed fortunate to get this splendid picture series for the Christmas season, but its great length and the cost of obtaining it will compel them to charge a somewhat higher admission price than usual.
The reels depict as no other means could, except the play itself, the life and sufferings of the Savior. From the hour when the shepherds were guided by the star to the manger at Bethlehem where lay the infant Christ until the awful hours when Jesus hung on the cross at Calvary, His whole mundane life is truthfully portrayed by this passion play.
The scene before Pilate, the fast in the wilderness, the scourging and finally the crucifixion are especially vivid, and wherever these pictures have been shown persons in the audience have been brought to tears and a stronger realization of their debt to Christianity.

Notice to Fair Stockholders.
To Stockholders of the Central Oregon Livestock & Agricultural Association: The annual meeting of the stockholders of this association will be held at the court house on Monday, January 4, 1909, at 2 o'clock p. m. Business of vital importance to the association will be brought before this meeting and the attendance (or proxy) of every shareholder is strongly urged.
12-10-44 DUNCAN MACLEOD, Secretary.

Hogs Taken Up.
Four hogs, three without marks and one with left ear cropped with slit, were taken up by city marshal and turned over to Jack Summers. Owner can have same by paying all costs. JACK SUMMERS, Prineville, Or., Dec. 9, 1908.

Will Reopen Wood Yard.
I will open a wood yard December 15 in connection with wood saw.
12-10-3wp H. L. HOBBS.

Lamonta News Notes.

LAMONTA, Ore., Dec. 7.—The basket social was a success financially, the proceeds being $68.80. An interesting program had been prepared by Miss Rideout. After the entertainment the young people enjoyed a dance. Prineville people who attended were Prof. Ashby, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rideout and Max Hofer.
George Luckey visited friends Tuesday and Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. Dale Jones spent Sunday with Mrs. Jones' sister, Mrs. Lithgow.
Frank Benefield, who spent three years in Klamath county, has returned for the winter.

Rosland Items.

ROSAND, Ore. Dec. 7.—J. E. Morrison of Portland, president of the Oregon Development Co., who a short time ago sent in his secretary, Mr. Ayr, to sound the people of the Walker valley relative to an irrigation project there, has about decided to immediately begin the construction of ten miles of ditches. His surveyors are expected here in a few days.
Supervisor Ireland was in Rosland last week.
Dr. Collier has completed a house on the homestead he is contesting. P. B. Stevens has built a new house. D. A. Findley is seriously ill.
There will be a dance in the new school at the sawmill Friday.
John Elder has material on his homestead for his house. He says it will be up next week.

BUSINESS POINTERS.

For a mild smoke—The La Rosa.
New line of fine silverware just arrived; most suitable for Christmas gifts. D. P. Adamson & Co.
Christmas nuts and candies at store of I. Michel.
Choice candies in boxes for holiday trade at The Leader.

Ammunition
Guns
Knives, Belts

All kinds of sportsmen's Supplies. Shotgun shells loaded to order. Powder shot, shells and reloading outfits

SOLD BY
W. F. King

LUMBER

Shingles, Mouldings, Windows, Doors, Glasses, Etc. Etc., Etc.

SHIPP & PERRY
PRINEVILLE, OREGON

Makers of Cash Knives
School Books
Camera Supplies
Jewelry
Wall Paper

D. P. Adamson & Co
DRUGGISTS

Musical Instruments
Magis
Lowrey's Candies
Stationery
Cigars

A new and complete stock of Holiday Presents just arrived, consisting of Fancy Combs, Brushes, Dressing Cases, Cuff and Collar Boxes, Manacure Sets, Toys, China Dishes, Stationery, Silverware, Cut Glass, books of all kinds, Clocks, Ladies and Gentlemen's Purses, etc.

D. P. Adamson & Co.
DRUGGISTS

DECEMBER 23rd  DECEMBER 30th

The Sixth Annual Christmas and New Years
GRAND BALL

Given by the P. A. A. C. at the Club Hall
Wednesday Eve, December 23, and December 30, 1908

MORGAN'S ORCHESTRA

These two dances will be the social events of the season and the Club extends a hearty invitation to all country friends and dancers. The floor committee is composed of Jack Summers, Frank Elkins, Harry Lanis, John R. Luckey, Frank B. Foster and others. The Club has secured a competent caller and the orchestra has new and late dance music for the occasions. The ladies will serve their celebrated Buffet Luncheon in the hall.

TICKETS $1.00