Redmond News.

Redmond, Oregon, December 13. Mr. Burlingham has bought in town and is putting up a house for present occupancy.

Carl Ehret's new house is coming on nicely and will make quite an addition to the north side of town.

H. F. Jones is making quite extensive improvements in his new place in town. They include porches, papering, store room, etc.

C. W. Muma is filling his new 250-barrel cement-walled cistern today.

If we mentioned everyone that butchered and told what friends all the neighbors take dinner with, we would have quite a long list of notes this week.

The McClellan family are new arrivals from the Grande Ronde valley camped south of town and will probably locate here.

Mrs. E. M. Eby was out to church today for the first time since her recent and present illness. Her many friends were much pleased to see her.

Rev. C. L. Lowther will begin protracted meetings here the first of January, assisted by the Adams sisters from somewhere in Washington.

The Bank of Redmond is doing a business that continues to be a surprise to Cashier Ehlers on account of its magnitude.

Now we are just about ready for a newspaper. When the subject was under discussion a few months ago the writer was of the opinion that the time was not yet ripe. Some events move forward rapidly however, and almost any old time will do now.

Mr. Lauderbach is still hauling lumber for Ehret's house.

The business that Lamb's feed store is doing is a revelation to many of our citizens. J. E. and Warren Lamb came in Wednesday night with two big loads of grain and had to go again Friday for more.

The meetings that were held here for the past two weeks by the Presbyterians closed Wednesday night with the installation of Elder Chapman, the ordinance of the Lord's Supper and the reception of new members. Among those were the following: Mesdames Burlingham, Brown, Smith, Park and McLellan; Messrs. and Mesdames McCaffery, Norwood and Buckley. Rev. Harper leaves here for his other work at Cline Falls, Laidlaw and then home again with the best wishes of everyone with whom he has come in contact, having made many friends during his short stay here.

We wish someone else were delegated to report the Butterfly social held on Thursday evening. Not that it was a sad affair, no, not at all, but someone else might give the readers a rest from the hackneyed expressions. It was delicious buckwheat pancakes that made the butter fly. Among other amusements of the evening toasts were responded to, Mrs. Kennard being toastmistress. The Colonel (of course it was he) spoke to "The Ladies, God Bless 'Em," the latter part, of course, being the Colonel's addition. Rev. Lilly spoke to the Ladies' Aid, H. F. Jones made announcements and Yours Truly spoke to the subject "The long-suffering but patient husbands."

Numerous songs were given by some of the local talent. In the kitchen and dining room W. E. Young was chef in charge with F. H. Woods for first assistant while Mrs. Yours Truly mixed the batter for over a hundred dinners. The waiters flew so fast (as well as the butter) that we could not make out distinctly who all of them were but there were enough so that everyone was served promptly.

The butterfly social will probably be remembered as long as our first general settlers' meeting and free feed of March 3, 1906.

Gun Club Organized.

Organization of a gun club was effected at a meeting held in Firemen's hall Tuesday evening by local men, with the object of fostering interest in contest shoots for both shotguns and rifles. Later, the club may take steps toward importing quails, pheasants and other game birds in order to stock this section with varieties of game deemed to be desirable.

A representative number of local gun men were present at the meeting. Officers elected were: C. A. Riddle, president; Tom Armstrong, captain; Dr. L. E. Hudson, assistant captain; Marion Travis, secretary; Omer Claypool, treasurer.

A practice shoot will be held on Sunday afternoon, after which a business meeting will be held. All those who desire to become members, or who have any interest in the club's objects, are cordially invited.

Plans so far suggested cover the installation of up-to-date traps on the shooting grounds and occasional shoots for trophies with a view of competing with teams from other localities.

CLINE FALLS, Dec. 14.—This is mighty fine weather for winter. John McKinney and John Edwards left Saturday for Kahlous, Wash., to be gone a few days.

Rev. B. F. Harper held a few enthusiastic meetings at the school house while doing revival work in Redmond and vicinity.

The Johanson family received news from Ellensburg, Wash., last week of the sudden death there of their 12-year-old daughter, who was living with a married sister while attending school. The child died following an operation for appendicitis.

The Cline Falls school reports an attendance of 100 per cent for the school month ending Dec. 4.

Arrived, at the home of Jackson Taylor, Saturday morning, Dec. 12, a 9 pound boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaeberg of Pleasant Ridge spent Sunday at the home of Harvey Miller.

Ashwood Arrows.

ASHWOOD, Dec. 14.—Floyd Wood, who has been sick for a week, is out again.

E. W. Crosswhite of Haycreek was an Ashwood visitor Sunday.

Will Short, of Fossil, who has been visiting his sisters, Mesdames Warren and Grater, was in Ashwood Sunday.

Mrs. Thomas Lewis, Miss Maude Wood and R. L. Greene spent Sunday at the home of K. D. Huston, where they were served with dinner prepared by George Poindexter.

We have been having very fine weather, little snow, and the days and nights are indeed pleasant for this time of year. AMICUS.

Lamonta News Notes.

LAMONTA, Dec. 14.—Friends of Judge Thomas helped him celebrate his 47th birthday anniversary Saturday. The main feature was a splendid dinner. Those present were Oren Waite and wife, L. A. Moore and wife, George Hendricks and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Akeley, Mrs. Eagan, John Eagan, Clarence Cox and wife.

Ed Love has struck a fine flow of water at a depth of 105 feet on his ranch south of Lamonta.

Henry Beard and wife of Christmas Lake are visiting at the home of Mrs. Beard's father, H. H. Bennfield.

In last week's items we omitted to state that J. C. Rush donated the hall, lights and wood for the basket social.
