

LOCAL MENTION

Born, on January 9, to William French, a son.
John Bostwick and wife are back from The Dalles.
Born—January 3, to the wife of W. H. Porter, a son.
Keys Hyde is sick with pneumonia at the Poindexter.
Alex Mackintosh reports 46 below zero at his place near Paulina during the cold spell.
The county court has abolished the office of county roadmaster. Hereafter the road supervisor will report to the court.
Born, on January 6, to the wife of Roy R. Howard of Arleta, Ore, a daughter. Roy was a Prineville boy a few years ago but is now on the staff of the Pacific Monthly.
County court adjourned Monday to meet again February 1. An immense amount of business was before the court. The Journal was nearly swamped in handling it.
Miss Elva Dobbs finished her four months term of school as teacher in the Rye (Grass district) and will begin another term at the Alkali Flat school a week from next Monday.
Elder B. F. W. Pitman and wife arrived in Madras late Saturday from Brookville, Ohio. Mr. Pitman is the new Christian minister located in this section, and will have a circuit of Madras, Willow creek and Lamonta.—Pioneer.
Claude Smith was over from Prineville Saturday having come over with Miss Pearl Hightower, who had been spending a few days in the county seat visiting with friends.—Bend Bulletin.

The county court was interrupted in its session Monday long enough for Judge Ellis to make George Senecal and Annie L. Quinn man and wife. This is the first marriage Mr. Ellis has performed in his official capacity as county judge.
Deschutes District No. 12 has been enlarged on the south by taking in a small strip of timber land while on the north some desert land was added. As there is no tax on the desert land it was found necessary by the court to add a strip of timber so that sufficient revenue could be raised for the maintenance of roads.

Wear Insured Sox
Are your socks insured? Our "Holeproof" Sox are insured for six months. This is the guarantee.
Buy six pairs of "Holeproof" Sox for $2.00 and if any or all of them come to holes or need darning in six months we will replace them with new Sox FREE.
Holeproof Sox
are dyed with absolutely fast colors. They will not "crawl," "rust" nor fade. "Holeproof" Sox do not shrink nor stretch. You can buy them in assorted colors—six pairs of a size and weight in a box.
Wear "Holeproof" Sox once and you will never wear any other kind. Remember—they are guaranteed to wear six months or you get new Sox FREE. Let us sell you a box today.
J. E. Stewart & Co.

Miss Marion Myers of San Francisco is visiting Mrs. Ryan.
Ralph Porfily and Miss Mabel Maben were married January 13 by Rev. Lewellen.
The infant daughter of Jack Harris, who lives in Prineville, died yesterday. It was buried today.
Coasting is the order of the day at Prineville. The hill north of town is the scene of this enjoyable winter sport.
Ed Hodson has sold his interest in the Prineville Flouring Mills to J. W. Carlson. The new firm will be known as Stewart & Carlson.
Henry Carlin and George Milligan have been gathering some of their cattle this week in the Crooked river country and expect to feed them later at Powell Buttes.
Jack Harris passed through town last Friday evening with 1100 head of sheep. He was taking them from the desert to his place on the McKay for winter feeding.
Sheridan Shroufe, proprietor of the Sisters stage line who has been sick for the past ten days, is now improving. John Park of Clive Falls has been driving the stage in Mr. Shroufe's stead.
F. C. Logan of Crook was a business visitor this week. He reports less snow and warmer weather in his part of the county, but says that the stock cattle are shrinking because of the cold.
John L. Spoo has located a new sawmill at Tetherow bridge, west of Laidlaw, and expects to begin operations this spring. Mr. Spoo is accompanied into the Deschutes country by Joseph G. Houston, both being from Portland.

Rev. J. T. Moore of this city is thinking of filling a regular appointment on his circuit at Silver Lake the first Sunday in each month, having been asked to do this when there last summer. He is now serving the Baptists at Fossil two Sundays and those at Bend one Sunday in the month.
On account of the banquet to be given by the firemen to-morrow evening, the basket social announced for that date has been postponed until Friday, Jan. 22, to be held at the Union church. There will be a short program and a good time in general. The ladies are asked to come with well filled baskets and the gentlemen to please do not forget their purses.
At the First Methodist church Sunday 11 a. m. the subject will be, "Christ as the One moved with the feelings of our infirmities." The evening service will begin with "Meditation," played by the orchestra. A full choir will sing the Christian battle Hymn "The Fight is One." Miss Howard will sing "Saved by Grace," by Stubbins. The subject for the sermon will be, St. Paul's conversion. Sunday school at 10 and Epworth League at 6.30. You are cordially invited to come and worship with us.

LOCAL MENTION
Otto Gray reports the loss of four blooded pigs at the Bonnyview farm during the cold weather.
F. J. Lively, Alex. Mackintosh and Duncan Macleod left for Portland Sunday. Mr. Lively will select his spring stock of goods while at the metropolis.
High school teachers and pupils tendered a reception last Friday evening to the members of the new board. A very pleasant evening was passed. Refreshments were served and some timely thought informal talks made.
Mr. Orval Davis and Miss Grace Parrish were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. A. Parrish, at Haycreek, Rev. C. R. Moorhead officiating. The bride is a highly esteemed young lady with a large circle of friends in Crook county. The groom has, for a number of years, been foreman of the big B. S. & L. ranch, in which capacity he has won the confidence and esteem of his employers as well as of those who know him best.

LOCAL MENTION

Redmond News.
Redmond, Ore. Jan. 10.
Hurrah for Oregon's mild winter climate. It is delightful and is no mistake. Saturday morning we measured the snow and found 12 inches on a level. It has packed enough though by a little thawing and the weight of the falling snow so that meant 15 inches of snowfall.
Mrs. Landes and Mrs. Lamb are expected home again before long. Mr. Landes looks for his wife in about a week.
News and the passing of teams on this road have been about as scarce this week as when the road was first opened. Some days no one passes at all. E. C. Park.

Grizzly Butte Not So Cold.
Lamonta, Jan. 10.
Ed. Journal—In order to correct the impression that Grizzly Butte is the coldest place in Crook county, I herewith send you the temperature taken at the sawmill. It covers six days inclusive from January 5 to 10, and is as follows:
Jan. 5, morning 4 above, evening 2 below.
Jan. 6—morning 2 below, evening 2 above.
Jan. 7—morning 30 above, evening 2 above.
Jan. 8—morning 4 above, evening 10 below.
Jan. 9—morning 18 above, evening 8 above.
Jan. 10—morning 12 against 22 below at Lamonta, 21 at Culver, 15 at J. L. Windoms, 38 at Madras and 26 at Prineville. Respectfully
Mrs. W. H. Peck.

Notice to Dog Owners.
Notice is given to dog owners living within the incorporated limits of the city of Prineville that you are hereby notified to procure a license for your dog at once for the ensuing year of 1909.
C. L. SHATTUCK,
Recorder.

Rooms for Rent.
For single or double rooms or rooms for housekeeping inquire at this office. 1-14
Get This Separator.
Sharples Cream Separator No. 2, will sell or trade for stock, cows preferred. Separator nearly new. For particulars see J. H. Smith, Prineville, Or. 12-31-2p
For Sale.
One second-hand 3 1/2-inch wagon, $10. 12-31-2t J. H. DeLone, Prineville, Or.
City Property for Sale.
A. H. Lippman has several pieces of choice city property for sale. See him. 10-29t
Land Clearing and Contracting.
See McClain & Young, Redmond, Oregon, for house-moving, or for any kind of land clearing; sagebrush removed, trees cut, stumps pulled. We are prepared to bid on any work of this kind. 12-24-1mp
We Can Locate You on a Homestead.
We are prepared to locate intending settlers on government land within easy distance of this city; can show you one claim with two fine springs. Write to LAFOLETTE & SEABURY, Box 214, Prineville, Crook Co., Oregon.

Unintentionally Shoots Her Child.

Mrs. Oma Locke, formerly Miss Oma Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ab. Craig, of Grizzly, unintentionally shot and killed her little three-year-old daughter in Chicago at Christmas time. The Chicago dispatch dated Dec. 23 says:
"While her mother was decorating a Christmas tree tonight Pearl Locke, three years old, picked up an old revolver and said to her mother, Mrs. Earl Locke, 'shoot me mama.'
"The mother, unaware that the revolver was loaded, pulled the trigger and shot the child through the heart, killing her instantly. The revolver has been in the house for six months, and only one chamber was loaded."

Free Recipe Book.
With the first purchase of a one-pound can or larger of Cleveland Baking Powder we will give you a Cleveland Recipe Book which contains more than 250 choice recipes. There is no better Baking Powder on the market than Cleveland.
J. E. STEWART & Co.

The R. E. JONES Lumber Mill
ON THE OLD KNIGHTEN PLACE ON THE OCHOCO
Is now cutting first-class lumber which will be sold on reasonable terms.
ALL ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED

Hides, Pelts and Furs WANTED
Highest Market Price Paid
Herman Poch,
2 miles east of Prineville, on Ochoco road

CROOK COUNTY BANK
OFFICERS:
W. A. BOOTH, President
D. F. STEWART, Vice President
C. M. ELKINS, Cashier
DIRECTORS:
W. A. BOOTH, C. M. ELKINS, D. F. STEWART
Transacts a General Banking Business
Exchange Bought and Sold
Collections will receive prompt attention

LOCAL MENTION

The Rosland Items last week were received too late for publication. Better times bring better cigars at better prices. Smoke cigars manufactured by the Prineville Cigar Factory.
No mail was received from Shaniko Monday or Tuesday of this week because of the failure in the Biggs-Shaniko train service. It all came in Wednesday at 9 p. m.
Three hundred years ago, Shakespeare said: "We are advertised by our loving friends." Smoke a La Rosa and become one of our advertisers. Prineville Cigar Factory.
Mrs. Ora Zell of Crook county, passed through Moro Tuesday attended by her sister Wevo, and from Moro by her brother, George E. Lewellen, en route to a hospital for treatment.—Moro Observer.
Grants Pass Observer: Mrs. J. W. Baker, of Bend, Ore., who with her husband and daughter, Miss Melba, have been visiting Mr. Baker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Baker, of Roseburg, received a telegram calling her to the bedside of her sister-in-law, Mrs. A. J. Wimer, who is dangerously ill of ptomaine poisoning at her home in Grants Pass.

Free Recipe Book.
With the first purchase of a one-pound can or larger of Cleveland Baking Powder we will give you a Cleveland Recipe Book which contains more than 250 choice recipes. There is no better Baking Powder on the market than Cleveland.
J. E. STEWART & Co.

The R. E. JONES Lumber Mill
ON THE OLD KNIGHTEN PLACE ON THE OCHOCO
Is now cutting first-class lumber which will be sold on reasonable terms.
ALL ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED

Hides, Pelts and Furs WANTED
Highest Market Price Paid
Herman Poch,
2 miles east of Prineville, on Ochoco road

CROOK COUNTY BANK
OFFICERS:
W. A. BOOTH, President
D. F. STEWART, Vice President
C. M. ELKINS, Cashier
DIRECTORS:
W. A. BOOTH, C. M. ELKINS, D. F. STEWART
Transacts a General Banking Business
Exchange Bought and Sold
Collections will receive prompt attention

Ammunition Guns Knives, Belts

All kinds of sportsmen's Supplies. Shotgun shells loaded to order. Powder shot, shells and reloading outfits

SOLD BY

W. F. King

LUMBER

Shingles, Mouldings, Windows, Doors, Glasses, Etc. Etc., Etc.

SHIPP & PERRY
PRINEVILLE, OREGON

Mayer & Grosh Knives
School Books
Camera Supplies
Jewelry
Wall Paper

D. P. Adamson & Co
DRUGGISTS

Musical Instruments
Magas
Lowrey's Candies
Stationery
Cigars

The Leading Magazines and a complete line of Post Cards at

D. P. Adamson & Co.
DRUGGISTS

HOME CURED MEATS

We now have on hand the first lot of our famous home cured meats put up by Mr. D. F. Stewart. The method employed and the care taken in putting up this meat makes it far superior to any other meat on this market.

J. E. Stewart & Company