

LOCAL MENTION

J. E. Roberts is in from Bear Creek this week.

J. E. Henkle of Grizzly was in the city Tuesday.

William Marks arrived in Prineville on Tuesday's stage.

Born, in Prineville, Tuesday, Feb. 2, to the wife of J. E. Wilson, a son.

Miss Lily Knox of Post was a county seat visitor the first of the week.

E. B. Knox of Post is attending to business matters in town the past few days.

Judge Wells Bell and Mrs. Bell returned home Sunday from a visit in Portland.

Miss Marian Rhee returned home from Portland Saturday after a stay of several weeks in that city.

Arthur Wurzweller returned to Portland last week after looking after some business matters here.

George Hendricks was in from Lamonta the first of the week bringing in a load of freight for Colonel Smith.

The pupils of the seventh grade of the public schools gave Van Brink a surprise party at his home last Saturday.

Hans K. Nissen and his daughter, Miss Rose, were in town last Saturday and Sunday from their home near Madras.

James Stafford, the Silver Lake barber, passed through Prineville Tuesday on his way home from a trip to Portland.

Otto Gray and wife of the Bonnyview Farm spent several days during the past week in Prineville visiting with relatives and friends.

J. H. Reams, manager of the Cornett stage lines left Sunday for Portland. The Prineville office is in charge of Joe Taggart during his absence.

Mrs. Rose S. Howard has been appointed post master at Lower Bridge in this county and the location of the office will hereafter be at the Joe Howard place, west of the Deschutes.

Supt. R. A. Ford plans to make an official tour of visitation to the schools of that territory in the county north of Crooked River and east of the Deschutes during the coming week.

Fred Wiese of Sisters was in town Saturday on business. While here Mr. Wiese, who is a native of Germany, took out his final naturalization papers before County Clerk Warren Brown.

Monday's stage reached Prineville at about three p. m. having been delayed by a runaway which occurred at Grizzly. In the sunburst the tongue of the coach was broken, and Driver Grover Ewing had to make the trip from there into Prineville with a wagon. There were no passengers.

Postmaster Guy Lafollette announces that a change in the mail route between Cline Falls and Sisters is to go into effect shortly which will make the route run some distance north of the present one, thereby reaching a populous settlement which has a poor service now. The establishment of a new post office in that section is also possible.

Prineville is to have a steam laundry in the spring. This is the announcement made by I. D. Calbreath, who recently came here from The Dalles. Mr. Calbreath thinks that a steam laundry would be a good investment here and has backed up his faith in his judgment by purchasing a first class steam outfit at The Dalles. He has an eight-foot heated mangle that cost $500. Two washers will be installed to begin with and another added when the business justifies the investment. Everything will be up to date. A first-class laundryman will be in charge. Two lots have been purchased on the north side and a building will be placed thereon for the laundry plant.

LOCAL MENTION

William Combs was over from his Bend ranch this week.

L. C. Caldwell, the Bend hardware man was in town Sunday.

Mrs. Killingbeck of Opal Prairie is sick at the Poindexter hotel.

E. Jacobson, representing J. K. Gill & Co. of Portland is in the city.

Walter McCain, the Lamonta horseman, was in town the last of the week.

F. O. Minor came over from Bend Saturday, on business, returning Tuesday.

J. H. Overturn returned Sunday from a visit with relatives in Ek-hora, Nebraska.

W. B. Matthew of Lang & Co. of Portland spent several days this week in Prineville.

Tillman Reuter was up from Madras last Friday bringing in a load of potatoes which he sold in Prineville.

Don't forget the Brennan's annual ball at Poindexter's rink Friday evening February 12. See their ad in another column.

The sad news was received this week by Mrs. H. L. Parry that her father, Mr. Shea whose home was near Sweet Home, in Linn county had died. He was aged about 78 years.

Harry Windom, who has been attending the O. A. C. at Corvallis has returned to his home at Culver, having been forced to take a rest from his studies on account of trouble with his eyesight.

C. D. Brown is over from Bend on business. Several weeks ago Mr. Brown had the misfortune to break some of the bones in one of his feet but is getting able to be about again with the aid of a cane.

The party who borrowed the surveyor's chain and pin's from the Forest Supervisor's office is requested to return the same at once to A. S. Ireland, Prineville, Oregon.

Ten new members were initiated into the local order of United Artisans last Monday evening. The ceremonies were followed by a social session and light refreshments were served.

Regular services at the First Methodist church Sunday. Morning subject will be, "What it means to serve Christ." Evening subject, "Sins that Kill." Sunday school at 10 and Epworth League at 6:30.

Mrs. John E. Ryan tendered a farewell party to Miss Marion Myers Monday evening prior to her departure for her home in San Francisco. A number of young friends were invited to spend the evening at cards and other forms of amusement.

County Superintendent R. A. Ford made a trip to Bend last week where he spent two days in an official visit to the public schools. On the way home he stopped at the Powell Butte and Arnold schools. He reports the work of the schools progressing in a most satisfactory manner in the three districts visited.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Stearns and E. G. Titus of Portland and G. Abrahamson of Holdredge, Neb. were in Prineville the last of the week on their way to Shaniko after spending two weeks or more in the Bend country. Mr. Stearns holds large interest there, and the other gentlemen were on a trip of inspection with a view to investing in irrigated lands.

Dr. Cline S. Edwards was called to the site of the oil well operations on the west side of Grizzly mountain last Tuesday afternoon by a hurry up call, stating that someone had been poisoned. Ed Hodson was summoned with his Reo runabout and landed the doctor at the oil well 18 miles away just one hour after leaving Prineville. The case proved not to be one of poisoning. E. L. Bloomfield, the head driller, had suffered an attack of apoplexy, and the people there thought he had been poisoned. Dr. Edwards relieved the sufferer and at the time he left the man could talk and was well on the way to recovery.

LOCAL MENTION

T. M. Baldwin left today for a business trip to Portland.

T. J. Miles Riggs, who has charge of a band of sheep for George Knox at Pine Mountain was in town last Sunday.

Ed L. Crabtree came in from his ranch on Lower Crooked river the first of the week and spent a few days in town on business.

William Wornstaff, Elmer Wornstaff and L. Ellington were among those from Bend who visited at the county seat during the week.

Miss Nellie Reynolds has completed a term of school at Haystack and was in Prineville this week. She will soon open a term of school at Ashwood.

J. H. Delore left Monday for Boston to join his wife who is visiting children in the New England states. Mr. and Mrs. Delore will be home again in about a month.

Frank Petett the jeweler and optician, accompanied by Pete Barnes, spent part of the week up Crooked river on a vacation. The boys are camping out and trapping for wild animals.

Sheridan Skroun, the stage man, has resumed his work on the Sisters route between Prineville and Cline Falls after a sick spell of several weeks. John Park was driving in his place.

Charley Summers has joined the navy. He will take up electrical engineering. Mrs. Summers received word that he had been ordered to the U. S. navy yard at Bremerton, Wash.

James Lawson of Mill Creek was in town Monday. He reports the stock in his part of the county to be in good shape. The cold weather did not last long enough to effect their condition.

Judge Ellis of Bend is over to attend the term of the probate court. The last term of commissioner's court adjourned to February 1, but as no matters are on hand, the work will all be of probate nature.

J. H. Gray this week sold a fine span of four-year-old bay horses to Wm. Wornstaff, a rancher residing about three miles from Bend. The purchaser was in Prineville this week and took the team home with him. The price paid was $250.

Rev. C. P. Bailey, the Baptist minister, formerly a resident of Prineville, whose home is now at The Dalles, arrived here last week and is conducting a revival at the Union church. The meetings are scheduled to continue all of this and next week.

Harvey A. Summerville, a well-known stockman in interior Oregon, is dead. He was a partner of Walter Brown in the stock business in Grant county and was well known in Crook county. Mr. Summerville was 54 years of age and leaves a wife and five children, besides two sisters and one brother.

L. E. West, a stockbuyer from Tacoma, was in this section this week and while here bought four carloads of prime Hereford steers from Slayton Bros. The purchaser pronounced the beef the choicest lot of cattle he has seen for a long time. Mr. West was also looking up the matter of buying mutton sheep but made no buys so far as known.

The following applicants who took the eighth grade examinations are reported by the board to have passed successfully, and will in due time receive their diplomas from the office of the county superintendent: District No. 22 Madras—Ulla Sanford, Elsie Northrup, Carl Galloway and Nora Livingston. District No. 62, Vibbert—Velma Klann and Noah Vibbert.

Dr. H. P. Belknap has succeeded in passing the bill carrying an appropriation for the Crook county fair through the legislature over the governor's veto. There is a question in the minds of some local people as to the amount of this appropriation, but it is believed to be $750 annually, as that was the amount carried in the bill which the governor vetoed. The appropriation is perpetual.

The Band Boys' Big Barn DANCE

Are you any different from the average person? Do you like to have a good time occasionally? Of course you do. Therefore don't be misled into believing you won't enjoy yourself to the fullest extent on this occasion, for if you miss it you're bound to regret it.

Just stop and consider these facts for a moment

The largest hall in Crook county
The best floor, waxed to perfection
Music by a full brass band; music by a full orchestra of nine pieces; music by other well known local talent
Quadrilles galore; waltzes, twosteps, schottisches, or whatever you want—a plenty and then some
A delicious and appetizing luncheon
Assistant floor managers from each nearby country precinct, who will make it his business to see that YOU have a good time, and last of all Some Big Surprises which we have in store for you. Come, see and believe

DON'T FORGET THAT—The band boys are giving this ball for a worthy purpose. That the community at large is indirectly benefited by the success of this event. That the band boys are deserving of your sympathy, your encouragement, your co-operation. That a little assistance from you will make this musical organization one of the best in Central Oregon.

COME ONE—COME ALL—BRING YOUR GIRLS, YOUR WIVES. Come knowing you will have a good time. We know you will leave more than satisfied

P. A. A. C. Hall -- Tickets $1.00 -- March 5

Tickets on sale at

C. W. ELKINS
POSTER & HYDE
CLIFTON & CORNETT
DARLING'S BARBER SHOP
W. FRANK PETETT

J. E. STEWART & CO
W. E. KING
LIVELY-JORDAN-LANUOS CO
STORKMANN'S CIGAR STORE

LOCAL MENTION

John Edwards was over from Sisters the last of the week.

R. M. Powell states this week that he expects to ship about 150 head of beef cattle the first of March. They are now being fed on the McKay.

Rev. Robert L. Paddock, missionary bishop of Eastern Oregon of the Episcopal diocese, will be in Prineville February 24, 25 and 26. Services will be held on Wednesday and Friday evenings. On Thursday evening, the 25th, the bishop will be tendered a public reception at which time he will give a narrative of his travels in Turkey, Russia, Egypt and other countries. Those who heard the bishop on his former visit will not fail to hear him again.

Dick Long was given the decision over Tully Holwood in a six-round boxing match by Referee Rosen being in the contest last evening, given under the management of J. E. Wilson in the McCallister building. The decision met with general approval, although the boys were evenly matched and it was nip and tuck from start to finish. A three-round preliminary between Pete Hinkle and Stanley Morris opened the entertainment. A large crowd was present, composed of businessmen and representatives from all walks of life. The exhibition was greatly enjoyed by everyone. No blood was spilled and the crowd was orderly.

In Honor of Lincoln.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church has arranged to celebrate the centennial of the birth of Lincoln February 12 by giving the following program:

1—Music by the Orchestra..... Selected
2—Male Quartet..... Messrs. Shipp, Elkins, Ashby and Ketchum.
3—Oration—Eulogy of Lincoln..... Miss Parrott
4—Solo by Miss Conway..... Selected
5—Why should the spirit of Moral be Proud..... Mrs. H. P. Belknap
6—Aunt Sally Lowry Tells Lincoln Goodby..... Mrs. Shipp and Guy Lafollette
7—Solo by Prof. Ashby..... Selected
8—The Gettysburg Speech..... Mr. Draper
9—Pantomime—Lincoln Freeing the Slave..... Lafollette and Hardman
10—Orchestra..... Selected
Admission Free. Children 5c. The ladies will serve refreshments at the close of the program.

Ammunition
Guns
Knives, Belts

All kinds of sportsmen's Supplies. Shotgun shells loaded to order. Powder shot, shells and reloading outfits

SOLD BY

W. F. King

LUMBER

Shingles, Mouldings, Windows, Doors, Glasses, Etc. Etc.

SHIPP & PERRY
PRINEVILLE, OREGON

Dissolution of Partnership.
The firm of Jones & Ritter has been dissolved by mutual consent. 2-4-11

Spectacles Found.
A pair of gold rim spectacles in case was found just east of the Prineville Hotel and left at this office. Owner can have same by calling at the Journal office.

Are you vaccinated? Whether you are or not, you're bound to catch the dancing fever on March 5th.

Maher & Grosh Knives
School Books
Camera Supplies
Jewelry
Wall Paper

D. P. Adamson & Co
DRUGGISTS

Musical Instruments
Magas
Lowrey's Candies
Stationery
Cigars

The finest and most complete line of VALENTINES ever shown in Prineville.

D. P. Adamson & Co.
DRUGGISTS

SPECIALS Saturday, February 6, 1909

Goods will be sold at the prices named below on this day only. We can not afford to sell these goods regularly at the prices named, but offer them as an inducement for you to come to our store. Get started with us. We have the most complete line of groceries in Prineville and sell at the most reasonable prices. Cash or monthly accounts.

Home Cured Shoulders, our own brand special Saturday, per pound.....	11½c	Celery, nice long bunches, special for Saturday.....	10c
Fancy Three Crown Raisins, special on Saturday per pound.....	09c	Sweet Potatoes, fancy, special on Saturday, per pound.....	06½c
Macaroni, extra quality, in one-pound packages.....	10c	Fancy Apples, medium size, 150 to 200 counts, special Saturday.....	$1.80

J. E. Stewart & Company